Alexis De Tocqueville On Democracy Revolution And Society:

Alexis de Tocqueville on Democracy, Revolution, and Society Alexis de Tocqueville, 1980 Alexis de Tocqueville possessed one of the most fertile sociological imaginations of the nineteenth century For more than 120 years his uncanny predictive insight has continued to fascinate thinkers and his writings have continued to influence our interpretations of history and society His analyses of many issues remain relevant to current social and political problems In this volume John Stone and Stephen Mennell bring together for the first time selections from the full range of Tocqueville's writings selections that illustrate the depth of his insight and analysis

Emile Durkheim on Morality and Society Emile Durkheim, 1973-08-01 Emile Durkheim is best known in this country as a great sociologist and methodologist Yet it was Durkheim's reflections on morality and society that spoke most deeply of his vital concerns In his informative introduction to this work Robert N Bellah describes Durkheim as moralist philosopher theologian and prophet as well as sociologist and the selections in this volume are representative of these aspects of Durkheim's many faceted scholarship The first two selections of the volume set the context for the development of Durkheim's sociology of morality Section I The French Tradition of Social Thought gives Durkheim's picture of how his sociology is to be situated relative to the general French tradition Section II Sociology and Social Action shows Durkheim grappling with moral and political issues in his society and indicates the immediate social context of his thinking The remaining selections indicate some of the major substantive areas of Durkheim's sociology of morality Section III taken from The Division of Labor in Society demonstrates his basically evolutionary approach to the development of moral norms in society Section IV The Learning of Morality gives examples of Durkheim's work on socialization Section V Social Creativity deals with the important question of how new moral norms arise in society

Classical Readings on Culture and Civilization Stephen Mennell, 2017-10-03 In recent times especially under the influence of postmodernism culture has often been construed as a critique of modernity This wide ranging and comprehensive collection of readings shows that such issues have always been at the centre of thought about the relationship between culture and civilization The readings are divided into three sections linking the civilization debate to political theory to the cultural debate and to the sociology and anthropology The substantial extracts included give students a rare chance to engage at length with classic texts to appreciate the nature of the battle between the Enlightenment and its critics which has shaped current thought Classical Readings on Culture and Civilisation presents essays from Immanuel Kant Adam Ferguson Thomas Jefferson Alexis de Tocqueville Friedrich von Schiller Friedrich Nietzsche Georg Simmel Thomas Mann Sigmund Freud Emile Durkheim Marcel Mauss Lucien Febvre Alfred Weber Robert E Park and Norbert Elias

Overviews key themes

The British State and the Northern Ireland Crisis, 1969-73 William Beattie Smith, 2011 Focusing on four case studies author William Beattie Smith traces the evolution of British policy from 1969-73 and depicts how easily a conflict over national identity can turn into bloodshed grief and horror and how difficult it is once a serious fight has started to restore peace In each of the case studies Smith highlights a discrete policy followed by the British government in tackling political disorder in Northern Ireland and examines why the policy was chosen or pursued He outlines three broad strategic options reform coercion and powersharing and identifies factors influencing which of the three will be selected in practice Focusing on policy outcomes rather than the details of the negotiating process the author evaluates the relative importance of rational calculation patterns of understanding party politics diplomatic pressures organizational structure and official doctrine in shaping policies and initiating radical changes While rooted in policy analysis the book ventures into the territory of political history and conflict studies The author addresses issues such as the legitimacy of state authority the vulnerability of democratic institutions to the opposition of disaffected minorities and the tensions that exist between public order and individual rights His conclusion derives strategic lessons from the British experience in Northern Ireland and provides guidance for policymakers confronting challenges arising from comparable cases

The History and Policy Debate of

Broadcasting Reform in Post-Suharto Indonesia Muhammad Thaufan Arifuddin , This book addresses the historical evolution of Indonesian broadcasting media its regulatory debates and the role of KPI in media democratization The broadcasting sector transitioned from a revolutionary tool under Sukarno to a controlled political instrument under Suharto with TVRI and RRI as state agents Suharto s regime imposed strict media regulations leading to the press s resistance and the eventual media liberalization under Habibie The enactment of the Broadcasting Law No 32 2002 aimed to balance national interests and media freedom Key debates arose from the media s unique political and economic role Initially civil society and media advocates supported the new law while private networks resisted Despite the ratification of the law subsequent legal challenges diluted KPI s regulatory authority shifting key powers to the government This struggle highlighted the lack of political will to fully support media democratization The ongoing debates involve KPI s efforts to navigate regulatory complexities the influence of civil society waning and media networks lobbying through political avenues KPI s role in fostering media democratization has been significant but constrained by limitations in regulating media ownership due to conflicts among KPI the government and media businesses Despite these obstacles KPI continues to advocate for media content diversity public participation and media literacy This chapter concludes that the dynamic interplay of market forces civil society and the state is crucial for democratic broadcasting in Indonesia with KPI playing a central role in this ongoing process

Friendship and Politics in Post-Revolutionary France Sarah Horowitz, 2015-06-10 In Friendship and Politics in Post Revolutionary France Sarah Horowitz brings together the political and cultural history of post revolutionary France to illuminate how French society responded to and recovered from the upheaval of the French Revolution The Revolution led to a heightened sense of distrust and divided the nation along ideological lines In the wake of the Terror many began to express concerns about the atomization of French society Friendship though was regarded as one bond that could restore trust and cohesion Friends relied on each other to serve as confidants men and women described friendship as a site of both pleasure and connection Because trust and cohesion were necessary to the functioning of post revolutionary parliamentary life politicians turned to friends and ideas about friendship to create this solidarity Relying on detailed analyses of politicians social networks new tools arising from the digital humanities and examinations of behind the scenes political transactions Horowitz makes clear the connection between politics and emotions in the early nineteenth century and she reevaluates the role of women in political life by showing the ways in which the personal was the political in the post revolutionary era

Modernizing Democracy Matthias Freise, Thorsten Hallmann, 2014-05-13 Modernizing Democracy brings together scholars focusing the role of associations and associating in contemporary societies Organizations and associations have been identified as the meso level of society and as the basic elements of democracy They are important providers of welfare services and play an important role between the individual and political spheres In recent years the environment of associations and associating has changed dramatically Individualization commercialization and globalization are challenging both democracy and the capability of associations to fulfill the functions attributed to them by social sciences This change provides the central question of the volume Is being part of an organization or association becoming an outdated model And do associations still have the capacity of modernizing societies or are they just outdated remnants of post democracy The contributions to Modernizing Democracy will be organized into Studying Association and Associating in the 21st Century Associating in Times of Post Democracy and

Associations and the Challenge of Capitalist Development The book will be attractive to third sector researchers as well as a broader academic community of political scientists sociologists economists legal scientists and related disciplines

Comparative Methods in Sociology Ivan Vallier, 2023-11-10 The essays in this volume are intended to help social scientists do better comparative research and thereby to improve our possibilities for creating more satisfactory explanations or theories These broad aims are advanced throughout the book in several ways 1 by an identification and assessment of the methodological strategies of exceptionally important comparativists past and present 2 by an explication and refinement of logics of procedure that are central to many types of comparative research 3 by a presentation of new research models that link or bridge heretofore separate lines of comparative inquiry and 4 by the definition of methodological criteria by which theories and conceptual frameworks can be more fruitfully related to and qualified by comparative studies Specific problems such as comparability causal inference conceptualization measurement and sampling are addressed in various sections of particular essays From the Preface This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1971

The Languages of Civil Society Peter Wagner, 2006 The series emerged from the study Towards a European Civil Society on which 40 political scientists sociologists historians and other scholars in 10 countries worked for two and a half years This first volume looks at the debates about civil society over the past two decades in East Central Europe Latin America East Asia and finally in Europe and globally as a counter to unjustified state domination and neo liberal marketization Annotation 2006 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com

The Political Classics Murray Greensmith Forsyth, H. M. A. Keens-Soper, John Hoffman, 1993 Spanning a critical period from the turbulent era of the American and French Revolutions through to the calmer waters of the nineteenth centuries this book will help all students of political ideas to gain a fuller appreciation of the great works which form the foundation of the subject Seven classic texts have been chosen for analysis Hamilton's The Federalist Sieyès What is the Third Estate Burke's Reflections on the Revolution in France Hegel's The Philosophy of Right de Tocqueville's Democracy in America Marx and Engels Communist Manifesto and Mill's On Liberty Together they illustrate and express the main themes of the period The most prominent of these is the growing distinction between the state and society and the problems that this brings in its train Other themes embrace the interplay of revolution and reaction the growth of representative government and the challenge posed by democracy The clear analysis and explanation contained in each essay will enable the reader to return to the original texts with a new understanding and insight
