

A romantic couple, a man and a woman, are shown in a close embrace, about to kiss. The woman has long, wavy blonde hair and is wearing a black top. The man has dark hair and is wearing a grey t-shirt. They are in a brightly lit room, possibly a hallway or a room with large windows. The overall mood is intimate and sensual.

The power of seduction.
The lure of temptation.
One undeniable connection.

Skies of El Dorado Carl J. Barger,2016-04-07 Blue Skies of El Dorado tells the poignant Civil War love story of Obadiah Bradford and his beautiful slave of mixed blood Penelope Their tale began in the first book of the series Dark Clouds over Alabama To escape the stigma of hate and prejudice Obadiah and Penelope marry and move away from Alabama with their mothers and several slaves to El Dorado Arkansas They purchase a 600 acre plantation named Three Oaks situated a few miles from El Dorado in southwest Arkansas In this quiet peaceful town Obadiah opens up a medical practice and becomes the town s beloved doctor Under the Blue Skies of El Dorado Obadiah and Penelope s love blossoms their family grows the Civil War ends and freedom comes to slaves in the South Obadiah s Christian beliefs and his deep faith in God see him through the troubled times The novel presents love and hope in the best definition as it deals with tragedy and triumph in the Old South Blue Skies is a must read for anyone interested in this fascinating chapter of American history      The Literary

Reformation Andrew Byers,2015-03-19 The life and labors of D S Warner are so closely associated with a religious movement that any attempt at his biography becomes in part necessarily a history of that movement I have therefore chosen the term Birth of a Reformation as a part of the title of this book Brother Warner to use an appellation in keeping with the idea of universal Christian brotherhood was doubtless chosen of God as an instrument for accomplishing a particular work What that work was why it may be called a reformation and why in particular it may be considered the last reformation a few words of explanation by way of introduction are offered the inquiring reader It will be necessary to take a brief glance over the Christian era and review some of the important events and conditions We note the characteristics of the church in the days of the apostles which by reason of its recent founding and organization by the Holy Spirit is naturally regarded as exemplary and ideal It had no creed but the Scriptures and no government but that administered by the Holy Spirit who set the members in the body as it pleased him apostles prophets teachers evangelists pastors etc Thus subject to the Spirit the early church was flexible capable of expansion and of walking in all the truth and of adjusting itself to all conditions It was in very essence the church the whole and not a section or part The apostles and early believers did not restrict themselves and become a Jewish Christian sect or any other kind of sect Peter s way of thinking would have thus limited him for as a Jew he declined any particular interest in Gentile converts but the Lord through a vision changed his mind and advanced his understanding to include the universality of the Christian kingdom The Holy Spirit in the heart was necessary of course to the successful government of the church by the Spirit otherwise he could not have been understood There were no dividing lines for it was the will of the Lord particularly that there be one fold and one shepherd Jesus had prayed in behalf of the disciples that they all may be one as thou Father art in me and I in thee that they also may be one in us that the world may believe that thou hast sent me These conditions of being subject to the word and Spirit of leaving an open door through which greater light and truth might enter as was necessary and of possessing the love and unity of spirit that cemented the believers together and carried them through all their persecution constituted the ideal and normal status of God's church on earth as he gave it beginning of which it was ordained that there should be but one only one as long as the world should endure There is one body and one Spirit even as ye are called in one hope of your calling
