Ma He Sold Me For A Few Cigarettes By Martha Long:

Ma, He Sold Me for a Few Cigarettes Martha Long, 2011-12-02 Born a bastard to a teenage mother in the slums of 1950s Dublin Martha has to be a fighter from the very start As her mother moves from man to man and more children follow they live hand to mouth in squalid freezing tenements clothed in rags and forced to beg for food But just when it seems things can't get any worse her mother meets Jackser Despite her trials Martha is a child with an irrepressible spirit and a wit beyond her years She tells the story of her early life without an ounce of self pity and manages to recreate a lost era in which the shadow of the Catholic Church loomed large and if you didn't work you didn't eat Martha never stops believing she is worth more than the hand she has been dealt and her remarkable voice will remain with you long after you've finished the last line

Ma, He Sold Me for a Few Cigarettes Martha Long, 2008 Born a bastard to a teenage mother in the slums of 1950s Dublin Martha grew up in squalid freezing tenements clothed in rags and forced to beg for food Here she tells the story of her early life and recreates a lost era in which the shadow of the Catholic Church loomed large and if you didn't work you didn't eat

Ma, He Sold Me for a Few Cigarettes Martha Long, 2008-06-02 Ma, He Sold Me for a Few Cigarettes Martha Long, 2012-11-13 Not for the faint of heart Long's story is a gritty grueling and heartbreaking testament to one girl's unbreakable spirit Publishers Weekly starred review When Martha Long's feckless mother hooks up with the Jackser that bandy aul bastard and starts having more babies the abuse and poverty in the house grow more acute Martha is regularly sent out to beg and more often steal and her wiles as a child of 7-8 are often the only thing keeping food on the table Jackser is a master of paranoid anger and outburst keeping the children in an unheated tenement unable to go to school at the ready for his unpredictable rages Then Martha is sent by Jackser to a man he knows in exchange for the price of a few cigarettes She is nine She is filthy lice ridden outcast Martha and Ma escape to England but for an itinerant Irishwoman finding work in late 1950s England is a near impossibility Martha treasures the time alone with her mother but amazingly Ma pines for Jackser and they eventually return to Dublin and the other children And yet there are prized cartoon magazines the occasional hidden penny to buy the children sweets the glimpse of loving family life in other houses and Martha's hope that she will soon be old enough to make her own way Virtually uneducated Martha Long is natural born storyteller Written in the vernacular of the day the reader is tempted to speak like Martha for the rest of a day and don't let me hear yer woman roarin' about it neither One can't help but cheer on this mischievous quick-witted and persistent little girl who has captured hearts across Europe

The New Irish Studies Paige Reynolds, 2020-09-24 The New Irish Studies demonstrates how diverse critical approaches enable a richer understanding of contemporary Irish writing and culture The early decades of the twenty-first century in Ireland and Northern Ireland have seen an astonishing rate of change one that reflects the common understanding of the contemporary as a moment of acceleration and flux This collection tracks how Irish writers have represented the peace and reconciliation process in Northern Ireland the consequences of the Celtic Tiger economic boom in the Republic the waning influence of Catholicism the increased authority of diverse voices and an altered relationship with Europe The essays acknowledge the distinctiveness of contemporary Irish literature reflecting a sense that the local can shed light on the global even as they reach beyond the limited tropes that have long identified Irish literature The collection suggests routes forward for Irish Studies and unsettles presumptions about what constitutes an Irish classic

Ma, Now I'm Goin Up in the World Martha Long, 2011-12-02 At 16 Martha collapses on the streets suffering from starvation and exposure She has reached rock bottom but after Martha is taken to hospital Lady Luck smiles kindly on her and she is given the opportunity to get off the streets for ever Before long Martha is on the way to leading the normal life she has so long dreamt of She makes friends begins to put the misery of her past behind her and even experiences her first taste of love For her love is a powerful feeling She has never experienced real affection before and is now plunged into the complex world of love between a man and a woman The intense emotion consumes her for this is a forbidden love that can never be requited After all Ralph Fitzgerald is a priest and he will never break his vow of chastity This love brings heartbreaking consequences and changes the direction of Martha's life for ever

Ma, Jackser's Dyin Alone Martha Long, 2013-09-12 On hearing that Jackser her childhood abuser is seriously ill Martha is elated thinking that finally she will be able to watch him suffer But in the hospital she sees a frightened lonely old man and realises with a shock that he seems to regret his earlier actions During her vigil she is joined by Charlie her beloved little brother then the ma and some of her other siblings All of them have suffered greatly and it is clear that no one connected to Jackser has escaped unscathed But as she sits with him during his dying days other memories of Jackser come back to Martha fleeting moments of concern and kindness and a sense of closeness as he recalled his own tormented past in one of Ireland's industrial schools It is a vicious cycle of cruelty and loss that has played out from which only her own tenacity and wit has provided an escape Poignant ribald poetic and defiant with its resolution of many unanswered questions about her life this is Martha at her best

Ma, I've Reached for the Moon an I'm Hittin the Stars Martha Long, 2012-09-06 After a failed suicide attempt and recovery in the mad house Martha is heading for France to be reunited with the one true love of her life Father Ralph Fitzgerald rescued her from the streets when she was sixteen and was the first person to show Martha true love and affection But their relationship threatened his vocation and he eventually fled to Africa to take up missionary work Martha never got over losing him and now after nearly twenty years he has made contact again She sets off on a mission to find him and uncover his motives for getting in touch Does he still love her Has he left the priesthood Is he now free to marry her She needs to know what the future is going to hold

Run, Lily, Run Martha Long, 2015-05-21 A fiction debut from the bestselling author of the series of memoirs that includes Ma He Sold Me for a Few Cigarettes Lilly and Ceily Carney are only seven and twelve when their mother is cruelly taken from them leaving them at the mercy of the Church and the authorities This is a terrifying prospect in 1950s Dublin where it is likely that the girls will end up in one of Ireland's notorious Magdalen laundries a fate they are determined to escape When Father Flitters and the Cruelty people arrive to take the children into care Lilly and Ceily resist and a riot breaks out The girls are helped by kind Mister Mullins and his daughter Delia but events lead to further tragedy and Lilly is left to fend for herself on the dangerous streets Heartbroken hungry and vulnerable she looks like easy prey and it seems there will be no safe haven for her to find Ma, I've Got Meself Locked Up in the Mad House Martha Long,2011-12-02

Martha is now in her thirties Her daughter has left home and she is lonely and vulnerable The hard knocks have taken their toll on her health and as she looks into the years still lying ahead of her she shakes her head feeling she hasn't the heart or the strength to go on As she teeters on the brink of a nervous breakdown a phone call summons ghosts from the past She discovers that one of the family is dead and the others need her help Martha returns and when she comes face to face with the evil psychotic Jackser she can no longer suppress the nightmares of her childhood A suicide attempt sees her admitted to the mad house where a hunger strike takes her even nearer to death But finally she sees a chink of light at the end of the tunnel Could love in an unexpected form pull her back from the brink Ma, I'm Gettin Meself a New Mammy Martha Long,2009

In this second volume of Martha Long's memoirs aged 13 Martha is rescued by the courts from the clutches of her evil stepfather Jackser and her feckless mother Sally After numerous arrests for shoplifting a judge rules that she is to be sent to a convent school with the instruction that she is to get an education Ma, It's a Cold Aul Night an I'm Lookin for a Bed Martha Long,2011-12-02

In this latest instalment of Martha Long's real life account of abuse deprivation and cruelty at the hands of her mother's partner and the establishment Martha is now 16 and her time at the convent school is up In Ma It's a Cold Aul Night an I'm Lookin for a Bed she leads us through her first months of freedom With no home to go to Martha leaves the convent carrying her suitcase and a burning ambition to shake off her impoverished past Hungry to become a person who will blend in with the middle classes Martha yearns to be accepted as someone who can be loved respected and one day have a home of her own where she will be safe But this is 1960s Dublin where poverty is rife and the Church works together with the Irish government to keep the poor and the ignorant in their place Martha first finds work as a home help with a loving lively family which leads her to a job in a shop an Italian fish and chip caf then as a skivvy in a miserable household where she is reminded of the terror Jackser brought into her life Chance meetings with brothers and old friends from the convent lift Martha's spirits but soon she is back on the streets searching for work and a warm bed to call her own Martha is not often deterred when fate deals her a blow Life is a bowl of cherries she reasons But heartache awaits as people turn her away and predators lurk in the shadows Ma, I'm Gettin Meself a New Mammy Martha Long,2011-12-02

Aged thirteen Martha is rescued by the courts from the clutches of her evil stepfather Jackser and her feckless mother Sally After numerous arrests for shoplifting a judge rules that she is to be sent to a convent school with the instruction that she is to get an education Her initial relief at escaping the abuse and neglect she suffered at home is however short lived as she soon realises that there are many forms of cruelty in this life As she says You can have a full belly but your heart can be very empty Ostracised by the other children for being a street kid and put to back breaking work by the nuns she leads a lonely existence her only joy coming from the books she devours and her mischievous sense of humour Desperate for love and a little place where she feels she belongs despite all that she has suffered Martha retains her compassion for others and still continues to hope for a brighter future when she will be free to make her own way in life     Advertising & Selling and the Advertising Agency ,1928     Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper John Albert Sleicher,1877     The Rape of Martha Teoh & Other Chilling Stories Halim (Tunku),1997     Journal of the Fair for the New St. Patrick's Cathedral ,1878
