Loreeta Gill Green,2010-12-21 My story is fictional based on a true experience At the scene of an auto accident that destroyed my car and left me injured the first person who appeared was a woman unknown to me She leaned into my car called my name saying You will be all right God is protecting you She was on her way to a ladies prayer group where she would request prayer She continued to give words of comfort I could not turn my head to look at her face but I could see her from the corner of my eye I did not recognize her voice I felt truly impressed that she had come to me as a personal angel messenger to bring words of comfort from God the Father I felt absolute peace as I sat confined in the front seat of my car unable to move that God's protection was covering me Throughout the duration of my immobility being unable to walk for about four months it became my obsessed determination to find the woman to express my appreciation for bringing the words of comfort to me that day and for her prayers and those of her prayer group I am in search of this angel I maintain the hope of her someday reading this book and know that I am searching for her Under a Hunter's Moon Natalia
