Young, 2024-10-23 It is often said that it is lonely at the top But this loneliness can be dangerous not only to the leader but also to the led It turns out we hold our environments as we are held If we are not held in a caring and daring fashion it shows up in how we live and lead The Basecamp Manifesto is a formative work on developing and sustaining leadership skills Here Terence Young outlines the development of a changed narrative around leading organizations Rather than the often stereotyped perception of leadership as a solitary ascent to the top followed often by an equally solitary descent down the leadership peak Young has created a framework for leadership that relies on developing a basecamp of companions Like the familiar basecamps of extraordinary physical ascents of Mount Everest and other spectacular and spectacularly challenging peaks a leader s basecamp is a secure base of trusted and trusting peers that shape and nurture you during the ascent to leadership Young presents the gifts that current and future leaders should find in a secure base greater clarity in the sense making process enhancement of agility in navigating dynamic situations building endurance to face challenges and fostering generativity for greater productivity and innovation in one's life quest The Basecamp Manifesto is written for leaders of all organizations whether for profit or nonprofit Whether a business leader an educational leader a political leader a religious leader or other society facing leader all leaders face particular and specific challenges in leadership How do I lead and navigate with those in my circle through a world of increasing volatility uncertainty complexity and ambiguity For the sake of those you lead Young's groundbreaking work says to leaders find your people find your secure base find and shape and nurture the circle of trust that can make you a quality leader The Basecamp Manifesto can help you to become intentional about shaping relationships where clarity agility durability and generativity can be found and fostered Do Sweat the Small Stuff Sarah Langslow, 2024-07-08 Shortlisted for the The Leadership Book of the Year Award 2024 You may think it's small stuff but it has a big impact Great leadership is about people connecting with them and inspiring them to perform at their best But leaders under pressure tend to focus on tasks to do lists and deadlines The result Teams are disengaged performance and productivity are below expectations morale is low Building relationships isn't a one off task It happens through every single interaction and we aren't paying those everyday moments nearly enough attention Do Sweat the Small Stuff challenges you to notice and own the profound impact of your micro interactions To explore how your speaking and listening your habits and your behaviours affect those around you whether you realize or not Finally it reveals how to reinvent those interactions to reshape how you show up as a leader and build trusting productive relationships with your people Sarah Langslow distils more than two decades of hands on experience building effective leadership skills and behaviours in the corporate and sporting world and as an executive coach into an actionable plan for sustainable transformation ECKM 2020 21st European Conference on Knowledge Management Professor Alexeis Garcia-Perez, 2020-12-02 Bravespace Workplace Moe Carrick, 2019-05-21 People are what make companies great Good leaders know this and spend time effort and money taking care of the people who work for them so that their business results are phenomenal So why is it that so many people are still miserable at work Experts around the world offer countless ideas and techniques and training for elevating the joy and performance of workers And still we fail Things must change Using potent examples from 35 years of working inside and outside of organizations as they strive to be people centered bestselling author and consultant coach Moe Carrick offers a fresh honest and direct roadmap for leaders everywhere who seek to make their workplace fit for human life Bravespace Workplace shows us the unadulterated truth of what it takes to make companies bring out the absolute best in human beings despite our messy imperfect needy demanding and complex habits needs and issues The book shows how leaders need to focus on six interdependent levers of their day to day work culture leadership team meaning design and partnership with machines to materially enliven and lift the humanity and the performance of everyone who works for them which is a win win for both employee and employer Bravespace Workplace offers a clearly imagined future for organizations in which the people who work there grow connect and thrive Carrick holds a potent point of view about the unarguable aspects of actually creating a workplace for people not machines The book is for leaders in all organizations at every level as well as people development HR OD coaches and consultants who advise others about organizational culture leadership structures and teams Ethical Leadership Robert M.
