Beyond the Information Given Jerome Seymour Bruner, Jeremy M. Anglin, 1974 Beyond the Information Given Jerome Bruner, Jerome S. Bruner, 1973-04 Handbook of Cultural Psychology, First Edition Shinobu Kitayama, Dov Cohen, 2010-01-04 Bringing together leading authorities this definitive handbook provides a comprehensive review of the field of cultural psychology Major theoretical perspectives are explained and methodological issues and challenges are discussed The volume examines how topics fundamental to psychology identity and social relations the self cognition emotion and motivation and development are influenced by cultural meanings and practices It also presents cutting edge work on the psychological and evolutionary underpinnings of cultural stability and change In all more than 60 contributors have written over 30 chapters covering such diverse areas as food love religion intelligence language attachment narratives and work

Art and Cognition Arthur Efland, 2002-06-14 This in depth text not only sheds light on the problems inhibiting art education but also demonstrates how art contributes to the overall development of the mind Describes how the arts can be used to develop cognitive ability in children identifies implications for art curricula teaching practices and the reform of general education <http://www.naea-reston.org/publications/list.html> Of Literature and Knowledge Peter Swirski, 2007-02-12 Of Literature and Knowledge looks like an important advance in this new and very important subject literature is about to become even more interesting Edward O Wilson Pellegrino University Professor Harvard University Framed by the theory of evolution this colourful and engaging volume presents a new understanding of the mechanisms by which we transfer information from narrative make believe to real life Ranging across game theory and philosophy of science as well as poetics and aesthetics Peter Swirski explains how literary fictions perform as a systematic tool of enquiry driven by thought experiments Crucially he argues for a continuum between the cognitive tools employed by scientists philosophers and scholars or writers of fiction The result is a provocative study of our talent and propensity for creating imaginary worlds different from the world we know yet invaluable to our understanding of it Of Literature and Knowledge is a noteworthy challenge to contemporary critical theory arguing that by bridging the gap between literature and science we might not only reinvigorate literary studies but above all further our understanding of literature Rousing Minds to Life Roland G. Tharp, Ronald Gallimore, 1991-03-29 Addressing widespread discontent with contemporary schooling Roland Tharp and Ronald Gallimore develop a unified theory of education and offer a prescription the reconstitution of schools as educating societies Drawing on studies from the family nursery through the university seminar and on their own successful experiences with thousands of students over two decades their theory is firmly based in a culture sensitive developmental psychology but seeks to integrate all the recent work in the Vygotskian tradition with basic concepts in cognitive science anthropology and sociolinguistics One of the authors primary resources is the Kamehameha Elementary Education Program KEEP generally regarded as the world's outstanding research and development program for elementary schooling Making Room for the Disavowed Paul L. Wachtel, 2023-09-05 Description From a leading voice in integrative psychotherapy this unique work offers a fresh perspective on the causes of emotional suffering and the therapist's role in healing Paul L Wachtel explores how early attachment experiences can limit our adaptive resources by leading us to recognize and express only certain thoughts feelings and ways of interacting while casting aside or avoiding others He describes powerful strategies for working with clients to make room for aspects of the self that were sidetracked in the course of development Illustrated with rich clinical examples the book weaves together cutting edge theory and research from psychodynamic cognitive behavioral acceptance based and other therapeutic traditions Keywords psychoanalytic theory relational psychoanalysis psychodynamic attachment based mindfulness selfacceptance integration common factors transtheoretical mental health practice interventions overcoming experiential avoidance CBT cognitive disavowal Book Categories Adult Psychotherapy Adult Clin Research Theory CBT Psychoanalysis Learning, an Overview & Update Kenneth H. Hansen, 1976 Who Owns Knowledge? Nico Stehr, Bernd Weiler, 2011-12-31 Who Owns Knowledge explores the emerging linkages between the extension of knowledge and the law It anticipates that the legal system will not only be called upon to adjudicate in matters of creative minds but will be expected to do so to an ever increasing degree Linkages between the legal system and knowledge are bound to multiply in modern societies Ironically while increasingly relying on knowledge we are simultaneously investing significant resources into controlling this same knowledge This includes developing a system of legal governance over how knowledge is extended or enlarged Such modes of governance may take the form of regulatory legal codes or legal challenges and judgments that shape the evolution of modern society and potentially transform knowledge itself as a productive force Who Owns Knowledge asks such questions as What is the appropriate balance of public and private interests involved in this process How can creative powers natural resources and indigenous knowledge be protected from either public or private exploitation Does the law have the power to prevent this exploitation or is adaptive technology needed Also in this identity theft conscious age how can the rights of the individual be protected against policies allowing access to any kind of information especially confidential information The editors and contributors demonstrate that the relationship between knowledge and the law needs to be further researched and discussed Who Owns Knowledge is a must read for those interested in the subjects of intellectual property the history and development of modern legal and economic systems and their entanglements and how judicial systems make choices between the legal and economic systems and especially between the public and private good and their often opposing interests Play = Learning Dorothy Singer, Roberta Michnick Golinkoff, Kathy Hirsh-Pasek, 2006-08-24 In Play Learning top experts in child development and learning contend that in over emphasizing academic achievement our culture has forgotten about the importance of play for children's development Memory, Identity, Community Lewis P. Hinchman, Sandra Hinchman, 1997-01-01 This multidisciplinary volume documents the resurrection of the importance of narrative to the study of individuals and groups and argues that narrative may become a lingua franca of future debates in the human sciences Digital Difference Ray Land, Siân Bayne, 2011-11-16 A sense of disquietude seems ever present when discussing new digital practices The transformations incurred through these can be profound troublesome in nature and far reaching Moral panics remain readily available Discussing the manner in which digital culture within education might differ from its analogue predecessors incurs the risk of resorting to increasingly roadworn meta phors of new frontiers cyber domains inter generational conflicts and inevitably the futurist utopias and dystopias characterised by Western media throughout the twentieth century These imaginings now seem to belong to an earlier era of internet thinking We are freer over two decades on to re evaluate digital difference from new perspectives Are digital learning environments now orthodox or do the rapidly emerging technologies hold a new promise and a new arena of difference for pedagogical practice What are the points of rift and the points of continuity between virtual learning spaces and their equivalents in the real What qualities of difference should concern us now The writings in this collection from three continents reflect a complex embrace of culture power and technology Topics range from social questions of consumption speed uncertainty and risk to individual issues of identity selfhood and desire Ethical issues arise involving equity and authority as well as structural questions of order and ambiguity From these themes emerges an engaging agenda for future educational research and practice in higher education over the coming decade The book will interest teachers practitioners and managers from all disciplines as well as educational researchers Language, Learning, and Behavior Disorders Joseph H. Beitchman, 1996-06-13 Language as a connecting bridge between learning disability and psychiatric disorder is the unifying theme of this wide ranging book Particular prominence is given to attention deficit hyperactivity disorder dyslexia and autistic disorder Explanations for the comorbidity of psychiatric and language disorder are sought in developmental cognitive and biological fields the contribution of imaging modalities is considered and implications for aetiology treatment and rehabilitation are explored Topical issues such as syndrome definition in dyslexia acquired memory disorder in childhood and biology behaviour correspondence are well covered as are a range of treatment options A final section is devoted to outcome studies Enlivened with case vignettes and offering insights into the range of current thinking on language and behaviour this book is a rich resource for professionals and advanced students concerned with child health and development offering ideas for a unified view of language learning and behaviour problems

Neurophenomenology and Its Applications to Psychology Susan Gordon, 2013-06-12 This book explores the meaning and import of neurophenomenology and the philosophy of enactive or embodied cognition for psychology It introduces the psychologist to an experiential non reductive holistic theoretical and practical framework that integrates the approaches of natural and human science to consciousness In integrating phenomenology with cognitive science neurophenomenology provides a bridge between the natural and human sciences that opens an interdisciplinary dialogue on the nature of awareness the ontological primacy of experience the perception of the observer and the mind brain relationship which will shape the future of psychological theory research and practice The Social Psychology of Knowledge Daniel Bar-Tal,Arie W. Kruglanski,1988-07-21 This collection brings a new perspective to research in social cognition It assembles 15 chapters aiming to provide an innovative and integrative analysis of the phenomenon of human knowledge Imagining the Impossible Karl S. Rosengren,Carl N. Johnson,Paul L. Harris,2000-05-29 This volume first published in 2000 is about the development of human thinking that stretches beyond the ordinary boundaries of reality Various research initiatives emerged in the decade prior to publication exploring such matters as children s thinking about imaginary beings magic and the supernatural The purpose of this book is to capture something of the larger spirit of these efforts In many ways this new work offers a counterpoint to research on the development of children s domain specific knowledge about the ordinary nature of things that has suggested that children become increasingly scientific and rational over the course of development In acquiring an intuitive understanding of the physical biological or psychological domains even young children recognize that there are constraints on what can happen However once such constraints are acknowledged children are in a position to think about the violation of those very same constraints to contemplate the impossible Machine Learning-based Natural Scene Recognition for Mobile Robot Localization in An Unknown Environment Xiaochun Wang,Xiali Wang,Don Mitchell Wilkes,2019-08-12 This book advances research on mobile robot localization in unknown environments by focusing on machine learning based natural scene recognition The respective chapters highlight the latest developments in vision based machine perception and machine learning research for localization applications and cover such topics as image segmentation based visual perceptual grouping for the efficient identification of objects composing unknown environments classification based rapid object recognition for the semantic analysis of natural scenes in unknown environments the present understanding of the Prefrontal Cortex working memory mechanism and its biological processes for human like localization and the application of this present understanding to improve mobile robot localization The book also features a perspective on bridging the gap between feature representations and decision making using reinforcement learning laying the groundwork for future advances in mobile robot navigation research Responsible Belief Robert M. Frazier,2015-10-23 Responsible Belief tackles the problem of fixing the tenacity of believers in forming holding and modifying beliefs In conversation with the history of philosophy and religion the author attempts to expose and refute some aspects of the dominant epistemological framework for engaging belief fixation and improvement In contrast to this framework Dr Frazier provides a model of a responsible believing agent rooted in an ethic of the intellectual virtue tradition In dialogue with Aristotle he proposes three principal virtues which he calls the generative the transmissive and the metamorphic The author s alternative framework includes an examination of the role that intellectual passions play in the melioration of belief Responsible Belief considers whether Doestoevsky s claim that Beauty will save the world has a place in discussions of belief formation and revision and offers an account of its vitality in addressing the concerns raised in the book
