WE MET AT PAX-DAY LARK IN MICHIGAN:

IT CHOOSES YOU — MIRANDA JULY

WITH PHOTOGRAPHS BY BRIGITTE SIRE

To meet the afternoon of the fourth of July and when you feel you'll thought I would die your young blood, they give a flag and my name, it started to vibrate
I then thought, I had to be your dog

It Chooses You By Miranda July:

It Chooses You Miranda July, 2011-12-01 In the summer of 2009 Miranda July was struggling to finish writing the screenplay for her much anticipated second film During her increasingly long lunch breaks she began to obsessively read the PennySaver the iconic classifieds booklet that reached everywhere and seemed to come from nowhere Who was the person selling the Large leather Jacket 10 It seemed important to find out or at least it was a great distraction from the screenplay Accompanied by photographer Brigitte Sire July crisscrossed Los Angeles to meet a random selection of PennySaver sellers glimpsing thirteen surprisingly moving and profoundly specific realities along the way shaping her film and herself in unexpected ways Elegantly blending narrative interviews and photographs with July's off kilter honesty and deadpan humour this is a story of procrastination and inspiration isolation and connection and grabbing hold of the invisible world Iterate

John Sharp, Colleen Macklin, 2024-04-09 How to confront embrace and learn from the unavoidable failures of creative practice with case studies that range from winemaking to animation Failure is an inevitable part of any creative practice As game designers John Sharp and Colleen Macklin have grappled with crises of creativity false starts and bad outcomes Their tool for coping with the many varieties of failure iteration the cyclical process of conceptualizing prototyping testing and evaluating Sharp and Macklin have found that failure often hidden covered up a source of embarrassment is the secret ingredient of iterative creative process In Iterate they explain how to fail better After laying out the four components of creative practice intention outcome process and evaluation Sharp and Macklin describe iterative methods from a wide variety of fields They show for example how Radiolab cohosts Jad Abumrad and Robert Krulwich experiment with radio as a storytelling medium how professional skateboarder Amelia Br dka develops skateboarding tricks through trial and error and how artistic polymath Miranda July explores human frailty through a variety of media and techniques Whimsical illustrations tell parallel stories of iteration as hard working cartoon figures bake cupcakes experiment with levitating office chairs and think outside the box in toothbrush design let's add propellers All in their various ways use iteration to transform failure into creative outcomes With Iterate Sharp and Macklin offer useful lessons for anyone interested in the creative process Case Studies Allison Tauziet winemaker Matthew Maloney animator Jad Abumrad and Robert Krulwich Radiolab cohosts Wylie Dufresne chef Nathalie Pozzi architect and Eric Zimmerman game designer Andy Milne jazz musician Amelia Br dka skateboarder Baratunde Thurston comedian Cas Holman toy designer Miranda July writer and filmmaker Incomplete

Dr. Alix Beeston, 2023-06-06 This field defining collection establishes unfinished film projects abandoned interrupted lost or open ended as rich and underappreciated resources for feminist film and media studies In deeply researched and creatively conceived chapters scholars join with film practitioners in approaching the unfinished film as an ideal site for revealing the lived experiences practical conditions and institutional realities of women's film production across historical periods and national borders Incomplete recovers projects and practices marginalized in film industries and scholarship alike while also showing how feminist filmmakers have cultivated incompleteness as an aesthetic strategy. Objects of loss and of possibility, incomplete films raise profound historiographical and ethical questions about the always unfinished project of film history, film spectatorship, and film studies.

Prostitute Laundry Charlotte Shane, 2023-05-25 A Stylist Non-fiction You Can't Miss selection for 2023. This serial memoir follows Charlotte over the course of several years as she falls in and out of love, muses on the nature of sex work, and the value of beauty. She discovers hidden emotional complexities and contemplates leaving her profession. Growing out of a series of confessional letters sent by the author to a small but devoted mailing list, her candid, unstinting, and sometimes heart-breaking meditations have gained thousands of subscribers and a cult status. Prostitute Laundry is a deeply thoughtful book about sensuality, money, and identity: how those forces can break us and how they can make us whole again. By turns philosophical, funny, and explicit, this is an affecting, immediate account of one life lived to its fullest.

Nobody Knows What They're Doing Lee Crutchley, 2025-09-23 Everything no one will tell you about being an artist. Nobody Knows What They're Doing is an honest guide to the creative life for artists of all kinds. Lee Crutchley, author of How to Be Happy Or At Least Less Sad, skips the platitudes, positive affirmations, and guarantees of success; he'll never ever tell you to just do what you love. Instead, Crutchley discusses the things nobody else is talking about: that frankly, your work sucks, but that's okay because everyone else's does too; that making bad art is worth it, and so much more. In a world desperate for a glimpse of authenticity, Nobody Knows What They're Doing is a breath of fresh air that reveals the truths hiding between the lines of Instagram-friendly aphorisms and behind the words of the most inspirational TED talks. An honest look at the reality of creativity and the joy and difficulty of crafting good and bad art, this book belongs in the hands of every exhausted creative, every starry-eyed dreamer, and every artist who is trying to make their way in the world and keep a roof over their head while they do it.

Postfeminist Film & Literary Aesthetics Alyce Corbett, 2025-05-23 Postfeminist Film Literary Aesthetics: In Search of the Female Gaze represents a novel and comprehensive study of the aesthetic and affective, textual innovations of women in the 21st century from a postfeminist perspective. This book both defines and helps shape the contours of four fast-growing, critically and commercially popular modes: millennial film and fiction, metamodernism, an anti-narrative and decorative realm named here as still life, and new cli-fi, in which there is no clear male equivalent or in which women's work can be read as a distinct aesthetic force. As the textual constellation of now is being mapped and its key texts being canonised, this book contributes to the current recentring of aesthetic taste that is occurring in literature, film, and surrounding criticism, making greater space for the appreciation of female aesthetics and for future inquiries in this field.

Miranda July's Intermedial Art Antje Czudaj, 2016-02-15 This first in-depth study of Miranda July's work reveals some of its major motives and consequently provides fascinating insights into the lifestyle of the contemporary white Californian middle class. Through an analysis of July's award-winning intermedial work, the author lays open how July takes individualism and self-help as constitutive for the creative class. Although a member of the creative class herself, July's voice oscillates between irony and approval July thus paints a fascinating portrait of neurotic hipsterism which triggers self reflection in the general reader and critical thinking in the cultural analyst

Indie Reframed Linda Badley, 2017-02-07 Explores the films practitioners production and distribution contexts that currently represent American womens independent cinema With the consolidation of a indie culture in the 21st century female filmmakers face an increasingly indifferent climate Within this sector women work across all aspects of writing direction production editing and design yet the dominant narrative continues to construe an amaverick white male auteurs such as Quentin Tarantino or Wes Anderson as the face of indie discourse Defying the formulaic myths of the mainstream a chick flick and the ideological and experimental radicalism of feminist counter cinema alike womens indie filmmaking is neither ironic popular nor political enough to be readily absorbed into pre existing categories This ground breaking collection the first sustained examination of the work of female practitioners within American independent cinema reclaims the adifference of female indie filmmaking Through a variety of case studies of directors writers and producers such as Ava DuVernay Lena Dunham and Christine Vachon contributors explore the innovation of a range of female practitioners by attending to the sensibilities ideologies and industrial practices that distinguish their work while embracing the ain between space in which the narratives they represent and embody can be revealed

Aged Young Adults Anita Wohlmann, 2014-04-15 When Toulas father in My Big Fat Greek Wedding says to his daughter age 30 you look so old or when Don DeLillos protagonist age 28 feels old in Cosmopolis these young characters are attributed an age awareness that has received little attention in age studies so far Leaving aside chronological or biological dimensions of age this study approaches age as a metaphoric practice suggesting that feeling old is not to be taken literally but metaphorically The book examines the cultural meanings of age and aging for characters who are in their twenties and thirties and challenges often quoted labels such as late coming of age story or perpetual adolescence
