Organizing Words Yiannis Gabriel, 2008-10-30 Organizing Words presents a series of essays on some 220 widely used and much debated terms in the social sciences and organization studies Each essay explores the meanings and uses of the word and also the controversies they have sparked The book aims to be a first port of call for students researchers and scholars who wish to familiarize themselves with these key ideas and use them in their own work The book is neither an encyclopaedia nor a dictionary but a thesaurus As such it combines both the original meaning of a thesaurus as a treasure trove with its more contemporary characteristics of an accessible and practical resource Primarily aimed at those interested in social and organizational studies it will appeal to all those interested in the human sciences It does not claim to be canonical or all inclusive but each entry seeks to enlighten and help without patronizing or obscuring disagreements and difficulties The book seeks to be reassuring without being complacent or comfortable to be authoritative without being doctrinaire and to be critical without being destructive Words help us express ourselves and make sense of our experiences and our actions and they help us to organize ourselves our thoughts and our universe Organizing Words will be an invaluable resource for essay writing and a useful tool in planning and carrying out projects and dissertations Most of the entries have been written by Yiannis Gabriel with 40 essays coming from other experts in particular areas Beyond Human Tara Daly,2019-02-15 In the Andes indigenous knowledge systems based on the relationships between different beings both earthly and heavenly animal and plant have been central to the organization of knowledge since precolonial times The legacies of colonialism and the continuance of indigenous cultures make the Andes a unique place from which to think about art and social change as ongoing and as encompassing more than an exclusively human perspective Beyond Human revises established readings of the avant gardes in Peru and Bolivia as humanizing and historical By presenting fresh readings of canonical authors like Cesar Vallejo Jos Mar a Arguedas and Magda Portal and through analysis of newer artist activists like Julieta Paredes Mujeres Creando Comunidad and Alejandra Dorado Daly argues instead that avant gardes complicate questions of agency and contribute to theoretical discussions on vital materialisms the idea that life happens between animate and inanimate beings human and non human and is made sensible through art Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press The Weekly Review ,1892 Old School, New Clothes Ronald E. Hoch,David P. Smith,2011-09-09 Is much of Christian education in America distinctly Christian Ron Hoch and David Smith say No Instead it is guilty of having adopted an ideology and methodology that strips it of the right to call itself Christian and the ability to fulfill a truly Christian mission The authors claim that the fundamentally humanistic ideology of the West conditions and controls much of what is labeled Christian education By talking about the need to integrate faith and learning focusing on teaching methodology and operating schools in virtually the same way as government run schools many Christian academics betray captivity to the dogma that humans are the measure of all things and need to do what God has already done As a result much of what controls the conversation and practices in Christian academia echoes the humanistic arrogance of the West and offers no substantive alternative to it In Old School New Clothes Hoch and Smith issue a call for Christian academics to own up to their own confession that all reality was created and integrated by God damaged by sin and has already been reintegrated in and by Jesus Thus the emphasis in Christian education ought not to be what Christian educators are doing to redeem the culture but on what God is bringing to the Church in order to redeem sinners Only by recognizing that all human knowledge claims in every sphere are inherently theological and that God is truly seen in and experienced through knowledge of all things will a distinctly Christian education be forged Christian education must primarily emphasize the reintegration or redemption of teachers brought through right knowledge of Jesus that comes through every subject discipline and expressed in a life balanced on Sabbath work and family Take My Word Anne E. Goldman,2023-09-01 In an innovative critique of traditional approaches to autobiography Anne E Goldman convincingly demonstrates that ethnic women can and do speak for themselves even in the most unlikely contexts Citing a wide variety of nontraditional texts including the cookbooks of Nuevo Mexicanas African American memoirs of midwifery and healing and Jewish women's histories of the garment industry Goldman illustrates how American women have asserted their ethnic identities and made their voices heard over and sometimes against the interests of publishers editors and readers While the dominant culture has interpreted works of ethnic literature as representative of a people rather than an individual the working women of this study insist upon their own agency in narrating rich and complicated self portraits In an innovative critique of traditional approaches to autobiography Anne E Goldman convincingly demonstrates that ethnic women can and do speak for themselves even in the most unlikely contexts Citing a wide variety of nontraditional texts including Joseph Smith and Word of Faith Movement , A Legislative History of the National Science and Technology Policy, Organization, and Priorities Act of 1976 ,1977 Mastering Life Before It's Too Late Robert J.
