Judging and Understanding Pedro Alexis Tabensky, 2017-12-02 This collection embodies a debate that explores what could be characterised as the tension between judging and understanding It seems that after a particular threshold of understanding of the basic facts leading to a given moral transgression the more we understand the context and motives leading to crime the more likely we are to abstain from harsh retributive judgement Martha Nussbaum's essay Equity and Mercy included in this collection is the philosophical starting point of this debate and Bernhard Schlink's novel The Reader a novel exploring the tension between judging and understanding among other things is used as a case study by most contributors Some contributors situated at one end of the spectrum of views represented in this collection argue for the wholesale elimination of our practices of retribution in the light of the tension between judging and understanding while contributors on the other side of the spectrum argue that the tension does not actually exist A whole array of intermediate positions including Nussbaum's are represented This anthology is comprised of nearly all specially commissioned essays bringing together work dealing with the moral metaphysical epistemological and phenomenological issues required for properly understanding whether in fact there is a tension between judging and understanding and what the moral and legal implications may be of accepting or rejecting this tension

Holocaust Literature: Lerner to Zychlinsky, index S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004

Reading Women Jennifer Phegley, Janet Badia, 2005-01-01 Literary and popular culture has often focused its attention on women readers particularly since early Victorian times In Reading Women an esteemed group of new and established scholars provide a close study of the evolution of the woman reader by examining a wide range of nineteenth and twentieth century media including Antebellum scientific treatises Victorian paintings and Oprah Winfrey's televised book club as well as the writings of Charlotte Brontë Harriet Beecher Stowe and Zora Neale Hurston Attending especially to what how and why women read Reading Women brings together a rich array of subjects that sheds light on the defining role the woman reader has played in the formation not only of literary history but of British and American culture The contributors break new ground by focusing on the impact representations of women readers have had on understandings of literacy and certain reading practices the development of books and print culture and the categorization of texts into high and low cultural forms

Contemporary German Fiction Stuart Taberner, 2007-06-21 The profound political and social changes Germany has undergone since 1989 have been reflected in an extraordinarily rich range of contemporary writing Contemporary German Fiction focuses on the debates that have shaped the politics and culture of the new Germany that has emerged from the second half of the 1990s onwards and offers the first comprehensive account of key developments in German literary fiction within their social and historical context Each chapter begins with an overview of a central theme such as East German writing West German writing writing on the Nazi past writing by women and writing by ethnic minorities The authors discussed include Günter Grass Ingo Schulze Judith Hermann Christa Wolf Christian Kracht and Zafer Senocak These informative and accessible readings build up a clear picture of the central themes and stylistic concerns of the best writers working in Germany today

After Representation? R. Clifton Spargo, Robert Ehrenreich, 2009-11-11 After Representation explores one of the major issues in Holocaust studies the intersection of memory and ethics in artistic expression particularly within literature As experts in the study of literature and culture the scholars in this collection examine the shifting cultural contexts for Holocaust representation and reveal how writers whether they write as witnesses to the Holocaust or at an imaginative distance from the Nazi genocide articulate the shadowy borderline between fact and fiction between event and expression and between the condition of life endured in atrocity and the hope of a meaningful existence What imaginative literature brings to the study of the Holocaust is an ability to test the limits of language and its conventions After Representation moves beyond the suspicion of representation and explores the changing meaning of the Holocaust for different generations audiences and contexts

Crownshaw,2016-04-30 This bold intervention into the debate over the memory and post memory of the Holocaust both scrutinizes recent academic theories of post Holocaust trauma and provides a new reading of literary and architectural memory texts related to the Holocaust Perpetrators in Holocaust Narratives Joanne Pettitt,2017-04-19 This study provides a comprehensive analysis of representations of Holocaust perpetrators in literature Such texts often rather controversially seek to undo the myth of pure evil that surrounds the Holocaust and to reconstruct the perpetrator in more human banal terms Following this line of thought protagonists frequently place emphasis on the contextual or situational factors that led up to the genocide A significant consequence of this is the impact that it has on the reader who is thereby drawn into the narrative as a potential perpetrator who could in similar circumstances have acted in similar ways The tensions that this creates especially in relation to the construction of empathy constitutes a major focus of this work Making use of in excess of sixty primary sources this work explores fictional accounts of Holocaust perpetration as well as Nazi memoirs It will be of interest to anyone working in the broad areas of Holocaust literature and or perpetrator studies A Companion to Literature, Film, and Adaptation Deborah Cartmell, 2014-08-25 This is a comprehensive collection of original essays that explore the aesthetics economics and mechanics of movie adaptation from the days of silent cinema to contemporary franchise phenomena Featuring a range of theoretical approaches and chapters on the historical ideological and economic aspects of adaptation the volume reflects today's acceptance of intertextuality as a vital and progressive cultural force Incorporates new research in adaptation studies Features a chapter on the Harry Potter franchise as well as other contemporary perspectives Showcases work by leading Shakespeare adaptation scholars Explores fascinating topics such as unfilmable texts Includes detailed considerations of Ian McEwan's Atonement and Conrad's Heart of Darkness

Memory Studies: Reliving the Past Dr. Sarika Kanjlia & Dr. Inayat Chaudhary, N A The Inability to Love Agnes C. Mueller, 2015 The Inability to Love borrows its title from Alexander and Margarete Mitscherlich's 1967 landmark book The Inability to Mourn which discussed German society's lack of psychological reckoning with the Holocaust Challenging that notion Agnes Mueller turns to recently published works by prominent contemporary German non Jewish writers to examine whether there has been a thorough engagement with German history and memory She focuses on literature that invokes Jews Israel and the Holocaust Mueller's aim is to shed light on pressing questions concerning German memories of the past and on German images of Jews in Germany at a moment that's ideologically and historically fraught Rethinking Holocaust Film Reception Stefanie Rauch, 2020-12-10 Taking early 21st century Britain as a case study Rethinking Holocaust Film Reception A British Case Study presents an intervention into the scholarship on the representation of the Holocaust on film Based on a study of audience responses to select films Stefanie Rauch demonstrates that the reception of films about the Holocaust is a complex process that we cannot understand through textual analysis alone but by also paying attention to individual reception processes This book restores the agency of viewers and takes seriously their diverse responses to representations of the Holocaust It demonstrates that viewers' interpretative resources play an important role in film reception Viewers regard Holocaust films as a separate genre that they encounter with a set of expectations The author highlights the implications of Britain's lessons focused approach to Holocaust education and commemoration and addresses debates around the supposed globalization of Holocaust memory by unpacking the peculiar Britishness of viewers' responses to films about the Holocaust A sense of emotional connection or its absence to the Holocaust and its memory speaks to divisions along ethnic generational and national lines The Reading Groups Book Jenny Hartley, Sarah Turvey, 2001

Catastrophe and Meaning Moishe Postone, Eric L. Santner, 2003-11-15 How should we understand the relation of the Holocaust to the broader historical processes of the century just ended How do we explain the bearing of the Holocaust on problems of representation memory memorialization and historical practice These are some of the questions explored by an esteemed group of scholars in Catastrophe and Meaning the most significant multiauthored book on the Holocaust in over a decade This collection features essays that consider the role of anti-Semitism in the recounting of the Holocaust the place of the catastrophe in the narrative of twentieth century history the questions of agency and victimhood that the Holocaust inspires the afterlife of trauma in literature written about the tragedy and the gaps in remembrance and comprehension that normal historical works fail to notice Contributors Omer Bartov Dan Diner Debora Dwork Saul Friedländer Geoffrey Hartman Dominick LaCapra Paul Mendes-Flohr Anson Rabinbach Frank Trommler Shulamit Volkov Froma Zeitlin

Transnational German Studies Rebecca Braun, Benedict Schofield, 2020-07-17 This volume consists of a series of essays written by leading scholars within the field demonstrating the types of inquiry that can be pursued into the transnational realities underpinning German language culture and history as these travel right around the globe Contributions discuss the inherent cross-pollination of different languages times places and notions of identity within German language cultures and the ways in which their construction and circulation cannot be contained by national or linguistic borders In doing so it is not the aim of the volume to provide a compendium of existing transnational approaches to German Studies or to offer its readers a series of survey chapters on different fields of study to date Instead it offers novel research-led chapters that pose a question a problem or an issue through which contemporary and historical transcultural and transnational processes can be seen at work Accordingly each essay isolates a specific area of study and opens it up for exploration providing readers especially student readers not just with examples of transnational phenomena in German language cultures but also with models of how research in these areas can be configured and pursued Contributors Angus Nicholls Anne Fuchs Benedict Schofield Birgit Lang Charlotte Ryland Claire Baldwin Dirk Weissmann Elizabeth Anderson James Hodgkinson Nicholas Baer Paulo Soethe Rebecca Braun Sara Jones Sebastian Heiduschke Stuart Taberner and Ulrike Draesner
