□□ □□□□□□ □□□ □□□ □□□ □□, 2017-10-20 20 11 Biblical Counsel, 1993 Living Water Martyn Lloyd-Jones, 2009-01-14 This substantial volume includes more than fifty never before published expository sermons on John 4 from one of the twentieth century's greatest preachers. It was just a conversation between two people by the side of a well in Samaria. One, a local woman, came to perform her daily task of drawing water. Another, a Jewish man tired from traveling, sat down for a drink. But he wasn't just any Jewish man, and this wasn't just any conversation. The man, Jesus, revealed himself as the Messiah, leading to the conversion of not only the Samaritan woman but many from her town. Now, for the first time, fifty-six sermons by Martyn Lloyd Jones on this passage of Scripture are available in Living Water. Lloyd Jones, known for his ability to clearly communicate profound theological concepts, digs into this familiar passage from the fourth chapter of the Gospel of John, exposing fresh layers of truth. His perceptive analysis is helpful for all who thirst for the living water that only Jesus can provide.

Recovering the Scandal of the Cross Mark D. Baker, Joel B. Green, 2011-08-02 Since its publication in 2000, Recovering the Scandal of the Cross has provoked thought among evangelicals about the nature of the atonement and how it should be expressed in today's various global contexts. In this second edition, Green and Baker have clarified and enlarged the text to ensure its ongoing critical relevance. NEW TESTAMENT CONTEXTUAL COMMENTARY Dr. Robert R. Seyda, 2024-03-26 The Apostle John tells his readers he has an important message to tell them. It is about a person who was already there before the beginning of the world. We heard him speak. We've seen Him with our own eyes. We watched Him, and we touched Him. He is the Word that gives us life with God. This is the message: God is completely good and pure. He is like light. There is nothing dark about Him. Amazingly, John tells us that one of the things Jesus wanted us to understand is that by loving others, we love God. Yes, we do make mistakes, and so do other believers, but we are not to hold that against them because just as we were given forgiveness by God's mercy and grace since we are in union with His Son, so can they. What we are not to do is claim access to this privilege but then live like those in the world. Our goal is not just life but eternal life. After all, we are God's children, and no child of God keeps on sinning after they are born again through Jesus, the Anointed One. Progressive Covenantalism Stephen J. Wellum, Brent E. Parker, 2016-04-15 Biblical covenants provide the backbone to the narrative plot line of Scripture; therefore, it is essential to think through the interrelationship between the biblical covenants starting in creation and culminating in Christ in order to rightly grasp the whole counsel of God. The Moody Handbook of Theology Paul Enns, 2014-03-27 The study of God, His nature, and His Word are all essential to the Christian faith. Now, those interested in Christian theology have a newly revised and updated reference tool in the 25th Anniversary Edition of The Moody Handbook of Theology. In this classic and timeless one-volume resource, Paul Enns offers a comprehensive overview of the five dimensions of theology: biblical, systematic, historical, dogmatic, and contemporary. Each section includes an introduction, chapters on key points, specific studies pertinent to that theology, books for further study, and summary evaluations of each dimension. Charts, graphs, glossary, and indexes add depth and breadth. Theology, once the domain of academicians and learned pastors, is now accessible to anyone interested in understanding the essentials of what Christians believe The Moody Handbook of Theology is a concise doctrinal reference tool for newcomers and seasoned veterans alike

Hazlett Lynch, 2015-06-10 This book provides the first ever evaluation of the teaching of Dr D Martyn Lloyd Jones on the atonement and shows that he held to the same understanding of the cross as that taught by John Calvin Mose Amyraut John Davenant Richard Baxter Matthew Henry Philip Doddridge and J C Ryle On this 400th anniversary of the birth of Richard Baxter in 1615 the 200th anniversary of the birth of J C Ryle is in 2016 it is fitting that the twentieth century Baxter made his appearance in the person of Dr D Martyn Lloyd Jones His published evangelistic sermons like Baxters writings do not suggest that he believed in limited atonement as held by high Calvinists but that his view was closely aligned with that of Calvin and Amyraut rather than with Beza and Owen 350 direct quotations from Lloyd Jones own works substantiate this claim Careful exegesis of his most frequently quoted Scripture texts also demonstrates that his soteriology is based on solid biblical teaching and not on teaching dominated by medieval scholastic philosophy His approach was determined by Deuteronomy 29 29 This new book from Dr Lynch will enlighten instruct encourage challenge and thrill all who read it
