Lust, Caution Eileen Chang, 2007-12-06 In 1940s Shanghai beautiful young Jiazhi spends her days playing mahjong and drinking tea with high society ladies But China is occupied by invading Japanese forces and things are not always what they seem in wartime Jiazhi s life is a front A patriotic student radical her mission is to seduce a powerful employee of the occupying government and lead him to the assassin s bullet Yet as she waits for him to arrive at their liaison Jiazhi begins to wonder if she is cut out to be a femme fatale and coldly take Mr Yi to his death Or is she beginning to fall in love with him A passionate tale of espionage deception and love Lust Caution is accompanied here by four further dazzling short stories by Lust, Caution Ailing Zhang, 2007-12-06 In 1940s Shanghai Jiazhi s mission is to seduce an employee of the occupying government and lead him to the assassin's bullet But she begins to wonder if she can coldly take Mr Yi to his death A tale of espionage and love accompanied by four further short stories From Eileen Chang to Ang Lee Peng Hsiao-yen, Whitney Crothers Dilley, 2014-01-10 In 2007 Ang Lee made an espionage thriller based on the short story Lust Caution by Eileen Chang China s most famous female author of the twentieth century The release of the film became a trigger for heated debates on issues of national identity and political loyalty and brought unexpectedly harsh criticism from China where Ang Lee was labelled a traitor in scathing internet critiques whilst the film's leading actress Tang Wei was banned from appearing on screen for two years This book analyses Ang Lee's art of film adaptation through the lens of modern literary and film theory as well as featuring detailed readings and analyses of different dialogues and scenes directorial and authorial decisions and intentions while at the same time confronting the intense political debates resulting from the film's subject matter. The theories of Freud Lacan Deleuze Bataille and others are used to identify and clarify issues raised by the film related to gender sexuality eroticism power manipulation and betrayal the themes of lust and caution are dealt with in conjunction with the controversial issues of contemporary political consciousness concerning patriotism and the Sino Japanese War complicated by divided historical experiences and cross Taiwan Strait relationships The contributors to this volume cover translation and adaptation loyalty and betrayal collaboration and manipulation playing roles and performativity whilst at the same time intertwining these with issues of national identity political loyalty collective memory and gender As such the book will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese and Asian cinema and literature as well as those interested in modern Chinese history and cultural studies Eileen Chang Kam Louie, 2012-03-01 Eileen Chang 1920 1995 is arguably the most perceptive writer in modern Chinese literature She was one of the most popular writers in 1940s Shanghai but her insistence on writing about individual human relationships and mundane matters rather than revolutionary and political movements meant that in mainland China she was neglected until very recently Outside the mainland her life and writings never ceased to fascinate Chinese readers There are hundreds of works about her in the Chinese language but very few in other languages This is the first work in English to explore her earliest short stories as well as novels that were published posthumously It discusses the translation of her stories for film and stage presentation as well as nonliterary aspects of her life that are essential for a more comprehensive understanding of her writings including her intense concern for privacy and enduring sensitivity to her public image The thirteen essays examine the fidelity and betrayals that dominate her alter ego's relationships with parents and lovers informed by theories and methodologies from a range of disciplines including literary historical gender and film studies These relationships are frequently dramatized in plays and filmic Eileen Chang: The Performativity of Self-Translation Jessica Tsui-yan Li,2025-06-16 Eileen Chang The Performativity of Self Translation by Jessica Tsui van Li focuses on the self translation of Zhang Ailing Eileen Chang 1920 1995 one of the most important Chinese writers of the twentieth century Although self translation is overlooked in most studies of her work Chang's literary achievements are attributed in part to her lifelong self translation of her lived experiences and family sagas as well as her bilingualism This book enriches current studies of self translation by proposing a new hypothesis of theorizing self translation as a performative act characterized by its in betweenness and the aesthetic freedom that the self translator enjoys contextualized within larger debates about translation and the specific practice of self Lust, Caution Ailing Zhang, 2007-12-06 In 1940s translation in Chinese history in comparison to its Western counterpart Shanghai Jiazhi s mission is to seduce an employee of the occupying government and lead him to the assassin s bullet But she begins to wonder if she can coldly take Mr Yi to his death A tale of espionage and love accompanied by four further short Cosmopolitan Love Sijia Yao, 2023-11-09 Love and the different manifestations of it is a common theme in stories literature around the world In Cosmopolitan Love Sijia Yao examines the writings of D H Lawrence a British writer whose literature focused primarily on interpersonal relationships in domestic settings and Eileen Chang a Chinese writer who migrated to the United States and explored Chinese heterosexual love in her writing While comparing the writings of a Chinese writer and an English one Yao avoids a direct comparison between East and West that could further enforce binaries Instead she uses the comparison to develop an idea of cosmopolitanism that shows how the writers are in conversation with their own culture and with each other Both D H Lawrence and Eileen Chang wrote stories that are influenced by but sometimes stand in opposition to their own cultures They offer alternative understandings of societies dealing with modernism and cultural globalization Their stories deal with emotional pain caused by the restrictions of local politics and economics and address common themes of incestuous love sexual love adulterous love and utopian love By analyzing their writing Yao demonstrates that the concept of love as a social and political force can cross cultural boundaries and traditions to become a basis for human meaning the key to a cosmopolitan vision Diasporic Chineseness After the Rise of China Kam Louie, Julia Kuehn, David M. Pomfret, 2013-11-26 As China rose to its position of global superpower Chinese groups in the West watched with anticipation and trepidation In this volume international scholars examine how artists writers filmmakers and intellectuals from the Chinese diaspora represented this new China to global audiences The chapters often personal in nature focus on the nexus between the political and economic rise of China and the cultural products this period produced where new ideas of nation identity and diaspora were forged The Brokeback Book William R. Handley, 2011-05-01 An American Western made by a Taiwanese director and filmed in Canada Brokeback Mountain was a global cultural phenomenon even before it became the highest grossing gay themed drama in film history Few films have inspired as much passion and debate or produced as many contradictory responses from online homage to late night parody In this wide ranging and incisive collection writers journalists scholars and ordinary viewers explore the film and Annie Proulx s original story as well as their ongoing cultural and political significance The contributors situate Brokeback Mountain in relation to gay civil rights the cinematic and literary Western the Chinese value of forbearance male melodrama and urban and rural working lives across generations and genders The Brokeback Book builds on earlier debates by novelist David Leavitt critic Daniel Mendelsohn producer James Schamus and film reviewer Kenneth Turan with new and noteworthy interpretations of the Brokeback phenomenon the film and its legacy Also appearing in print for the first time is Michael Silverblatt's interview with Annie Proulx about the story she wrote and the film it became Hollywood Made in China Aynne Kokas, 2017-02-07 In a race to capture new audiences Hollywood moguls began courting Chinese investors to create branded entertainment on an international scale from behemoth theme parks to blockbuster films after China's 2001 World Trade Organization entry Hollywood Made in China examines this compelling dynamic where the distinctions between Hollywood's Dream Factory and the Chinese Dream of global influence become increasingly blurred What is revealed illuminates how China's influence is transforming the global media industries from the inside out Provided by publisher The Cambridge History of Chinese Literature: From 1375 Kang-i Sun Chang, Stephen Owen, 2010 Stephen Owen is James Bryant Conant Professor of Chinese at Harvard University Book Jacket After the Post-Cold War Jinhua Dai, 2018-10-25 In After the Post Cold War eminent Chinese cultural critic Dai Jinhua interrogates history memory and the future of China as a global economic power in relation to its socialist past profoundly shaped by the Cold War Drawing on Marxism post structuralism psychoanalysis and feminist theory Dai examines recent Chinese films that erase the country's socialist history to show how such erasure resignifies socialism's past as failure and thus forecloses the imagining of a future beyond that of globalized capitalism She outlines the tension between China's embrace of the free market and a regime dependent on a socialist imprimatur She also offers a genealogy of China's transformation from a source of revolutionary power into a fountainhead of globalized modernity This narrative Dai contends leaves little hope of moving from the capitalist degradation of the present into a radical future that might offer a more socially just world Lust, Caution Ailing Zhang, James Schamus, 2007 Now a major motion picture from Oscar winning director Ang Lee Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon Brokeback Mountain an intensely passionate story of love and espionage set in Shanghai during World War II In the midst of the Japanese occupation of China and Hong Kong two lives become intertwined Wong Chia Chi a young student active in the resistance and Mr Yee a powerful political figure who works for the Japanese occupational government As these two move deftly between Shanghai s tea parties and secret interrogations they become embroiled in the complicated politics of wartime and in a mutual attraction that may be more than what they expected Written in lush lavish prose and with the tension of a political thriller Lust Cautionbrings 1940s Shanghai artfully to life even as it limns the erotic pulse of a doomed love affair From the Trade Paperback edition Concise Companion to World Literature Ken Seigneurie, Paula Karger, 2025-12-22 Provides a student friendly introduction to World Literature Bridging the gap between introductory materials and advanced scholarly research the Concise Companion to World Literature offers a streamlined selection of the most popular and essential essays from The Companion to World Literature specifically tailored for undergraduate students and instructors This single volume resource edited by Ken Seigneurie and Paula Karger presents 100 carefully curated chapters fully revised for clarity and accompanied by newly commissioned essays The Concise Companion which retains the original work s three tiered organizational structure period essays thematic bridge essays and author title chapters offers a nuanced exploration of major literary traditions across time and geography Each entry contextualizes major literary works within the broader framework of global literary traditions enriching discussions on periodization literary movements and cross cultural connections With its accessible scholarship and enhanced learning tools it is a vital resource for students beginning their journey in World Literature and for educators seeking a structured easy to use reference Providing an engaging approach to the vast landscape of global literary traditions the Concise Companion to World Literature Features an entirely new introductory section that offers contemporary perspectives on World Literature Showcases a diverse array of global texts authors and traditions to deliver a broad and inclusive literary perspective Addresses key debates in World Literature including periodization cross cultural exchange and literary historiography Includes a new pedagogical supplement to assist instructors in course design and aid students in literary analysis The Concise Companion to World Literature designed for second and third year undergraduate students is an essential resource for courses in World Literature Comparative Literature and Humanities programs It is also a valuable tool for graduate students and faculty seeking an authoritative and easy to use reference for teaching and research in the field Chinese Diasporic Writers and Artists Kwok-kan Tam, Lily Li,2025-09-10 This book presents new and original essays that capture the enigmatic and intriguing personal and imagined worlds of Chinese writers and artists in diaspora in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Including chapters on artist writers such as Gao Xingjian Dai Sijie Ha Jin and Hong Ying Tyrus Wong and Shen Wei the book explores personal cross cultural experiences through their literary and other artistic works reflecting on their cultural identity their native home and their new home the past and the present By writing filming and painting about their diaspora diasporic experience they are writing about their selves and the traumatic experience many of them have gone through in forgetting the past forgiving the damage and foreshadowing a future by re visioning their selves Their experience represents a generation s quest for an identity of being Chinese but culturally distanced from China As a study of cross cultural human experience through the lens of literature film and other arts this book will not only appeal to students and scholars of Chinese diaspora studies it will also appeal to those with an interest in Chinese literature film and culture The Aesthetic Cold War Peter J. Kalliney, 2024-12-10 How decolonization and the cold war influenced literature from Africa Asia and the Caribbean How did superpower competition and the cold war affect writers in the decolonizing world In The Aesthetic Cold War Peter Kalliney explores the various ways that rival states used cultural diplomacy and the political police to influence writers In response many writers from Africa Asia and the Caribbean such as Chinua Achebe Mulk Raj Anand Eileen Chang C L R James Alex La Guma Doris Lessing Ng g wa Thiong o and Wole Soyinka carved out a vibrant conceptual space of aesthetic nonalignment imagining a different and freer future for their work Kalliney looks at how the United States and the Soviet Union in an effort to court writers funded international conferences arts centers book and magazine publishing literary prizes and radio programming International spy networks however subjected these same writers to surveillance and intimidation by tracking their movements tapping their phones reading their mail and censoring or banning their work Writers from the global south also suffered travel restrictions deportations imprisonment and even death at the hands of government agents Although conventional wisdom suggests that cold war pressures stunted the development of postcolonial literature Kalliney's extensive archival research shows that evenly balanced superpower competition allowed savvy writers to accept patronage without pledging loyalty to specific political blocs Likewise writers exploited rivalries and the emerging discourse of human rights to contest the attentions of the political police A revisionist account of superpower involvement in literature The Aesthetic Cold War considers how politics shaped literary production in the twentieth century Close-ups and Long Shots in Modern Chinese Cinemas Hsiu-Chuang Deppman, 2020-10-31 Two of the most stylized shots in cinema the close up and the long shot embody distinct attractions The iconicity of the close up magnifies the affective power of faces and elevates film to the discourse of art The depth of the long shot in contrast indexes the facts of life and reinforces our faith in reality Each configures the relation between image and distance that expands the viewer's power to see feel and conceive To understand why a director prefers one type of shot over the other then is to explore more than aesthetics It uncovers significant assumptions about film as an art of intervention or organic representation Close ups and Long Shots in Modern Chinese Cinemas is the first book to compare these two shots within the cultural historical and cinematic traditions that produced them In particular the global revival of Confucian studies and the transnational appeal of feminism in the 1980s marked a new turn in the composite cultural education of Chinese directors whose shot selections can be seen as not only stylistic expressions but ethical choices responding to established norms about self restraint ritualism propriety and female agency Each of the films discussed Zhang Yimou s Red Sorghum Ang Lee s Lust Caution Hou Hsiao hsien s The Assassin Jia Zhangke s I Wish I Knew and Wei Desheng s Cape No 7 represents a watershed in Chinese cinemas that redefines the evolving relations among film politics and ethics Together these works provide a comprehensive picture of how directors contextualize close ups and long shots in ways that make them interpretable across many films as bellwethers of social change

Musings Leo Lee Ou-fan, 2011-07-01 These essays explore cosmopolitanism in postwar Chinese literary culture from the Hong Kong identity and intellectuals like Eileen Chang Gao Xingjian and Lung Yingtai to other cultural streams represented The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms Vaysman, 2025-11-04 Realism is an by writers ranging from Oe to Kafka artistic practice that aims to faithfully represent reality Historically it has been practiced across different media from early pictorial art and epic oral narratives through literature and visual arts to film music and digital media However an understanding of what it means to faithfully represent reality is not universal rather it varies from culture to culture The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms approaches realism as a transnational transhistorical and intermedial global phenomenon It brings the diversity of global realisms to the fore showcasing previously underrepresented and marginalized theories practices forms and media of realist cultural production When True Love Came to China Lynn Pan, 2015-11-01 The Guardian's Best Books of 2015 Most people suppose that the whole world knows what it is to love that romantic love is universal guintessentially human Such a supposition has to be able to meet three challenges It has to justify its underlying assumption that all cultures mean the same thing by the word love regardless of language It has to engage with the scholarly debate on whether or not romantic love was invented in Europe and is uniquely Western And it must be able to explain why early twentieth century Chinese writers claimed that they had never known true love or love by modern Western standards By addressing these three challenges through a literary historical philosophical biographical and above all comparative approach this highly original work shows how love s profile in China shifted with the rejection of arranged marriages and concubinage in favour of free individual choice monogamy and a Western model of romantic love This book Lynn Pan's best to date adds a wonderful new angle by encouraging us via comparison to better appreciate how unusual even in some ways exotic a part of the Western past we take for granted as though it were natural actually is While the reader will learn a great deal about Chinese literary and cultural traditions from this book if read with an open mind the Western reader may end up rethinking things about his or her tradition just as deeply Jeffrey N Wasserstrom Chancellor's Professor of History University of California at Irvine Nobody writes about China guite as brilliantly as Lynn Pan who in this new illuminating work on love showcases her trademark erudition entwined with a novelist s sensibility Pan s rare skill makes the book a treat from start to finish a sumptuous deft and moving analysis of China's relationship with love Mishi Saran author of Chasing the Monk's Shadow A Journey in the Footsteps of Xuanzang and The Other Side of Light
