Storming the Reality Studio Larry McCaffery, 1991 The term cyberpunk entered the literary landscape in 1984 to describe William Gibson's pathbreaking novel Neuromancer Cyberpunks are now among the shock troops of postmodernism Larry McCaffery argues in Storming the Reality Studio marshalling the resources of a fragmentary culture to create a startling new form Artificial intelligence genetic engineering multinational machinations frenetic bursts of prose collisions of style celebrations of texture although emerging largely from science fiction these features of cyberpunk writing are as this volume makes clear integrally related to the aims and innovations of the literary avant garde By bringing together original fiction by well known contemporary writers William Burroughs Thomas Pynchon Don DeLillo Kathy Acker J G Ballard Samuel R Delany critical commentary by some of the major theorists of postmodern art and culture Jacques Derrida Fredric Jameson Timothy Leary Jean Fran ois Lyotard and work by major practitioners of cyberpunk William Gibson Rudy Rucker John Shirley Pat Cadigan Bruce Sterling Storming the Reality Studio reveals a fascinating ongoing dialog in contemporary culture What emerges most strikingly from the colloquy is a shared preoccupation with the force of technology in shaping modern life It is precisely this concern according to McCaffery that has put science fiction typically the province of technological art at the forefront of creative explorations of our unique age A rich opportunity for reading across genres this anthology offers a new perspective on the evolution of postmodern culture and ultimately shows how deeply technological developments have influenced our vision and our art Selected Fiction contributors Kathy Acker J G Ballard William S Burroughs Pat Cadigan Samuel R Delany Don DeLillo William Gibson Harold Jaffe Richard Kadrey Marc Laidlaw Mark Leyner Joseph McElroy Misha Ted Mooney Thomas Pynchon Rudy Rucker Lucius Shepard Lewis Shiner John Shirley Bruce Sterling William Vollman Selected Non Fiction contributors Jean Baudrillard Jacques Derrida Joan Gordon Veronica Hollinger Fredric Jameson Arthur Kroker and David Cook Timothy Leary Jean Fran ois Lyotard Larry McCaffery Brian McHale Dave Porush Bruce Sterling Darko Suvin Takayuki Tatsumi

Crypto Anarchy, Cyberstates, and Pirate Utopias Peter Ludlow, 2001-05-25 A wide ranging collection of writings on emerging political structures in cyberspace In Crypto Anarchy Cyberstates and Pirate Utopias Peter Ludlow extends the approach he used so successfully in High Noon on the Electronic Frontier offering a collection of writings that reflects the eclectic nature of the online world as well as its tremendous energy and creativity This time the subject is the emergence of governance structures within online communities and the visions of political sovereignty shaping some of those communities Ludlow views virtual communities as laboratories for conducting experiments in the construction of new societies and governance structures While many online experiments will fail Ludlow argues that given the synergy of the online world new and superior governance structures may emerge Indeed utopian visions are not out of place provided that we understand the new utopias to be fleeting localized islands in the Net and not permanent institutions The book is organized in five sections The first section considers the sovereignty of the Internet The second section asks how widespread access to resources such as Pretty Good Privacy and anonymous remailers allows the possibility of Crypto Anarchy essentially carving out space for activities that lie outside the purview of nation states and other traditional powers The third section shows how the growth of e commerce is raising questions of legal jurisdiction and taxation for which the geographic boundaries of nation states are obsolete The fourth section looks at specific experimental governance structures evolved by online communities The fifth section considers utopian and anti utopian visions for cyberspace Contributors Richard Barbrook John Perry Barlow William E Baugh Jr David S Bennahum Hakim Bey David Brin Andy Cameron Dorothy E Denning Mark Dery Kevin Doyle Duncan Frissell Eric Hughes Karrie Jacobs David Johnson Peter Ludlow Timothy C May Jennifer L Mnookin Nathan Newman David G Post Jedediah S Purdy Charles J Stivale

Terminal Identity Scott Bukatman, 1993 Scott Bukatman's Terminal Identity referring to both the site of the termination of the conventional subject and the birth of a new subjectivity constructed at the computer terminal or television screen puts to rest any lingering doubts of the significance of science fiction in contemporary cultural studies Demonstrating a comprehensive knowledge both of the history of science fiction narrative from its earliest origins and of cultural theory and philosophy Bukatman redefines the nature of human identity in the Information Age Drawing on a wide range of contemporary theories of the postmodern including Fredric Jameson Donna Haraway and Jean Baudrillard Bukatman begins with the proposition that Western culture is suffering a crisis brought on by advanced electronic technologies Then in a series of chapters richly supported by analyses of literary texts visual arts film video television comics computer games and graphics Bukatman takes the reader on an odyssey that traces the postmodern subject from its current crisis through its close encounters with technology and finally to new self recognition This new virtual subject as Bukatman defines it situates the human and the technological as coexistent codependent and mutually defining

Synthesizing the most provocative theories of postmodern culture with a truly encyclopedic treatment of the relevant media this volume sets a new standard in the study of science fiction a category that itself may be redefined in light of this work Bukatman not only offers the most detailed map to date of the intellectual terrain of postmodern technology studies he arrives at new frontiers providing a propitious launching point for further inquiries into the relationship of electronic technology and culture
