better contracts than women for novels of equivalent quality and sales They were able to accomplish this says Tuchman because they were to a large extent the culture brokers the publishers publishers readers and reviewers of an elite art form Both a sociological study of occupational gender transformation and a historical study of writing and publishing this book will be a rich resource for students of the sociology of culture literary criticism and women s studies The Most Beautiful Man in the World Janis Londraville, Richard Londraville, 2006-01-01 When Andy Warhol cast Paul Swan 1883 1972 in three films in the mid 1960s he knew that the octogenarian had once been internationally hailed as the most beautiful man in the world and as Nijinsky s successor Arthur Hammerstein had advertised Swan as a reincarnated Greek God and George and Ira Gershwin had celebrated his beauty in their musical Funny Face What Warhol didn t know was that Swan had also been called America s Leonardo portrait artist of the famous and the infamous including writer Willa Cather aviator Charles Lindbergh British Prime Minister James Ramsay MacDonald and dictator Benito Mussolini This book is the first to tell Swan s story from his days as a world famous dancer and artist through his film career which ran from silent pictures including De Mille s Ten Commandments 1923 to Warhol s Camp Paul Swan and Paul Swan I IV 1965 to his portrait painting late in life when Nelson Rockefeller s children Malachy McCourt and Pope Paul VI were among his subjects With unprecedented access to Swan s scrapbooks letters diaries and an unpublished memoir that tells the story of a bisexual man trying to build a public life in perilous times Janis and Richard Londraville reconstruct the intriguing life of this uniquely interesting figure whose story although widely glossed in the press was until now never fully known
