Communication Skills for College & Beyond Series 1 , Beyond Midnight Antoinette Stockenberg,2015-01-09 Salem Will history repeat itself In 1692 Salem Massachusetts was the setting for the infamous persecution of innocents accused of witchcraft Three centuries later little has changed Helen Evett widowed mother of two and owner of a prestigious preschool in town finds her family her fortunes and her life s work threatened all because she feels driven to protect the sweet three year old daughter of a man who knows everything about finance but not so much about fathering Helen s feelings toward little Katie s handsome father are decidedly mixed and it will take more than knocks in the night perfumed air and bone chilling cold to convince her otherwise Nathaniel Byrne is willing to consider Helen s advice and help But he does it grudgingly because the woman is by far the most determined pushy force he s ever encountered Recently widowed tormented by the circumstances and at sea about being a single parent Nat is not inclined to hand over his daughter to just any preschool not when he has an accomplished London trained nanny who s more than willing to make those decisions for him And the nanny herself Peaches Bartholemew is as clever as she is beautiful as efficient as she is soothing Peaches can do anything The trick for Nat s dead wife will be to keep her from doing it Reviews BEYOND MIDNIGHT has a terrific plot a wicked villain and a sexy hero But the novel ventures beyond sheer entertainment and it is easy to see why Stockenberg's work has won such acclaim. The theme and setting create a terrifying scenario even without the supernatural elements: a chilling correspondence between the events of Salem's witch hunting hysteria and contemporary allegations of ritualistic abuse in preschools. A good read that makes you think. Comes awfully close to dare I say it literature. Katherine Hennessey Wikoff Milwaukee Journal Sentinel

Entertaining and fun. BEYOND MIDNIGHT'S shining strengths are its insights into parenting and relationship issues, its brazen humor, its writing style, its to die for hero, its cunning villain, and its intriguing supernatural overtones. Kristi Lyn Glass, editor, Gothic Journal

When it comes to unique, eerie, and engrossing tales of supernatural suspense, author Antoinette Stockenberg is in a league of her own. BEYOND MIDNIGHT is a gripping and chilling page-turner outlining two families' courageous battle against an insidious evil, with a charming face. Outstanding reading. Romantic Times

Antoinette Stockenberg creates another winner with this fast-paced and lively contemporary romance with a touch of the supernatural thrown in to make an interesting storyline even more exciting. Contemporary romance at its best. Five stars. Harriet Klausner

Affaire de Coeur. Ms. Stockenberg is a marvelous storyteller who writes with humor, wit, and real experiences that we can relate to. Totally absorbing. A superior tale with just the right combination of greed, hysteria, obsession, and romantic passion. Spectacular. A terrific story that had me anxiously turning the well-written pages. Literary Times

BEYOND MIDNIGHT is typical of Stockenberg's excellent paranormal romances with extremely strong characters and an intriguing and original plot. Melinda Hughes, Gothic Journal

Helen Evett, owner of a thriving pre-school in Salem, becomes the object of a modern witch hunt that endangers her family, her business, and her enchanting newfound love. This is the sort of paranormal romance that draws you in, a believable, emotionally involving ghost story with an appealing story of love. B Dalton's Heart to Heart

Meticulously researched and detailed, BEYOND MIDNIGHT brings Salem and its history to striking life. Antoinette Stockenberg, a premiere voice in paranormal, gives us yet another keeper. Linda Opdyke, New Reality Reviews
