Wirén, 2017-11-01 In Hope and Otherness Jakob Wirén analyses the place and role of the religious Other in contemporary eschatology. In connection with this theme he examines and compares different levels of inclusion and exclusion in Christian, Muslim and Jewish eschatologies. He argues that a distinction should be made in approaches to this issue between soteriological openness and eschatological openness. By going beyond Christian theology and also looking to Muslim and Jewish sources and by combining the question of the religious Other with eschatology, Wirén explores ways of articulating Christian eschatology in light of religious otherness and provides a new and vital slant to the threefold paradigm of exclusivism, inclusivism and pluralism that has been prevalent in the theology of religions. Jakob Wirén's study pushes forward the frontiers of three disciplines all at the same time: theology of religions, comparative religions and eschatology. This is a challenging and important book. Gavin D Costa, University of Bristol, Professor of Catholic Theology, 2017. This book explores the status of religious others in Christian eschatology and of eschatology itself as a privileged place for reflecting on religious otherness. Wirén mines not only Christian but also Jewish and Muslim sources to develop an inclusive eschatology. Hope and Otherness thus represents an important contribution to both theology of religions and comparative theology. Catherine Cornille, Boston College, Professor of Comparative Theology, 2017.      Roads to Paradise: Eschatology and Concepts of the Hereafter in Islam (2 vols.) Sebastian Günther, Todd Lawson, 2017-02-20 Roads to Paradise: Eschatology and Concepts of the Hereafter in Islam offers a multi-disciplinary study of Muslim thinking about paradise, death, apocalypse and the hereafter. It focuses on eschatological concepts in the Quran and its exegesis, Sunni and Shi'i traditions, Islamic theology, philosophy, mysticism and other scholarly disciplines reflecting Islamic pluralism and cosmopolitanism. The emergence of the field of interreligious studies is emerging as a response to critical issues within our religiously plural world. Religious conflicts large and small continue to plague our society as the challenges of navigating religious difference emerge in daily encounters among people who would like to get along in the public square that they fashion together. These challenges unfold within families, congregations, college campuses, workplaces, communities, media, and cyberspace. This volume offers a comprehensive introduction to interreligious studies, providing an overview of the history, terms, and characteristics of the field. Rachel Mikva explores the ethical, philosophical, and theological foundations for pluralism. She also presents guidelines and case studies that demonstrate how interreligious understanding and solidarity can be achieved. Designed for use in undergraduate and graduate courses, the volume also will be useful to medical doctors, social workers, police officers, corporate managers, and others whose work requires multi-cultural competence.

To Live Like a Moor Olivia Remie Constable, 2018-02-02. To Live Like a Moor traces the many shifts in Christian perceptions of Islam associated with ways of life which took place across the centuries between early Reconquista efforts of the eleventh century and the final expulsions of Spain's converted yet poorly assimilated Morisco population in the seventeenth century.

Never Wholly Other Jerusha Tanner Lamptey, 2016. Drawing upon the work of Muslim women interpreters of the Qur'an, a feminist theology and semantic analysis, Never Wholly Other offers a novel re-interpretation of the Qur'anic discourse on religious otherness. Lamptey challenges notions of clear and static religious boundaries.

Rethinking Ibn 'Arabi Gregory A. Lipton, 2018. Exploring how the medieval mystic Ibn Arabi has been read as an inclusive universalist through the interpretative field of Perennial Philosophy, this book shows how his metaphysics is inseparably intertwined with Islamic supersessionism. Ibn Arabi's universalist reception is thus traced to lineages of Eurocentrism, revealing how Perennialism is itself exclusionary.
