Athens Past And Present With Reconstructions Of Ancient Monuments:

Pinning Down the Past Mike Corbishley, 2014-04-17 In a relatively short period of time the pursuit of archaeology has evolved from an antiquarian interest to a specialised scientific activity Part of this evolution has always included the interest of the public and archaeologists efforts to educate them As each new method and technique is developed and each new specialism is created the challenge of making archaeology available as a learning resource grows with it Today for example the issues which surround archaeology and heritage such as the pressures of tourism on sites now form part of many formal educational curricula This book the first to deal with the subject in such depth examines the place of education and outreach within the wider archaeological community Written by one of Britain s leading archaeological educationalists it charts the sometimes difficult and painful growth and development of education and archaeology Packed full of informative and enlightening case studies from the circus at Colchester to Sutton Hoo and Hadrian s Wall this work examines exactly how we have reached the point we are at where that place is and suggests areas for future development By drawing upon many decades of experience at the front line of archaeological education the author has produced a key text that will play a major role in the on going development of the heritage industry Publisher s website Historical Memory in Greece, 1821-1930 Christina Koulouri, 2022-08-19 This book presents a social and cultural history of collective memory in modern Greece during the first century of state independence contributing to the debate over the relationship between memory and identity It discusses how modern Greek society commemorated its distant and recent pasts both real and imagined namely antiquity Byzantium the Greek Revolution and the Asia Minor Catastrophe how cultural memory was shaped by the various war experiences victory defeat mass death and mourning refugeedom and how memory politics became arenas of social and political strife Historical painting monuments historical pageantry tableaux vivants national anniversaries performances of ancient drama and revivals of ancient games are analyzed as instances where the past was visualized represented performed and consumed An explosion in public history has taken place over the last decades around the world with a veritable flood of commemorations anniversaries and memory wars As more and more social groups claim the right to remember public discourse and polemics have arisen at the same time that traumatic memory has become a field of international academic research In the arena of public history historical memory is being constructed through the sentimental irrational reception of mythological narratives told through images Building Modern Antiquity Georgia Giannakopoulou, 2024-11-29 This book considers post 19th century Athens as a unique instance of a secret side of metropolitan capitalism With a focus on modern antiquity as the hidden element of the dialectic between the past and the present it suggests that the sociological study of one of the great European capital cities a city not intended as a modern capital and its architectural representations may expose part of the veiled processes of the reconstruction of the past thus shedding light on the abuse of antiquity for the celebration of European capitalist metropolitan modernity From the glorious white marble cityscape of the 19th century that aimed at re enchanting metropolitan modernity to the inglorious grey reinforced concrete 21st century metropolis modern Athens exposes the battle between the modern and a modern image of antiquity a false socially constructed historiography born of the dialectics between the ancient and the modern the new and the old collective memory and collective forgetting As such The Building of a Modern Antiquity will appeal to scholars of sociology with interests in social and critical theory urban studies sociology of architecture and visual sociology

The Routledge Companion to the Philosophy of Architectural Reconstruction Zoltán Somhegyi, Lisa Giombini, 2024-05-30 This companion investigates the philosophical and theoretical foundations determining the conditions of possibility and the limits that make the conservation readaptation and transformation of past buildings legitimate operations As increasing ecological and economic challenges question opportunities for new construction the process of restoring transforming and readapting buildings for new or continued use is becoming an essential part of architectural practice At the same time the role of building conservation is changing from mere material preservation to being part of a broader strategy for social regeneration eco awareness and inclusive urban planning Chapters of this volume explore the complex set of considerations that inform decisions to merely preserve accurately restore or variously reuse a building They also look at the broader philosophical concerns such as ethical and aesthetic values combined with ideas of heritage history and collective identity Case studies on reconstruction after war gentrification the restoration of ancient edifices reconstruction following the effects of climate change and the use of technology solutions among many others make this a timely and urgent volume Adopting a broad transcultural perspective with contributions from five continents the volume combines theoretical approaches with more practical case study based investigations and will be of great interest to upper level students and academics working in the fields of architecture conservation urban design aesthetics and heritage management

Camera Graeca: Photographs, Narratives, Materialities Philip Carabott, Yannis Hamilakis, Eleni Papargyriou, 2016-03-09 While written sources on the history of Greece have been studied extensively no systematic attempt has been made to examine photography as an important cultural and material process This is surprising given that Modern Greece and photography are almost peers both are cultural products of the 1830s and both actively converse with modernity Camera Graeca Photographs Narratives Materialities fills this lacuna It is the first inter disciplinary volume to examine critically and in a theorised manner the entanglement of Greece with photography The book argues that photographs and the photographic process as a whole have been instrumental in the reproduction of national imagination in the consolidation of the nation building process and in the generation and dissemination of state propaganda At the same time it is argued that the photographic field constitutes a site of memory and counter memory where various social actors intervene actively and stake their discursive material and practical claims As such the volume will be of relevance to scholars and photographers worldwide The book is divided into four tightly integrated parts The first Imagining Greece shows that the consolidation of Greek national identity constituted a material cum representational process the projection of an imagery although some photographic production sits uneasily within the national canon and may even undermine it The second part Photographic narratives alternative histories demonstrates the narrative function of photographs in diary keeping and in photobooks It also examines the constitution of spectatorship through the combination of text and image and the role of photography as a process of materializing counter hegemonic discourses and practices The third part Photographic matter realities foregrounds the role of photography in materializing state propaganda national memory and war The final part Photographic ethnographies

Education in Late

Antiquity Jan Stenger, 2022 Education in Late Antiquity examines the integration of educational thought in the ideas and practices of wider society in late antiquity Stenger shows that ideas about education particularly with reference to how education informed character formation changed during this period Proceedings: International Symposium on "Information and Communication Technologies in Cultural Heritage", Encyclopedia of the History of Classical Archaeology Nancy Thomson de Grummond, 2015-05-11 With 1 125 entries and 170 contributors this is the first encyclopedia on the history of classical archaeology It focuses on Greek and Roman material but also covers the prehistoric and semi historical cultures of the Bronze Age Aegean the Etruscans and manifestations of Greek and Roman culture in Europe and Asia Minor The Encyclopedia of the History of Classical Archaeology includes entries on individuals whose activities influenced the knowledge of sites and monuments in their own time articles on famous monuments and sites as seen changed and interpreted through time and entries on major works of art excavated from the Renaissance to the present day as well as works known in the Middle Ages As the definitive source on a comparatively new discipline the history of archaeology these finely illustrated volumes will be useful to students and scholars in archaeology the classics history topography and art and architectural history The Architecture of Ancient Greece William Bell Dinsmoor, 1973 Directory of Web Sites Graham Bennett, 1999 Overloaded with the mass of information on the Internet Frustrated by how difficult it is to find what you really want Now you don't need to spend hours browsing around the Internet or grappling with the huge number of hits from an Internet search engine the Directory of Web Sites will take you straight to the best educational sites on the Internet From archaeology to zoology from dance to technology the Directory provides information more than 5 500 carefully selected Web sites that represent the best of what the Internet has to offer The sites are grouped by subject each one features a full description and the text is complemented throughout by screenshots and fact boxes As well sites have been selected purely on educational merit all sites with overtly commercial content and influence from Internet providers have been excluded

Architecture RePerformed: The Politics of Reconstruction Tino Mager, 2016-03-09 First emerging at the beginning of the twentieth century architectural reconstruction has increasingly become an instrument to visually revive a long bygone past This book deals with the phenomenon of meticulous reconstruction in architecture It argues that the politics of reconstruction go far beyond aesthetic considerations Taking architecture as a major source of history and regional identity the impact of large scale reconstruction is deeply intertwined with political and social factors Furthermore memories and associations correlated with lost buildings of a bygone era are heavily influenced by their re appearance something which often contradicts historical events Reconstruction has become an established way of building and dealing with the past yet so far there is no comprehensive scientific study on it By bringing together eight case studies from Eastern Europe France Spain China Japan Israel and Brazil it provides valuable insights into this topic The chapters analyse the political background of the reconstructions and identify the protagonists In doing so this volume adds to our understanding of the impact of reconstruction to memory and oblivion as well as the critical power of reconstruction regarding contemporary architecture and urbanism Archaeology and Ancient History Eberhard W. Sauer, 2004-07-31 Challenging both traditional and fashionable theories this collection of pieces from an international range of contributors explores the separation of the human past into history archaeology and their related sub disciplines Each case study challenges the validity of this separation and asks how we can move to a more holistic approach in the study of the relationship between history and archaeology While the focus is on the ancient world particularly Greece and Rome the lessons learned in this book make it an essential addition to all studies of history and archaeology Historical and Religious Memory in the Ancient World

Beate Dignas, R. R. R. Smith, 2012-03-15 This book presents 12 interdisciplinary studies on memory and how ancient Mediterranean cultures configured their pasts in art texts and religious practices It examines how the past is controlled in various processes of selection manipulation and erasure always with purposes specific to particular cultures and contexts

Contested Antiquity Esther Solomon, 2021-02-02 While the archaeological legacies of Greece and Cyprus are often considered to represent some of the highest values of Western civilization democracy progress aesthetic harmony and rationalism this much adored and heavily touristed heritage can quickly become the stage for clashes over identity and memory In Contested Antiquity Esther Solomon curates explorations of how those who safeguard cultural heritage are confronted with the best ways to represent this heritage responsibly How should visitors be introduced to an ancient Byzantine fortification that still holds the grim reminders of the cruel prison it was used as until the 1980s How can foreign archaeological institutes engage with another nation's heritage in a meaningful way What role do locals have in determining what is sacred and can this sense of the sacred extend beyond buildings to the surrounding land Together the essays featured in Contested Antiquity offer fresh insights into the ways ancient heritage is negotiated for modern times
