where mixing and hybridity take place at a rapid even dizzying pace gives rise to Creolization at the threshold of sovereignties which can also be imagined At present our border zones are spaces of anxiety ridden security arrangements violence and death The existing politics of boundary maintenance is wedded to a cult of sovereignty at various levels which produces bare lives bodies and lands We need the new art of border crossing to be defined by the notion of camaraderie and shared sovereignties and non sovereignties Border zones can also be zones of meetings communication transcendence and festive celebration of the limits of our identities Thus we need a new art and politics of boundary transmutation transformation and transcendence in the broadest possible sense that entails the production of spatial scalar somatic cognitive affective and spiritual transitions

Receptions of the Ancient Near East in Popular Culture and Beyond

Agnes Garcia-Ventura, Lorenzo Verderame, 2020-03-01 This book is an enthusiastic celebration of the ways in which popular culture has consumed aspects of the ancient Near East to construct new realities The editors have brought together an impressive line up of scholars archaeologists philologists historians and art historians to reflect on how objects ideas and interpretations of the ancient Near East have been remembered constructed reimagined mythologized or indeed forgotten within our shared cultural memories The exploration of cultural memories has revealed how they inform the values structures and daily life of societies over time This is therefore not a collection of essays about the deep past but rather about the stories we tell ourselves about ourselves American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Destin's Hold S.
