A Semantic And Structural Analysis Of Ephesians Semantic And Structural Analyses Series

Eugene Nida, Charles Taber

A Semantic And Structural Analysis Of Ephesians Semantic And Structural Analyses Series:

A Semantic and Structural Analysis of Ephesians Edna Johnson, 2008 The books in this series are analytical commentaries on the Greek text of New Testament books Each book first identifies the high level semantic components of the text and indicates the relationships between them These components are then further analyzed to identify sub components and their relationships This process is continued until the basic units of communication called propositions are identified These propositions are stated in semantically unskewed English glosses Theme statements for paragraphs and larger units are derived from the analysis A discussion of the evidence supporting the analysis is also given A Linguistic Approach to Revelation 19:11-20:6 and the Millennium Binding of Satan Alan E. Kurschner, 2022-08-22 This study argues that the establishment of the millennium binding of Satan and the vindication of the saints in Revelation 20 1 6 are cohesively linked with Jesus s victorious battle in Revelation 19 11 21 The major implication of this analysis views both these events as consequent effects of Christ s victory at the eschatological battle Applying systemic functional linguistics and discourse analysis of cohesion this study advances critical scholarship on the Book of Revelation by offering the first fully sustained answer to this frequently debated question regarding Satan s binding from a modern linguistic approach Journal of

Biblical Literature ,1972 The Theory and Practice of Translation Eugene Albert Nida, Charles Russell Taber, 1974

The Theory and Practice of Translation Eugene A. Nida, Charles R. Taber, 2023-08-14 The Theory and Practice of Translation Eugene Nida, Charles Taber, 2021-10-01 The Theory and Practice of Translation first published in 1982 and a companion work to Toward a Science of Translating Brill 1964 analyses and describes the set of processes involved in translating Bible translating the focus of this work offers a unique subject for such a study as it has an exceptionally long history involves more than 2 000 languages a vast range of cultures and a broader range of literary structures than any other type of translating Not only of interest to Biblical scholars therefore this work explores issues of textual meanings and the procedures for communicating these meanings into other languages and cultures Linguistics and Language Behavior

Abstracts ,2007 The Pastoral Epistles Stanley E. Porter, 2023-10-17 Leading New Testament scholar Stanley Porter offers a comprehensive commentary on the Pastoral Epistles that features rigorous biblical scholarship and emphasizes Greek language and linguistics This book breaks new ground in its interpretation of these controversial letters by focusing on the Greek text and utilizing a linguistically informed exegetical method that draws on various elements in contemporary language study Porter pays attention to the overall argument of the Pastoral Epistles while also analyzing word meanings and grammatical structures to tease out the textual meaning Porter addresses major exegetical issues that arise in numerous highly disputed passages and while attentive to the history of scholarship on First Timothy Second Timothy and Titus often takes untraditional or innovative positions to blaze a new path forward rather than adopt settled answers This commentary will appeal to professors students and scholars of the New Testament Biblical Theology of prayer in the New Testament Francois P. Viljoen, Albert J. Coetsee, 2023-08-31 This publication deals with a biblical theology of prayer based on the New Testament. It forms the second of a two volume publication on a biblical theology of prayer dealing with the concept of prayer in the Old and New Testament respectively. This New Testament volume begins with an introduction on prayer and worship in early Jewish tradition followed by eleven chapters dealing with New Testament corpora. It concludes with a final chapter synthesising the findings of the respective investigations of the Old and New Testament corpora to provide a summative theological perspective of the development of the concept of prayer through scripture. Prayer forms a major and continuous theme throughout the biblical text. Prayer was an integral part of the religious existence of God's people in both the Old and New Testament. It underwent its greatest developments during and as a result of the Exile and was deepened and transformed in the New Testament. In both the Old and the New Testament God is the sole addressee of his people's prayer. This conviction continued into the New Testament but was broadened with Trinitarian elements of worship, adoration and intercession. A biblical theological investigation is chosen as methodology. Since all the biblical books form part of one canonical text the assumption is that the various theologies about prayer being displayed in these books can be synthesised into a developing meta theology about prayer. As the Old and New Testament form part of the canonical text the results about prayer in the Old Testament can be brought into play with the results about prayer in the New Testament. This eventually leads toward an overarching biblical theology of prayer. Aldah Vaitsman, 1976 The Face of New Testament Studies Scot McKnight, Grant R. Osborne, 2004 Since 1970 there have been far reaching changes in the way the New Testament is studied. This text provides detailed overviews on what has been happening in this area over the last 30 years. Religious and Theological Abstracts, 2005 Thiselton on Hermeneutics Anthony C. Thiselton, 2017-05-15 Hermeneutics is an interdisciplinary study of how we interpret texts especially biblical texts in the light of theories of understanding in philosophy, meaning in literary theory and of theology. This volume brings together the seminal thought of a leading contemporary pioneer in this field. Thiselton's The Two Horizons was a classic on how horizons of biblical texts engage creatively with the horizons of the modern world. The author's later New Horizons in Hermeneutics explored still more deeply the transforming capacities of biblical texts while his massive commentary on 1 Corinthians interpreted an epistle. This volume collects many of Anthony Thiselton's more notable writings from some seven books and 70 articles to which he adds his own re appraisals of earlier work. It uniquely expounds the thought of a major contemporary British theologian through his own words and includes his own critical assessments. Early Christian Paraenesis in Context James Starr, Troels Engberg-Pedersen, 2012-02-13 An up to date discussion of early Christian paraenesis in its Graeco Roman and Hellenistic Jewish contexts in the light of one hundred years of scholarship issuing from a research project by Nordic and international scholars. The concept of paraenesis is basic to New Testament scholarship but hardly anywhere else. How is that to be explained? The concept is also notoriously without any agreed upon definition and it is even contested. Can it at all be salvaged This volume reassesses the scholarly discussion of paraenesis both the concept and the phenomenon since Paul Wendland and Martin Dibelius and argues for a number of ways in which it may continue to be fruitful American Studies Jack Salzman,1990-05-25 This volume supplements the acclaimed three volume set published in 1986 and consists of an annotated listing of American Studies monographs published between 1984 and 1988 There are more than 6 000 descriptive entries in a wide range of categories anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science and technology and sociology A Semantic and Structural Analysis of the Johannine Epistles Grace E. Sherman,John C. Tuggy,1994 The books in this series are analytical commentaries on the Greek text of New Testament books They identify the high level semantic components and sub components of the text and the relationships between them Toronto Journal of Theology ,2003 Helps for Translators ,1969 A Semantic and Structural Analysis of Philemon John Banker,1999 The books in this series are analytical commentaries on the Greek text of New Testament books They identify the high level semantic components and sub components of the text and the relationships between them Svensk exegetisk åarsbok ,1980
