Alfred Zector Collector:

Alfred Zector, Book Collector Kelly S. DiPucchio, Macky Pamintuan, 2010 Alfred so loves books that he spends much of his life collecting every one in his town and when his collection is complete he sets out to read each tome while the lives of the townspeople grow dull and dreary Alfred Zector, Book Collector Kelly DiPucchio, 2010-05-04 In his warm weathered house stuffed in crannies and nooks were heaps rows and stacks of beloved bound books The only thing that brings Alfred Zector joy is collecting books And so he sets out on a mission to collect every last one until his home on the hill is stretched at the seams with books big and small But what happens when the rest of the townspeople have nothing left to read In this clever rhyming story Alfred Zector discovers what it means to find true joy in a good book School Library Journal, 2010

A to Zoo Rebecca L. Thomas, 2018-06-21 Whether used for thematic story times program and curriculum planning readers advisory or collection development this updated edition of the well known companion makes finding the right picture books for your library a breeze Generations of savvy librarians and educators have relied on this detailed subject guide to children s picture books for all aspects of children s services and this new edition does not disappoint Covering more than 18 000 books published through 2017 it empowers users to identify current and classic titles on topics ranging from apples to zebras Organized simply with a subject guide that categorizes subjects by theme and topic and subject headings arranged alphabetically this reference applies more than 1 200 intuitive as opposed to formal catalog subject terms to children s picture books making it both a comprehensive and user friendly resource that is accessible to parents and teachers as well as librarians It can be used to identify titles to fill in gaps in library collections to find books on particular topics for young readers to help teachers locate titles to support lessons or to design thematic programs and story times Title and illustrator indexes in addition to a bibliographic guide arranged alphabetically by author name further extend access to titles The Publishers Weekly, Mathematical Reviews, 1968 Street Smart Gabriel Roth, 2017-07-05 The poor health of today s roads a subject close to the hearts of motorists taxpayers and government treasurers around the world has resulted from faulty incentives that misdirect government decision makers according to the contributors to Street Smart During the 1990s bad government decision making resulted in the U S Interstate Highway System growing by only one seventh the rate of traffic growth The poor maintenance of existing roads is another concern In cities around the world highly political and wasteful government decision making has led to excessive traffic congestion that has created long commutes reduced safety and caused loss of leisure time Street Smart examines the privatization of roads in theory and in practice The authors see at least four possible roles for private companies beyond the well known one of working under contract to design build or maintain governmentally provided roads These include testing and licensing vehicles and drivers management of government owned facilities franchising and outright private ownership Two chapters describe the history of private roads in the United Kingdom and the United States Contemporary examples are provided of road pricing privatizing and contracting out are evident in environs as diverse as Singapore Southern California and Scandinavia and cities as different as Bergen Norway and London England Finally several chapters examine strategies for implementing privatization The principles governing providing scarce resources in free societies are well known We apply them to such necessities as energy food and water so why not to road space The main obstacle to private or semi private ownership of roads is likely to remain the reluctance of the political class to give up a lucrative source of power and influence Those who want decisions about road services to be controlled by the interplay of consumers and suppliers in free markets rat
