Stephen D. Smith

Journey Back From Hell Conversations Wit:

The Journey Back from Hell Anton Gill, 1988 This book is a record of oral history as the author recorded the personal testimony of over 100 survivors of the Nazi concentration camps in the course of his enquiry into how they have come to terms with their ordeals since World War II

Women in the Holocaust Zoë Waxman, 2017 Despite some pioneering work by scholars historians still find it hard to listen to the voices of women in the Holocaust Learning more about the women who both survived and did not survive the Nazi genocide through the testimony of the women themselves not only increases our understanding of this terrible period in history but makes us rethink our relationship to the gendered nature of knowledge itself Women in the Holocaust is about the ways in which socially and culturally constructed gender roles were placed under extreme pressure yet also about the fact that gender continued to operate as an important arbiter of experience Indeed paradoxically enough the extreme conditions of the Holocaust even of the death camps may have reinforced the importance of gender Whilst Jewish men and women were both sentenced to death gender nevertheless operated as a crucial signifier for survival Pregnant women as well as women accompanied by young children or those deemed incapable of hard labor were sent straight to the gas chambers The very qualities which made them women were manipulated and exploited by the Nazis as a source of dehumanization Moreover women were less likely to survive the camps even if they were not selected for death Gender in the Holocaust therefore became a matter of life and death

Legacies of Silence Glenn Sujo, Imperial War Museum (Great Britain), 2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Imperial War Museum London from 5 April to 27 August 2001 this volume examines the contribution of artist witnesses victims and survivors of the Holocaust to post war culture and the visual arts

New Beginnings Hagit Lavsky, 2002 Lavsky provides an historical inquiry into how Jews in Germany began to rebuild their social and cultural networks immediately following WWII looking at the early history of the postwar German Jewish community

Journeys from the Abyss Tony Kushner, 2017-09-28 This is the first study to place Jewish refugee movements from Nazism into a wider framework of global forced migration from the late nineteenth through to the twenty first century

Journeys from the Abyss Antony Robin Jeremy Kushner, 2017 This is the first study to place Jewish refugee movements from Nazism into a wider framework of global forced migration from the late nineteenth through to the twenty first century

The Memory of the Offence Judith Woolf, 2001 In this study of Primo Levi's If This is a Man Se questo un uomo the author tries to give some sense of the historical and cultural context not just of Levi's book but also of the events which gave rise to it since it is to those events that Levi is directing us For the same reason suggestions for further reading mainly concentrate on history While looking at some of the many literary influences on Levi's book particularly that of Dante's Inferno this book also places it in the literature of survivor accounts The author has drawn widely on Levi's other writings both because If This is a Man has to be seen as the beginning of a lifetime's endeavour and because in the absence of a definitive body of criticism Levi remains the best explicator of his own work This book is intended both for the student of Italian and for the general reader All quotations from If This is a Man and all verse quotations are given both in Italian and in English while all other quotations from Italian texts are given in English The Trajectory of Holocaust Memory Stephen D. Smith, 2022-12-30 The Trajectory of Holocaust Memory: The Crisis of Testimony in Theory and Practice re considers survivor testimony moving from a subject object reading of the past to a subject subject encounter in the present It explores how testimony evolves in relationship to the life of eyewitnesses across time This book breaks new ground based on three principles The first draws on Martin Buber's I Thou concept transforming the object of history into an encounter between subjects The second employs the Jungian concept of identity whereby the individual internal identity and the persona external identity reframe testimony as an extension of the individual They are a living subject rather than merely a persona or narrative The third principle draws on Daniel Kahneman's concept of the experiencing self which relives events as they occurred and the remembering self which reflects on their meaning in sum Taken together these principles comprise a new literacy of testimony that enables the surviving victim and the listener to enter a relationship of trust Designed for readers of Holocaust history and literature this book defines the modalities of memory witness and testimony It shows how encountering the individual who lived through the past changes how testimony is understood and therefore what it can come to mean The Liberation of the Camps Dan Stone, 2015-05-19 A moving deeply researched account of survivors experiences of liberation from Nazi death camps and the long difficult years that followed When tortured inmates of Hitler's concentration and extermination camps were liberated in 1944 and 1945 the horror of the atrocities came fully to light It was easy for others to imagine the joyful relief of freed prisoners yet for those who had survived the unimaginable the experience of liberation was a slow grueling journey back to life In this unprecedented inquiry into the days months and years following the arrival of Allied forces at the Nazi camps a foremost historian of the Holocaust draws on archival sources and especially on eyewitness testimonies to reveal the complex challenges liberated victims faced and the daunting tasks their liberators undertook to help them reclaim their shattered lives Historian Dan Stone focuses on the survivors their feelings of guilt exhaustion fear shame for having survived and devastating grief for lost family members their immense medical problems and their later demands to be released from Displaced Persons camps and resettled in countries of their own choosing Stone also tracks the efforts of British American Canadian and Russian liberators as they contended with survivors immediate needs then grappled with longer term issues that shaped the postwar world and ushered in the first chill of the Cold War years ahead For the Time Being Dirk Bogarde, 2012-01-15 _____

Such a companionable writer you just don't want to let him go The Times _____ First published in 1998 For the Time Being brings together Dirk Bogarde's published work outside of his novels and autobiographies In 1988 Dirk Bogarde returned from two idyllic decades in France to live in England due to his partner's serious illness Shortly afterwards the then literary editor of the Daily Telegraph admiring the lucid frankness of Bogarde's memoirs invited him to review some books for the newspaper This collection includes the famous article A Short Walk from Harrods which Bogarde wrote for the Independent on Sunday soon after returning to London In it he describes what it feels like to walk among familiar ghosts and to dine with those he considers the living dead A momentous review of three Holocaust books is accompanied by an article in which he describes the extraordinary postbag he received from its readers In another piece which had a profound impact he gives forceful vent to his support for euthanasia It stands as a testimony to a wonderfully varied life a wide range of interests and sympathies and a remarkable gift for writing

Days of Remembrance, April 18-25, 1993 ,1993 Introduces the history of Jewish holocaust and provides information on planning commemorative programs

Writing the Holocaust Zoë Vania Waxman,2008-06-26

Arguing against the prevailing view that Holocaust survivors encouraged by a new and flourishing culture of witnessing have come forward only recently to tell their stories Writing the Holocaust examines the full history of Holocaust testimony from the first chroniclers confined to Nazi enforced ghettos to today s survivors writing as part of collective memory Zo Waxman shows how the conditions and motivations for bearing witness changed immeasurably She reveals the multiplicity of Holocaust experiences the historically contingent nature of victims responses and the extent to which their identities secular or religious male or female East or West European affected not only what they observed but also how they have written about their experiences In particular she demonstrates that what survivors remember is substantially determined by the context in which they are remembering

Waiting for Hope Angelika Königseder,Juliane Wetzel,2001 After the defeat of Germany in World War II more than a hundred thousand Jewish survivors of the Holocaust were transported to camps maintained by the allies for displaced persons DPs In this new history historians Angelika Königseder and Juliane Wetzel offer a social and cultural history of the post WWII displaced persons camps Starting with the discovery of death camps by Allied forces Königseder and Wetzel describe the inadequate preparations made for the survivors The soldiers were ill equipped to deal with the physical wreckage and mental anguish of their charges but American rabbis soon arrived to perform invaluable work helping the survivors cope The historians also devote attention to autonomous Jewish life in and near the camps theater groups and orchestras prospered schools were founded a tuberculosis hospital and clinic for DPs was established and underground organizations handled illegal immigration to Israel and trained soldiers to fight in Palestine Drawing on original documents and the work of other historians Waiting for Hope sheds light on a largely unknown period in postwar Jewish history and shows that the suffering of the survivors did not end with the war

Nothing to Speak of Sofie Lene Bak,2011 In October 1943 Adolph Hitler ordered the mass arrest of Jews in Denmark While many Danish Jews were rounded up and deported to concentration camps thousands fled to Sweden in one of the most successful and famous rescue operations of Jews in wartime Europe Based on more than one hundred interviews Nothing to Speak Of sheds new light on this rescue operation telling the story of what happened to these survivors after October 1943 This richly illustrated volume is the first to deal with the long term consequences of escape exile and deportation during this harrowing time for Danish citizens uncovering deep and painful memories that still haunt many survivors today Remembering to Forget Barbie Zelizer,1998-12 There is no more gruesome and tragic record in the history of the twentieth century than the photographs taken at the liberation of the concentration camps in Germany after World War II Our memory of the Holocaust has been shaped by these images and they are seared into our collective consciousness as brutal evidence of the atrocity of war and the evil of which humanity is capable In her new book Barbie Zelizer reveals the unique significance of the concentration camp photographs while being mindful of Leon Wieseltier's call to be strangers to these images If we are not strangers he wrote if the names of the killers and the places of the killing and the numbers of the killed fall easily from our tongues then we are not remembering to remember but remembering to forget Zelizer shows how the photographs have become the basis of our memory of the Holocaust and how they have affected our presentations and perceptions of contemporary history's subsequent atrocities Days of Remembrance, April 26-May 3, 1992 ,1992 Belsen Joanne Reilly,1998 The military and medical liberation and British government and British population response to the disclosure of what occurred at Belsen

Refugees in an Age of Genocide Katharine Knox,Tony Kushner,2012-10-12 This is a study of the history of global refugee movements over the 20th century ranging from east European Jews fleeing Tsarist oppression at the turn of the century to asylum seekers from the former Zaire and Yugoslavia Recognizing that the problem of refugees is a universal one the authors emphasize the human element which should be at the forefront of both the study of refugees and responses to them The Mental Health Consequences of Torture Ellen Gerrity,Terence M. Keane,Farris Tuma,2012-12-06 In 1997 the National Institute of Mental Health assembled a working group of international experts to address the mental health consequences of torture and related violence and trauma report on the status of scientific knowledge and include research recommendations with implications for treatment services and policy development This book dedicated to those who experience the horrors of torture and those who work to end it is based on that report A Pastor's Sketches: or, Conversations with anxious inquirers respecting the way of Salvation. ... With an introduction and editorial notes by J. A. James. Reprinted from the ninth American edition. Second edition Ichabod Smith SPENCER,1861
