Christian Shrinks Answer All Your Questions... Ab Abercrombie, Karen Abercrombie, 2005-07 American Visions Dolores LaGuardia, Hans P. Guth, Karen Harrington, 1994-09 American Visions offers a rich sampling of literature for writing classes with a multicultural perspective exploring the historical context and contemporary relevance of major themes that have shaped our consciousness as a nation American Visions of the Netherlands East Indies/Indonesia Frances Gouda, 2002 A revealing reassessment of the American government's position towards Indonesia's struggle for independence U.S. vision for space exploration United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science, 2004 Towards a Diagnosis of Our Times Nikolai Genov, 2025-09-30 This monograph offers a critical diagnosis of the current epoch marked by globalization de globalization and re globalization Arguing that the concept of society gives way to that of globalization as an explanatory core the author shows how constructivist ideas open the way to four new conceptualizations of global trends upgrading the rationality of organizations individualization spread of instrumental activism and homogenization of culture RISC Each trend is presented by two explanatory models The trend of upgrading rationality of organizations is exemplified by analyses of the volatile rationality of industrial organizations and the tensions of regional integration Individualization is dealt with by comparing the development and impact of leaders in Asia and the individualization in the present day war Commercialization together with consumerism is analyzed as a component of the global trend of instrumental activism The homogenization of culture is dealt with through discussions on the dynamic relations of values and norms and the controversial development of social science knowledge The creative approach to global processes is finalized in a discussion on tensions and conflicts in each trend and in their interplay As such it develops a new analytical framework while identifying action fields and activities which reproduce stability and change in contemporary global society The intellectually refreshing critical and constructive ideas of this volume will attract researchers lecturers and upper level students with interests in sociological theory globalization the sociology of culture and the challenges facing contemporary civilization more broadly Roundtable Discussion on United States-Soviet Relations and the Future of Arms Control United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Arms Control, International Security, and Science, 1991 Rivers in History Christof Mauch, Thomas G. Zeller, 2008-07-27 Throughout history rivers have run a wide course through human temporal and spiritual experience They have demarcated mythological worlds framed the cradle of Western civilization and served as physical and psychological boundaries among nations Rivers have become a crux of transportation industry and commerce They have been loved as nurturing providers nationalist symbols and the source of romantic lore but also loathed as sites of conflict and natural disaster Rivers in History presents one of the first comparative histories of rivers on the continents of Europe and North America in the modern age The contributors examine the impact of rivers on humans and conversely the impact of humans on rivers They view this dynamic relationship through political cultural industrial social and ecological perspectives in national and transnational settings As integral sources of food and water local and international transportation recreation and aesthetic beauty rivers have dictated where cities have risen and in times of flooding drought and war where they ve fallen Modern Western civilizations have sought to control rivers by channeling them for irrigation raising and lowering them in canal systems and damming them for power generation Contributors analyze the regional national and international politicization of rivers the use and treatment of waterways in urban versus rural environments and the increasing role of international commissions in ecological and commercial legislation for the protection of river resources Case studies include the Seine in Paris the Mississippi the Volga the Rhine and the rivers of Pittsburgh Rivers in History is a broad environmental history of waterways that makes a major contribution to the study preservation and continued sustainability of rivers as vital lifelines of Western culture Joseph Kandel,Christine A. Congressional Record United States. Congress,2003 A Critical Introduction to Law Wade Mansell,Belinda Meteyard,Alan Thomson,2015-06-26 Challenging the usual introductions to the study of law A Critical Introduction to Law argues that law is inherently political and reflects the interests of the few even while presenting itself as neutral This fully revised and updated fourth edition provides contemporary examples to demonstrate the relevance of these arguments in the twenty first century The book includes an analysis of the common sense of law the use of anthropological examples to gain external perspectives of our use and understanding of law a consideration of central legal concepts such as order rules property dispute resolution legitimation and the rule of law an examination of the role of law in women s subordination and finally a critique of the effect of our understanding of law upon the wider world Clearly written and admirably suited to provoking discussions on the role of law in our contemporary world this book is ideal for undergraduate and postgraduate students reading law and will be of interest to those studying legal systems and skills courses jurisprudence courses and law and society Quiet Time Poems David Edwin Hall,2014-11-06 Every day there are treasures to be discovered by anyone who will honestly come to hear the voice of the Savior in his Word The Lord Jesus indicates that there is an added blessing for those who will write down the insights he gives by his instruction Every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old Matthew 13 52 The poems in this book are the result of going to the Bible each day with an expectation that God has something very valuable to say That expectation has NEVER been disappointed Our risen Lord said I stand at the door and knock If any man hears My voice and opens the door I will come into him and will sup with him and he with Me Revelation 3 20 This intimate two way communion with God is offered to all those who have received the Lord Jesus Christ John 1 12 and thereby have received not the spirit of the world but the Spirit which is of God that we might know the things that are freely given to us by God 1 Corinthians 2 12 My prayer is that God may use this book for his glory for the encouragement of his own children and for the persuasion of those who may yet be awakened to their need of our Savior Blessed is the man that heareth Me
