To Whom Does Christianity Belong? Dyron B. Daugherty, 2015-07-01 To Whom Does Christianity Belong is a question that is asked throughout the world today In this exciting volume an anchor to the Understanding World Christianity series Dyron B Daugherty helps readers map out the major changes that have taken place in recent years in the world s largest religion By comparing trends analyzing global Christian movements and tracing the impact of Pentecostalism interreligious dialogue global missions sexuality birth rates women secularization and migratory trends Daugherty sketches a picture of a changing religion and gives the tools needed to understand it Everyday Sectarianism in Urban Lebanon

Joanne Randa Nucho, 2016-12-06 What causes violent conflicts around the Middle East All too often the answer is sectarianism popularly viewed as a timeless and intractable force that leads religious groups to conflict In Everyday Sectarianism in Urban Lebanon Joanne Nucho shows how wrong this perspective can be Through in depth research with local governments NGOs and political parties in Beirut she demonstrates how sectarianism is actually recalibrated on a daily basis through the provision of essential services and infrastructures such as electricity medical care credit and the planning of bridges and roads Taking readers to a working class predominantly Armenian suburb in northeast Beirut called Bourj Hammoud Nucho conducts extensive interviews and observations in medical clinics social service centers shops banking coops and municipal offices She explores how group and individual access to services depends on making claims to membership in the dominant sectarian community and she examines how sectarianism is not just tied to ethnoreligious identity but also class gender and geography Life in Bourj Hammoud makes visible a broader pattern in which the relationships that develop while procuring basic needs become a way for people to see themselves as part of the greater public Illustrating how sectarianism in Lebanon is not simply about religious identity as is commonly thought Everyday Sectarianism in Urban Lebanon offers a new look at how everyday social exchanges define and redefine communities and conflicts

The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East Mitri Raheb, Mark A. Lamport, 2020-12-15 This work represents the current and most relevant content on the studies of how Christianity has fared in the ancient home of its founder and birth Much has been written about Christianity and how it has survived since its migration out of its homeland but this comprehensive reference work reassesses the geographic and demographic impact of the dramatic changes in this perennially combustible world region The Rowman Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East also spans the historical socio political and contemporary settings of the region and importantly describes the interactions that Christianity has had with other major minor religions in the region The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Europe

Grace Davie, Lucian N. Leustean, 2021-12-08 The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Europe offers a detailed overview of religious ideas structures and institutions in the making of Europe It examines the role of religion in fostering identity survival and tolerance in the empires and nation states of Europe from Antiquity until today the interplay between religion politics and ideologies in the twentieth century the dialogue between religious communities and European institutions in the construction of the European Union and the engagement of Catholicism Protestantism Eastern Orthodoxy Islam Judaism and Eastern religions with the idea of Europe The collection closes with an overview of European nation states focusing on history demography legal perspectives political authorities societal changes and current trends Written by leading scholars in the field the Handbook is an authoritative and up to date volume which demonstrates the enduring presence of lived and institutionalized religion in the social networks of identity policy and power over two millennia of European history

The Armenian Diaspora and Stateless Power Talar Chahinian, Sossie Kasbarian, Tsolin Nalbantian, 2023-11-30 From genocide forced displacement and emigration to the gradual establishment of sedentary and rooted global communities how has the Armenian diaspora formed and maintained a sense of collective identity This book explores the richness and magnitude of the Armenian experience through the 20th century to examine how Armenian diaspora elites and their institutions emerged in the post genocide period and used stateless power to compose forms of social discipline Historians cultural theorists literary critics sociologists political scientists and anthropologists explore how national and transnational institutions were built in far flung sites from Istanbul Aleppo Beirut and Jerusalem to Paris Los Angeles and the American mid west Exploring literary and cultural production as well as the role of religious institutions the book probes the history and experience of the Armenian diaspora through the long 20th century from the role of the fin de si cle migr Armenian press to the experience of Syrian Armenian asylum seekers in the 21st century It shows that a diaspora s statelessness can not only be evidence of its power but also how this stateless power acts as an alternative and complement to the nation state Sacred Places, Emerging

Spaces Tsypylma Darieva, Florian Mühlfried, Kevin Tuite, 2018-02-19 Though long associated with violence the Caucasus is a region rich with religious conviviality Based on fresh ethnographies in Georgia Armenia Azerbaijan and the Russian Federation Sacred Places Emerging Spaces discusses vanishing and emerging sacred places in the multi ethnic and multi religious post Soviet Caucasus In exploring the effects of de secularization growing institutional control over hybrid sacred sites and attempts to review social boundaries between the religious and the secular these essays give way to an emergent Caucasus viewed from the ground up dynamic continually remaking itself within shifting and indefinite frontiers Memory and Religion from a Postsecular Perspective Zuzanna Bogumił, Yuliya Yurchuk, 2022-02-27 The book argues that religion is a system of significant meanings that have an impact on other systems and spheres of social life including cultural memory The editors call for a postsecular turn in memory studies which would provide a more reflective and meaningful approach to the constant interplay between the religious and the secular This opens up new perspectives on the intersection of memory and religion and helps memory scholars become more aware of the religious roots of the language they are using in their studies of memory By drawing on examples from different parts of the world the contributors to this volume explain how the interactions between the religious and the secular produce new memory forms and content in the heterogenous societies of the present day world These analyzed cases demonstrate that religion has a significant impact on cultural memory family memory and the contemporary politics of history in secularized societies At the same time politics grassroots movements and different secular agents and processes have so much influence on the formation of memory by religious actors that even religious ecclesiastic and confessional memories are affected by the secular This volume is ideal for students and scholars of memory studies religious studies and history Armenians Beyond Diaspora Tsolin Nalbantian, 2019-12-05 Soviet and Post-Soviet Sexualities Richard C.M. Mole, 2019-01-23 Despite Soviet Russia having been one of the first major powers to decriminalise homosexual acts between men attitudes towards lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT people in contemporary Russia and the other post Soviet states have become increasingly hostile with the introduction of laws restricting their rights and an increase in homophobic violence This book explores how this situation has come about It discusses how meanings attached to non heteronormative sexualities have been constructed for specific socio political purposes by elites in line with Marxist Leninist or nationalist thought explores how attitudes to non normative sexualities developed historically and examines the current situation in the post Soviet space including Russia Transcaucasia Central Asia and the Baltic States The book provides a wealth of detail on this understudied subject and assesses how LGBT subjects are responding to this state of affairs

Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A. Lamport, 2018-06-01

Christianity has transformed many times in its 2 000 year history from its roots in the Middle East to its presence around the world today From the mid twentieth century onward the presence of Christianity has increased dramatically in Asia Africa and Latin America and the majority of the world s Christians are now nonwhite and non Western The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the historical evolution and contemporary themes in Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions The volumes include maps images and a detailed timeline of key events The phrases Global Christianity and World Christianity are inadequate to convey the complexity of the countries and regions involved this encyclopedia with its more than 500 entries aims to offer rich perspectives on the varieties of Christianity where it is growing how the spread of Christianity shapes the faith in various regions and how the faith is changing worldwide
