prose and poetic genres Monte illuminates these constraints through an examination of works that have influenced the development of the prose poem as well as through a discussion of genre theory and detailed readings of poems ranging from Charles Baudelaire's La Solitude to John Ashbery's The System Monte explores the ways in which literary historical narratives affect interpretation why for example prose poetry tends to be seen as a revolutionary genre and how this perspective influences readings of individual works The American poets he discusses include Ralph Waldo Emerson William Carlos Williams T S Eliot Gertrude Stein and Ashbery the French poets range from Baudelaire Arthur Rimbaud and Stephane Mallarmé to Max Jacob In exploring prose poetry as a genre Invisible Fences offers new perspectives not only on modern poetry but also on genre itself challenging current theories of genre with a test case that asks for yet eludes definition
