Civic Discipline Karen M. Morin, 2016-05-23 The American Geographical Society was the pre eminent geographical society in the nineteenth century U S This book explores how geographical knowledge and practices took shape as a civic enterprise under the leadership of Charles P Daly AGS president for 35 years 1864 1899 The ideals and programmatic interests of the AGS link to broad institutional societal and spatial contexts that drove interest in geography itself in the post Civil War period and also link to Charles Daly s personal role as New York civic leader scholar revered New York judge and especially popularizer of geography Daly s leadership in a number of civic and social reform causes resonated closely with his work as geographer such as his influence in tenement housing and street sanitation reform in New York City

Others of his projects served commercial interests including in American railroad development and colonization of the African Congo. Daly was also New York's most influential access point to the Arctic in the latter nineteenth century. Through telling the story of the nineteenth century AGS and Charles Daly, this book provides a critical appraisal of the role of particular actors, institutions, and practices involved in the development and promotion of geography in the mid nineteenth century U.S. that is long overdue.
