

Kicking the Sky

"Rich and compulsively readable . . .
A novel that, like most of the good ones, is funny, heart-breaking and humane."

Kicking The Sky By Anthony De Sa:

Kicking the Sky Anthony De Sa, 2014-03-25 It was 1977 when a shoeshine boy Emanuel Jaques was brutally murdered in Toronto In the aftermath of the crime twelve year old Antonio Rebelo explores his neighborhood s dark garages and labyrinthine back alleys along with his rascal friends As the media unravels the truth behind the Shoeshine Boy murder Antonio sees his immigrant family and his Portuguese neighborhood with new eyes becoming aware of the frightening reality that no one is really taking care of him So intent are his parents and his neighbors on keeping the old traditions alive that they act as if they still live in a small village not in a big city that puts their kids in the kind of danger they would not dare imagine Antonio learns about bravery and cowardice life and death and the heart s capacity for love and for cruelty in this stunning novel

The Fruitful City Helena Moncrieff, 2018-04-03 Examining the roots and fruits of the urban foodscape Our cities are places of food polarities food deserts and farmers markets hunger and food waste fast food delivery and urban gardening While locavores and preserving pros abound many of us can t identify the fruit trees in our yards or declare a berry safe to eat Those plants and the people who planted them are often forgotten In The Fruitful City Helena Moncrieff examines our relationship with food through the fruit trees that dot city streets and yards She tracks the origins of these living heirlooms and questions how they went from being subsistence staples to raccoon fodder But in some cities previously forgotten fruit is now in high demand and Moncrieff investigates the surge of non profit urban harvest organizations that try to prevent that food from rotting on concrete and meets the people putting rescued fruit to good use As she travels across Canada slipping into backyards visiting community orchards and taking in canning competitions Moncrieff discovers that attitudinal changes are more important than agricultural ones While the bounty of apples is great reconnecting with nature and our community is the real prize

Towards a Participatory Approach to Cultural Heritage Management Ji Li, 2025-09-01 This book advances the understanding and process of community participation in cultural heritage management within the Chinese context of rapidly urbanising development Results show that Chinese community participation in cultural heritage management has yet to find a firm foothold Based on local contextual characteristics it needs to develop a balanced methodology of both top down and bottom up processes to more directly include the needs interests and dreams of residents and better face the challenges of Chinese rapid urbanisation

War Is Here Robert McGill, 2017-09-01 Canada did not fight in the Vietnam War but the conflict seized the Canadian imagination with an energy that has persisted In War Is Here Robert McGill explains how the war contributed to a golden age for writing in Canada As authors addressed the conflict they helped to construct an enduring myth of Canada as liberal hospitable and humanitarian For many writers the war was one that Canadians could and should fight against if not in person then on the page In this pioneering account of war related Canadian literature McGill observes how celebrated books of the era channel Vietnam sometimes in subtle but pervasive ways He examines authors attempts to educate their readers about American imperialism and Canadian complicity and he discusses how writers repeatedly used language evoking militarism and violence from the figure of the United States as a rapist to the notion of Canada as a peaceable kingdom in order to make Canadians feel more intensely about their country McGill also addresses the recent spate of prize winning Canadian novels about the war that have renewed Vietnam s resonance in the wake of twenty first century conflicts involving America War Is Here vividly revisits a galvanizing time in world history and Canadian life offering vital insights into the Vietnam War s influence on how people think about Canada its place in the world and the power of the written word to make a difference The Heart of Toronto

Daniel Ross,2022-04-01 From the 1950s to the 1970s downtown North America was reconfigured for the suburban age Municipal officials planned renewal schemes merchant groups lobbied for street improvements developers built bigger and taller Everywhere attention turned to the problems and possibilities at the commercial and civic heart of cities The Heart of Toronto follows one such example of reinvention downtown Yonge Street Efforts to keep pace with or even lead urban change included the street s conversion into a car free public space a clean up campaign targeting the sex industry and the construction of North America s largest urban shopping mall These revitalization projects were all connected to wider trends of postwar decentralization economic restructuring and cultural transformation Interweaving histories of development civic activism and corporate clout The Heart of Toronto widens our understanding of the actors and power dynamics involved in remaking downtown in Canada s largest city a process that is far from over Bearers of Risk Neta Gordon,2022-04-15

The short story and the short story cycle have long been considered a marginal genre free to make room for fresh or risk taking voices But in thematizing masculinity in crisis the genre uses the premise of the marginal to elevate recuperative masculinity politics and nostalgia for traditional patriarchy Despite the scholarly tendency to link marginal genres and marginalized voices features of the CanLit infrastructure including genre criticism and literary prize culture are complicit in normalizing hegemonic masculinity and the Settler colonial project Bearers of Risk examines how male Canadian writers mobilize the early twenty first century short story cycle as an illustration of post 9 11 recuperative masculinity politics exposing the tendency to position White heteronormative men s viewpoints as objective Neta Gordon introduces the civil bearer of risk a figure who comprehends the position of men as being marked by or for failure and who reasserts masculine authority as civil duty towards community This book looks at contemporary experimental short story cycles debut cycles by ethnically minoritized and immigrant writers and cycles unified by setting whether suburban urban or rural Bearers of Risk unsettles popular notions of the inherent outsider status of the short story cycle while also scrutinizing expressions of recuperative masculinity politics through which men assert their right to reclaim the centre The Journey Prize Stories 27 Various,2015-10-06 Expect pleasure Expect delight Expect surprise Expect these twelve writers to emerge as some of this country's most interesting voices Anthony De Sa Tanis Rideout and Carrie Snyder from their Introduction The celebrated annual collection showcasing the best stories by the best new writers in Canada all contenders for the prestigious 10 000 Writers Trust of Canada McClelland Stewart Journey Prize A must read for anyone looking for exciting new voices in Canadian fiction For three decades this acclaimed annual anthology has introduced readers to the next generation of great Canadian writers With settings ranging from a small town hobby farm to the streets of Hong Kong from a dance club in 1979 to the years after the end of the world the twelve stories in this collection represent the year's best short fiction by some of our most exciting emerging writers Among the stories this year When Mercy Beatrice decides to seek out her long lost father against the advice of her late pro wrestler mother she discovers that wrestling may be in her blood After her dying husband makes a surprising wish a woman sets herself the task of finding him a lover A young man lost and craving reinvention makes the unlikely trip back to his hometown after he inherits his uncle's farm In a touching story about the intersection between Chinese tradition and modern expectations a woman must weigh the possibilities in her own life when her family prepares for the naming ceremony for her cousin's month old baby A philosophy student struggling with a broken heart and the meaning of Being must also contend with her new neighbours and their wildly precocious infant Two travellers in desperate straits look for refuge on a remote Italian farm that proves to be anything but idyllic The stories included in the anthology are contenders for the 10 000 Journey Prize which is made possible by Pulitzer Prize winning author James A Michener's donation of Canadian royalties from his novel Journey The 2015 winner will be announced by the Writers Trust of Canada on November 3 2015 For more information www.facebook.com/TheJourneyPrize Kicking the Sky Anthony De Sa,2014-01-24 Special free preview It was 1977 when a shoeshine boy Emanuel Jacques was brutally raped and murdered in Toronto In the aftermath of the crime Antonio Rebelo the twelve year old narrator of this story explores his Portuguese neighborhood's dark garages and labyrinthine back alleys along with his rascalion friends The boys develop a curious relationship with a charismatic modern day Fagin a fledgling master over an amoral world of young hustlers theft and drugs As the media unravels the truth behind the shoeshine boy murder Antonio starts to see his family and his neighborhood as never before He becomes aware of the dashed hopes of immigrants of the influence of faith and the role of church and of the frightening reality that no one is really taking care of him So intent are his parents and his neighbors on keeping the old traditions alive that they act as if they still live in a small Portuguese village not in a big city that puts their kids in the kind of danger they would not dare imagine Antonio learns about bravery and cowardice life and death and the heart's capacity for love and for unremitting hatred in this stunning coming of age novel set against the backdrop of a true crime that shook an entire city Children of the Moon Anthony De Sa,2020-02-04 From celebrated author Anthony De Sa comes a raw and
