Businesses: Resilience And Sustainability - Evidence From Emerging Market Developing Economies Reena Marwah, Anshi Goel, 2023-03-23 In a world of unprecedented disruption and market turbulence business transformation revolves around the need to generate new values unlock new opportunities drive new growth and deliver new efficiencies The world is witnessing volatility in the environment in technology in the economy and in society Business as usual is no longer acceptable and the pertinent question is how long can humanity continue pursuing consumption and growth predicated on ever increasing efficiency The Coronavirus pandemic has amplified concerns about the highly digitized interconnected and vulnerable state of the global economy the relationship with nature and the prospects for each living being on this planet including people to survive and to thrive To navigate and survive the coming decade of transformative change every business will need to harness all the ingenuity creativity and imagination they can muster Corporate leaders and entrepreneurs will be required to steer their businesses towards a new model of prosperity based on green and regenerative principles It is time for leaders in business to overhaul their purpose plans and strategies for this new context and explore different futures engage with new partners and create space for experimentation The only way to prepare for the future is to explore how companies especially medium and small enterprises as well as women led businesses can transform their future strategies to be more compatible with challenges such as cyber security human security ethical principles and financial transparency This book presents a collection of empirical and original research papers on evolving business strategies within a dynamic global environment to provide valuable insights to scholars academicians practitioners policymakers and students The American Spectator, 1994 Socio-Economic Impact Study with Concurrent Evaluation on Agriculture/Horticulture based Schemes

Subhrabaran Das, 2023-07-26 Among the 17 Sustainable Development Goals SDGs SDG 1 envisages end of poverty in all its forms everywhere and SDG 2 envisages zero hunger and achieve food security and improved nutrition and promote sustainable agriculture In order to achieve the SDGs 1 and 2 Govt of India has launched different agricultural and horticultural scheme to protect the loss of farmers These schemes are implemented in the states of India with the initiatives of the state governments The book is highlighted on the socio economic impact study with concurrent evaluation on

Agriculture Horticulture based Schemes implemented in the state Tripura The book is focused mainly on two aspects viz evaluation of the agriculture and horticulture based schemes and impact of the schemes on the socio economic life of the tribal farmers The basic objectives of this book are to assess whether the tribal farmers are benefitted or not from the different schemes implemented by the government and to assess the impact of these schemes in order to improve the socio economic condition of the tribal farmers In addition to this productivity of the different agriculture horticulture production produced by the tribal beneficiaries is examined and socio economic problems faced by the rural tribal people are investigated The book is expected to be valuable to the policy maker for taking the appropriate policy decisions further and it would be a bench mark to the researchers who will work on the tribal issues and agriculture

Race and Rurality in the Global Economy Michaeline A. Crichlow, Patricia Northover, Giusti-Cordero, 2018-09-26 Essays that examine globalization s effects with an emphasis on the interplay of race and rurality as it occurs across diverse geographies and peoples Issues of migration environment rurality and the visceral politics of place and space have occupied center stage in recent electoral political struggles in the United States and Europe suffused by an antiglobalization discourse that has come to resonate with Euro American peoples Race and Rurality in the Global Economy suggests that this present fractious global politics begs for closer attention to be paid to the deep rooted conditions and outcomes of globalization and development From multiple viewpoints the contributors to this volume propose ways of understanding the ongoing processes of globalization that configure peoples and places via a politics of rurality in a capitalist world economy and through an optics of raciality that intersects with class gender identity land and environment In tackling the dynamics of space and place their essays address matters such as the heightened risks and multiple states of insecurity in the global economy the new logics of expulsion and primitive accumulation dynamics shaping a new savage sorting patterns of resistance and transformation in the face of globalization s political and environmental changes the steady decline in the livelihoods of people of color globally and their deepened vulnerabilities and the complex reconstitution of systemic and lived racialization within these processes This book is an invitation to ask whether our dystopia in present politics can be disentangled from the deepening sense of white fragility in the context of the historical power of globalization s raced effects
