Racetrack Betting Peter Asch, Richard E. Quandt, 1986 A day at the races with its colorful variety and fact paced action appeals to people from all walks of life Not surprisingly the idea of going home with a few more dollars than when one arrived is part of horseracing's charm In this entertaining but substantive volume two distinguished economists who happen to be horseracing buffs outline a tested strategy for placing bets that will increase the reader's chances of a happy outcome at the track The authors are the first to point out that getting rich at the racetrack is unlikely They do maintain however that with attention to their systematic approach the racing fan can achieve the best possible chance at winning In the process the reader learns some of the most important measurement techniques in the social sciences as well as the basic methods of market analysis

Bet to Win! Bobby Zen, 2007-09 This is an instruction manual to finding winners at the races including worksheets Back cover

Winning Without Thinking Nick Mordin, 2006-10 Nick Mordin estimates he has spent over 30 000 hours researching racing results over the years His aim has been to uncover the principles that govern the betting market and racing results themselves In conducting his research Nick has tested thousands of systems both his own and those developed by academics professional gamblers and others around the globe In Winning Without Thinking he shares the fruits of this work the results of horse races basic principles that govern racing results and the betting market mistakes commonly made by the general betting public and how to exploit them full details of betting systems used by professional gamblers to make millions how to predict and profit from new trends and how to use computers to increase your returns
