Creating Fear David L. Altheide, The creative use of fear by news media and social control organizations has produced a discourse of fear The awareness and expectation that danger and risk are lurking everywhere Case studies illustrates how certain organizations and social institutions benefit from the exploitation of such fear construction One social impact is a manipulated public empathy We now have more victims than at any time in our prior history Another more troubling result is the role we have ceded to law enforcement and punishment we turn ever more readily to the state and formal control to protect us from what we fear This book attempts through the marshalling of significant data to interrupt that vicious cycle of fear discourse David Altheide employs a method which he calls tracking discourse to map how the nature and the extent of the use of the word fear has changed since the 1980s how the topics associated with fear the topics of media discourse have also changed over the same period for example the emphasis moves over time across AIDS crime immigrants race sexuality schools and children and how certain news sources prevail over others thus protectively insulating themselves from criticism of the premises of their discourse frames History of Venango County, Pennsylvania J.
