

A high-angle, low-key photograph of a diverse group of young people, likely students, huddled together outdoors on a grassy area. They are all smiling and looking upwards, with their arms raised and hands clasped in the center, creating a sense of unity and teamwork. The lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day.

Beyond Racial Gridlock Embracing Mutual Responsibility:

Beyond Racial Gridlock George Yancey, 2009-08-20 Sociologist George Yancey critiques four models of race colorblindness Anglo conformity multiculturalism and white responsibility and introduces a new model mutual responsibility He offers hope that people of all races can walk together on a shared path toward racial reconciliation not as adversaries but as collaborators and partners

Know. Be. Live.® John D. Basie, 2021-10-12 Over the last few years the literature on Generation Z has grown rapidly However there is little that directly addresses the destructive cultural challenges to proactive discipling in this generation Know Be Live offers a holistic 360 degree approach to discipleship in a post Christian era It combines expert thought on faith and culture to equip Christ following parents of teenagers college students campus ministers and pastors

Outsiders on the Inside William E. Boyce, 2022-05-04 Can Christian community be racially exclusive and still call itself faithful In the United States the story of Christianity has been intertwined with the story of race since the beginning All too often Christian leaders have fostered cultures that wound minority members instead of creating cultures that heal division With this history of exclusion all Christians must ask whether our churches practice the racial hospitality envisioned in the Scriptures In this necessary conversation minority pastors voice fatigue signaling that church cultures are not as welcoming as they often claim to be Outsiders on the Inside explores the history of race in the Presbyterian Church in America PCA comparing the denomination's core theological convictions with the experiences of Black PCA pastors This is a story of racial fatigue and resilience of learning to thrive in the midst of challenging environments This study reveals areas for growth and opens up possibilities for Christians of all races and confessions to come together creating a diverse hospitable and healing community

Reaching for the New Jerusalem Seong Hyun Park, Aida Besancon Spencer, William David Spencer, 2013-08-02 The task of this book is to examine the biblical and theological meaning of the city and our mission within it It starts with the premise that the garden is lost and we are headed toward the New Jerusalem the city of God In the meanwhile we dwell in earthly cities that need to be adjusted to God's city The fall has conditioned us to fear the city though historically God intended it to provide safety even refuge We have to band together and act to take back our communities if we are to help God in the divine task of reconciling the world to Godself by assisting God in adjusting our communities to God's New Jerusalem rebuilding our own cities of Enoch on the blueprints of Christ to go into all the world and share his good news building the Christian community along the lines of the New Jerusalem a city of light in which God is revealed from the Introduction by William David Spencer Toward achieving this goal this single accessible volume brings together the biblical the systematic and the practical aspects of urban ministry by various contributors who are urban practitioners and theologians themselves and have taught at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary Boston Campus

White Awake Daniel Hill, 2017-09-19 You may be white but that doesn't mean you have no culture Charting his own journey toward understanding his white identity Daniel Hill shows us the seven stages we encounter on the path to cultural awakening This timely book will give you a new perspective on being white and also empower you to be an agent of reconciliation in our increasingly diverse and divided world Hostile Environment George Yancey,2015-04-29 Sociologist George Yancey unpacks the underlying perspectives and root causes of Christianophobia or intense anti Christian hostility He considers to what extent Christians have themselves contributed to this animosity and explores how we can respond more constructively defusing tensions and working toward the common good Spirituality, Community, and Race Consciousness in Adult Higher Education Timothy Westbrook,2016-12-08 Drawing on the lived experiences of Black students in adult degree completion programs at predominantly White Christian institutions in the southern United States this book presents a model for reimagining adult higher education Westbrook explores the reasons students enrolled in degree programs how they experience their predominantly white institutions and how their experiences affect their lives Employing Critical Race Theory and Christian theology as frameworks for evaluating the students experiences the author sheds light on the ways African American experiences to inform critique and shape Christian adult learning in higher education Ralph Ellison and Kenneth Burke at the Roots of the Racial Divide Bryan Crable,2012 Ralph Ellison and Kenneth Burke focuses on the little known but important friendship between two canonical American writers The story of this fifty year friendship however is more than literary biography Bryan Crable argues that the Burke Ellison relationship can be interpreted as a microcosm of the American racial divide Through examination of published writings and unpublished correspondence he reconstructs the dialogue between Burke and Ellison about race that shaped some of their most important works including Burke s A Rhetoric of Motives and Ellison s Invisible Man In addition the book connects this dialogue to changes in American discourse about race Crable shows that these two men were deeply connected intellectually and personally but the social division between white and black Americans produced hesitation embarrassment mystery and estrangement where Ellison and Burke might otherwise have found unity By using Ellison s nonfiction and Burke s rhetorical theory to articulate a new vocabulary of race the author concludes not with a simplistic healing of the divide but with a challenge to embrace the responsibility inherent to our social order American Literatures Initiative Walking in Unity Krista Bontrager,Monique Duson,2024-10-15 Biblical Guidance for Tough Conversations on Race Early in their friendship Monique and Krista faced what felt like insurmountable barriers in their discussions about race and racism Rather than retreating into avoidant silence or escalating tension until they burned down their friendship they learned to face those difficult conversations together because as children of God they saw each other as worth it Walking in Unity is about bringing Christ centered answers to issues of race and racism Drawing a clear distinction between the secular culture s instructions for agreement and Scripture s call for unity authors Monique Duson and Krista Bontrager explore what the Bible really says about racial harmony and how Christians ultimately find their common identity in Christ Avoiding cheap platitudes Monique and Krista help you explore the tough issues that the larger culture has brought into our churches such as historic racial injustices systemic racism and the call for reparations As you employ this Christ centered model for unity you will find nuanced insights and practical guidelines for engaging the divisive issues of today with the love and truth found only in Jesus

Normalcy Never Again A. Christian van

Gorder, Lewis T. Tait, 2025-03-31 Stock worn exhausted and generalized diatribes against racism litter the American horizon. Instead of reiterating these arguments the authors of Normalcy Never Again share fresh constructive and proactive perspectives in hopes of reinvigorating our nation's ongoing conversation about racist oppression. This book is at times personal and painfully honest but it is always passionate about telling the truth and forging pathways forward through specific challenges met with Afrocentric solutions. Readers will gain not only a renewed challenge rooted in heuristic insights but also a greater degree of historical insight, intercultural understanding and sturdy non-artificial hope. A Handbook of Theology Dr. Daniel L. Akin, David S. Dockery, Nathan A. Finn, Christopher W. Morgan, 2023-04-01 In A Handbook of Theology editors Daniel Akin, David Dockery and Nathan Finn select nearly fifty contributors in the Baptist and evangelical heritage to lay a biblically informed foundation of a Christian theology for students, pastors and church leaders. This volume surveys six parts of theology foundations: Part 1 types of theology; Part 2 history and geography; Part 3 Christian doctrine; Part 4 the Christian life; Part 5 and theology and culture; Part 6 Each author centers their theological topics in the Scriptures while also being Trinitarian, Christ-centered, Spirit-enabled and mission-focused. The Theology for the People of God series is edited by David S. Dockery, Nathan A. Finn and Christopher W. Morgan. A Third Great Disappointment for the Remnant Canute R. Birch, 2012 Do you remember singing 'Jesus Loves the Little Children' in Sabbath School as a young child? Red and yellow, black and white, all are precious in His sight. Jesus loves the little children of the world. Jesus loves everyone, but as His followers, we often struggle to follow His example. In A Third Great Disappointment for the Remnant, Pastor Birch presents his research findings on race relations, the Millerite movement, slavery, the Civil War, segregation, the evangelical movement and much more, addressing how these events have impacted and shaped the Seventh-day Adventist Church. He goes on to examine current race relations in the Adventist Church and the creation of ethnic conferences and warns against a final great disappointment of lost souls at Christ's second coming if we do not reconcile ourselves with each other and finish the work as one unified body. With a passion for racial and ethnic reconciliation, Birch offers recommendations on how to strengthen the Adventist Church through understanding and healing. We are precious in God's sight but we should also be precious in each other's sight. How to Think Better About Social Justice Bradley Campbell, 2024-02-06 Those who are pursuing social justice too often fail to incorporate the insights of sociology and when they do make use of sociology they often draw heavily from claims that are highly contested, unsupported by the evidence or outright false. This book shows why learning to think sociologically can help us to think better about social justice, pointing us toward possibilities for social change while also calling attention to our limits, providing us with hope but also making us cautious. Offering a series of tips for thinking better about social justice, with each chapter giving examples of bad sociological thinking and making the case for drawing from a broader range of sociological theory and research to inform social justice efforts, it advocates an approach rooted in intellectual and moral humility grounded in the normative principles of classical liberalism. A fresh approach to social justice.

that argues for the importance of sociological understanding of the world in our efforts to change it How to Think Better About Social Justice will appeal to scholars and students of sociology with interests in social justice issues and the sociology of morality as well as those working to bring about social change

Family Involvement in Faith-Based Schools Diana Hiatt-Michael, 2017-06-01 An essential read for all school principals and persons engaged in educational policy Parental interest in faith based schooling for children has surged and the contents of this book reveal the reasons for this surge This book provides insights to school choice support for faith based schooling and opening doors for increased parent involvement in schools Authors focus on promising practices that these schools utilize to engage parents in the daily life of school and the effects of such practices on the educational life of the school Their work cover Catholic Jewish Christian and Muslim schools within the U S and internationally In addition chapters suggest ways to market schools and promote social justice in faith based schools

Ruining Christmas—Rediscovering Jesus Carl N. Toney, 2021-08-31 Did you know that the Christmas story almost wasn't told But Matthew and Luke saved Christmas Have you wondered if Christmas is really a pagan holiday Did marketers invent Santa Claus And what does a Christmas tree have to do with anti slavery We'll learn which traditions come from the Bible and where other traditions derive Have you ever considered who Jesus was named after Or why Jesus's genealogy is traced to Joseph if he's not Jesus's biological father We'll answer questions like these surrounding Jesus's legacy Maybe you've asked what was the Bethlehem star Or have you heard that there wasn't an inn or innkeeper With these kinds of inquiries we'll look at the circumstances surrounding Jesus's birth Do we know if the magi were kings astrologers or magicians Or could you name the oldest person that met baby Jesus By interacting with these people who met Jesus on that first Christmas we'll join the cast of characters around the manger As we explore the stories and traditions of Christmas together we'll ruin some past misconceptions but in the process I promise that we'll rediscover Jesus
