Waters, 2021-01-12 Pastor award winning author and rising civil rights leader Michael W Waters Stakes Is High For Beautiful Black Boys Who Believe in a Better World ruminates on the sacred places and spaces he visited as part of a cross country trek in 2019-2020 through America's racial history From reflections on the river's edge where Emmett Till's body was recovered and the Lorraine Motel where Martin Luther King Jr was assassinated and to more recent sites of racial violence like the Charleston church massacre and El Paso mass shooting to the halls of government for Waters prayer before the U S House of Representatives and his convicting speech before the Dallas City Council to remove Confederate statues Waters connects our racist past with the current sociological and political climate offering challenges and hope From poems and prayers to sermons and eulogies from rally cries to commentaries

Something in the Water illuminates not just our present struggles but also the hope and belief in a better day to come. Ultimately Waters challenges us to consider our role collectively and individually in the troubled waters of racism and what we are willing to do to create something better.
