Bove, 2008 Vincent J Bove CPP has been speaking to audiences on leadership ethics and character as well as numerous violence prevention and substance abuse awareness initiatives since September 1999 After the shooting rampage at Virginia Tech he felt compelled to put his thoughts in writing It is his deepest hope that this book will enable individuals to work together in a unity of effort to build communities of hope and trust In Listen To Their Cries Mr Bove Discusses the crisis of leadership and character in our society Memorializes the incidents of school violence over the past decade Reviews lessons learned from the Virginia Tech tragedy Highlights the basics of safety and security Offers his vision for reawakening the heart of America Virtues from Hell: Survivors of Conflicts and the Reconstruction-Reconciliation Processes Fidèle Ingiyimbere, 2022-01-01 This book offers a critical examination of certain ideas and values such as remembering forgiveness story telling through Truth and Reconciliation Commissions etc that undergird the transitional practices and mechanisms of societies emerging from conflicts It does so by making the survivors experience the supreme and ultimate judge of the legitimacy of such practices While many scholars have dealt with these topics this book provides a unique perspective on them by using personal stories narratives and memoirs of the survivors as a checking point of the theoretical elaboration of these ideas and values By means of an existential phenomenological analysis of the situation of survivors of gross human rights violations the book assesses how many resources are still available to them so that they can contribute to the processes of reconstruction and reconciliation of their societies This analysis constitutes the background for reading the rest of the book which challenges some assumptions and presumptions of transitional practices such as healing through truth telling or providing justice through reparations It does so by presenting nuanced suggestions on the ways survivors can participate in the reconstruction reconciliation processes without jeopardizing their own well being

Dare We Speak of Hope? Allan Aubrey Boesak, 2014-02-21 The phrase hopeful politics has dominated our public discourse in connection with the inspiring rise of Nelson Mandela in South Africa and the remarkable election of Barack Obama as president of the United States But what happens when that hope disappoints Can it be salvaged What is the relationship between faith hope and politics In this book Allan Boesak meditates on what it really means to hope in light of present political realities and growing human pain He argues that hope comes to life only when we truly face reality in the struggle for justice dignity and the life of the earth Dare We Speak of Hope is a critical provocative prophetic and above all hopeful book

The Boy Who Met Jesus Immaculée Ilibagiza, 2011-11-28 It s the greatest story never told that of a boy who met Jesus and dared to ask Him all the questions that have consumed mankind since the dawn of time His name was Segatashya He was a shepherd born into a penniless and illiterate pagan family in the most remote region of Rwanda He never attended school never saw a bible and never set foot in a church Then one summer day in 1982 while the 15 year old was resting beneath a shade tree Jesus Christ paid him a visit Jesus asked the startled young man if he d be willing to go on a mission to remind mankind how to live a life that leads to heaven Segatashya accepted the assignment on one condition that Jesus answer all his questions and all the questions of those he met on his travels about faith religion the purpose of life and the nature of heaven and hell Jesus agreed to the boy s terms and Segatashya set off on what would become one of the most miraculous journeys in modern history Although he was often accused of being a charlatan and beaten as a result Segatashya s innocent heart and powerful spiritual wisdom quickly won over even the most cynical of critics Soon this teenage boy who had never learned to read or write was discussing theology with leading biblical scholars and advising pastors and priests of all denominations He became so famous in Rwanda that the Catholic Church investigated his story The doctors and psychiatrists who examined Segatashya all agreed that they were witnessing a miracle His words and simple truths converted thousands of hearts and souls wherever he went Before his death during the 1994 Rwandan genocide Segatashya continued his travels and conversations with Jesus for eight years asking Him what we all want to know Why were we created Why must we suffer Why do bad things happen to good people When will the world end Is there life after death How do we get to Heaven The answers to these and many other momentous life changing questions are revealed in this riveting book
