An illustrated account of the Mediterranean clash between the leading RAF and Italian aces flying the Supermarine Spitfire V and the Macchi C 202 Folgore respectively. The inability of the Italians and Germans to invade Malta proved decisive for Allied victory in the Mediterranean during World War II as the islands provided the Allies with a base from which to project air power. Early Italian efforts to pound the islands into submission were supplemented by major German forces from January 1942 and in a few weeks the situation for the defenders reached a critical stage. In response, in March 1942 the first Spitfires were delivered to Malta. This book explores the summer that C 202s fought over Malta, escorting tiny formations of Cant Z 1007s, SM 79s and Ju 88s. The fighting subsided in August and September but grew in strength with the arrival of more C 202s. In October the Regia Aeronautica could muster three Gruppi with a total of 74 C 202s. For ten days the Italians pressed a relentless attack before attrition brought the offensive to a halt. Throughout the bombing campaign the British were able to supply Malta with ever increasing numbers of Spitfires and this book highlights their significance. Spitfire Flying

Legend John M. Dibbs, Tony Holmes, 1996. As much a national hero as Wellington, Nelson or Montgomery, the Supermarine Spitfire has become the most recognisable icon of World War 2 for several generations of Britons. From the throaty growl of its Rolls Royce Merlin or Griffon to its beautifully tapered elliptical wings, the Spitfire is a true aeronautical thoroughbred. Regarded by many as the saviour of the Sceptred Isle in its darkest hour, the Spitfire is without a doubt the most famous combat aircraft the world has ever seen. 1996 celebrates the 60th anniversary of the fighter's first flight and this lavishly illustrated volume serves as a tribute to the airworthy survivors of today.
