The Witness, 1995 The New Economy of Nature Gretchen Cara Daily, Katherine Ellison, 2002 Earth's ecosystems forests wetlands coral reefs and the like are among humanity's most precious assets offering such vital services as climate control and water purification So why are they being rapidly destroyed A major reason is that protecting them has been seen as largely a charitable venture and philanthropy isn't up to the job Increasing numbers of environmentally minded people are therefore trying to harness a more potent force self interest to preserve our environmental endowment. Theirs is the quest portrayed in The New Economy of Nature. In this timely and provocative book, Gretchen Daily, one of the world's leading ecologists, and Katherine Ellison, a Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist, give us an informative look at a new new economy that recognizes the full value of natural systems and the potential profits in protecting them. BOOK JACKET Resources in Education, 1997-07 Novatian's Theology of the Father and Son Daniel Lloyd, 2020-07-23 Early Christian theologian Novatian's c. 200-258 work begins with the topic of the unique and supreme Father. The categories he uses to describe the Father include both traditions from Christian sources and articulations of negative theology especially as seen in Middle Platonism. After establishing the limitations set by philosophical and theological language, Daniel Lloyd turns to the positive categories Novatian chooses for describing the Father, highlighting Novatian's emphasis on revelation, evaluating the parameters of the uniqueness of the Father, and showing that his theology presents the Father as distinct in attributes such as incomprehensibility, eternality, and inability to change. Having presented Novatian's theology of the Father as the center point of his thought, Lloyd next assesses Novatian's theology of the Son, showing that his categories and terminology even to the point of calling the Son God do not function against his theology of the unique Father. Novatian has many resources for speaking about the Son's divinity in a way that does not contradict his theology of the Father. Lloyd presents and analyzes these resources to demonstrate that the Son's status as ontologically subordinate to the Father is the best reading of De Trinitate. The Harz Journey and Selected Prose Heinrich Heine, 2006-06-29 A poet whose verse inspired music by Schubert, Schumann, Mendelssohn, and Brahms, Heinrich Heine (1797-1856) was in his lifetime equally admired for his elegant prose. This collection charts the development of that prose, beginning with three meditative works from the Travel Pictures inspired by Heine's journeys as a young man to Lucca, Venice, and the Harz Mountains. Exploring the development of spirituality, the later On the History of Religion and Philosophy in Germany spans the earliest religious beliefs of the Germanic people to the philosophy of Hegel and warns with startling force of the dangers of yielding to primeval Germanic paganism. Finally, the Memoirs consider Heine's Jewish heritage and describe his early childhood. As rich in humor, satire, lyricism, and anger as his greatest poems, together the pieces offer a fascinating insight into a brilliant and prophetic mind. Alchemical studies Carl Gustav Jung, 1967 The Collected Works of C. G. Jung: Alchemical studies Carl Gustav Jung, 1967 Ensign, 1997 American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Backpacker, 2000-03 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader's doorstep, inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often. The authority on active adventure, Backpacker is the world's first GPS-enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails, camping gear, and survival tips they publish. Backpacker's Editors' Choice Awards, an industry honor recognizing design, feature, and product innovation, has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured. Joyce in the Belly of the Big Truck; Workbook Joyce A. Cascio, 2005-05 Resources in Education, 1997 The Moving Picture World, 1916 What
