New Essays on Life Writing and the Body Christopher Stuart, Stephanie Todd, 2009-03-26 In light of materialist revisions of the Cartesian dual self and the increased recognition of memoir and autobiography as a crucial cultural index the physical body has emerged in the last twenty five years as an increasingly inescapable object of inquiry speculation and theory that intersects all of the various subgenres of life writing New Essays on Life Writing and the Body thus offers a timely original focused and yet appropriately interdisciplinary study of life writing This collection brings together new work by established authorities in autobiography such as Timothy Dow Adams G Thomas Couser Cynthia Huff and others along with essays by emerging scholars in the field Subjects range from new interpretations of well known autobiographies by Edith Wharton Gertrude Stein and Lucy Grealy as well as scholarly surveys of more recently defined subgenres such as the numerous New Woman autobiographies of the late 19th century adoption narratives and sibling memoirs of the mentally impaired Due to their wide interdisciplinary focus these essays will prove valuable not only to more traditional literary scholars interested in the classic literary autobiography but also to those in Women's Studies Ethnic and African American Studies as well as in emerging fields such as Disability Studies and Cognitive Studies

And Other Essays Michael Cohen, 2020-08-03 In this essay collection the sequel to his A Place to Read Michael Cohen presents the odd idea of the suicide note as a writing project that can be critiqued like any other describes encounters with illegal border crossers in south Texas and ponders the sudden popularity of books about atheism Books are a frequent subject here and Cohen makes an argument for The Maltese Falcon as the Great American Novel searches for the perfect the Platonic nature handbook and compares playing golf to reading about it Reading is for him as engrossing a form of experience as any other say hitchhiking through the Southwest with an old friend the joys of flying small planes or the charm of studying ancient Greek while people watching at the gym all experiences chronicled here He looks back at the effect a 1956 collision of two airliners over the Grand Canyon had on him as a kid fond of flying and how he learned about the joys of good food during a wanderjahr in Europe Many of these essays begin with a question whether Americans deserve their reputation for materialism why we seem to have lost the climate change battle and whether talking to yourself might really be beneficial Another frequent topic is how our ideal places cannot avoid being bruised by time He looks at what happened as the Tucson bars of his college days closed or morphed into very different places He traces seasonal changes in the desert He notes what happens to its effect when a giant cross beside I 40 in Texas is joined by equally giant windmills And he takes a mind s eye tour through Paris s terrace caf s and their literary associations after the 2015 terrorist attack there
