John Von Wicht 18881970 The Way To Abstraction:

It's Abstraction, Concretely John McGreal, 2017-02-21 John McGreal's three new books It's Abstraction, Concretely, and It's Representation Really continue the It Series published by Matador since 2010. They constitute another stage in an artistic journey exploring the visual and aural dialectic of mark, word, and image that began over 25 years ago. Emerging out of the first books on the Bibliograph published in 2016, initiated with It's Nothing Seriously, these new texts retain some of the same structural features. The Bibliographs contain the same focus on repetition and variation in meaning of their dominant motifs of representation, abstraction, and figuration, which have framed philosophical discourse on epistemology and ontology in aesthetics. Their chance placement in each Bibliograph, interspersed with one another, displaying and enhancing similarities and differences. At the same time, these works constitute a development in the aesthetic form of the Bibliograph. In earlier works on Nothing, Absence, and Silence, it was just a question of finding and transferring given textual references from their source to construct their Bibliographs, with the focus being on the strategic position of the latter within each book. In these new works, the concern has been with working on the line and shape of the references themselves, with their enhanced spatial form as well as that of each Bibliograph as a whole. In shaping and spacing the referential images, the place of words and letters became as important as their semantic to read in a new way on diverse contemporary issues across conventional boundaries in the arts and sciences at several levels of physical, psychical, and social reproduction. Art Now Gallery Guide, 1995. German Americana Christoph Strupp, Kai Dreisbach, 2007. A comprehensive bibliography of books and scholarship on the United States produced in German-speaking countries from 1956-2005. More Than Words Liza Kirwin, 2005-10-27. Words speak volumes, but as every letter writer knows, there are times when they simply won't do. When the author happens to be a visual artist, he has an added advantage: one that transforms ordinary stationery into a canvas. This book chronicles those occasions when words were not enough, and some of America's most revered artists turned their talents to illustrating their most intimate thoughts and feelings. Writing to wives, lovers, friends, patrons, clients, and confidants, premiere artists such as Frederick Edwin Church, Thomas Eakins, Winslow Homer, Andrew Wyeth, Rockwell Kent, Lyonel Feininger, John Sloan, Alfred Frueh, Man Ray, Alexander Calder, Dorothea Tanning, Gio Ponti, Andy Warhol, and Frida Kahlo picture the world around them in charming vignettes, caricatures, portraits, and landscapes. Together, the words and images of these autobiographical works of art, created for private consumption, reveal the joys and successes, loves and longings, triumphs and frustrations of their distinguished authors' personal lives and professional careers.
