In this second installment of Amy Clipston's Amish Marketplace series love begins to grow between Salina and Will a Mennonite chef and both must decide if it's a love worth fighting for. Salina Petersheim runs her own booth at the Amish market where she's known for having the freshest and most delicious produce in the area. Her family is very close yet sometimes she tires of being compared to her older brother Neil a deacon who is married with two children. She also feels the pressure of having to be the perfect daughter for her mother and father who is a bishop. Salina has been dating Josiah for almost a year now but he feels more like a friend than a boyfriend. Her parents approve of Josiah who is a hardworking roofer. He's handsome and easy to talk to but he just doesn't warm her heart the way she feels a boyfriend and future husband should. She secretly longs for more. Along comes Will Zimmerman a Mennonite chef who runs a restaurant located next door to the Amish market. Salina begins supplying the produce for his restaurant and as they forge a business relationship they both feel themselves falling in love. Salina tries to deny her feelings for Will since her father wants her to marry within the community. Both Salina and Will feel stuck in their current relationships but they cannot deny what they feel for each other. Will they follow their hearts or bow to the pressure of family? Or will God provide a surprising new road for them? Sweet inspirational Amish romance. Full length novel 85 000 words. The second book in Amy Clipston's Amish Marketplace series. Korey Bontrager knows he's been an immature dummkopp. When his widowed dad remarried Korey was unwelcoming to his kindhearted stepmother. Then he became estranged from his older brother. But after fourteen months in Ohio God called Korey back to Pennsylvania. Easier said than done. Back home Korey feels left behind by his family and friends who want to see him happily married. Instead of looking for a new relationship he finds himself spending time with Savannah Zook the most outspoken maedel he's ever met. She's also confident and brave having raised her younger brother from a young age. And she's a natural beauty. But hard as her friends try to convince her otherwise she has no interest in dating. Her priority is looking out for her bullied brother. So when Savannah suggests they pretend to date as a way to get her friends and his family off their backs Korey readily agrees. Soon he can't imagine life without her. But could Savannah ever truly be part of his future? Set in the faithful Amish community of Lancaster County Breaking New Ground gives the most stubborn Bontrager a chance to redeem his story. Sweet inspirational Amish romance. Full length novel 85 000 words. Second book in Amy Clipston's Amish Legacy.
