Hernández-Navarro, 2011-01-15 This book explores the idea that art can enact small scale resistances against the status quo in the social domain These acts which we call little resistances determine the limited yet potentially powerful political impact of art From different angles seventeen authors consider the spaces where art events occur as political spaces and explore how such spaces host events of disagreements in migratory culture The newly coined word migratory refers to the senseless traces of the movements of migration that characterize contemporary culture In other words movement is not an exceptional occurrence in an otherwise stable world but a normal generalized process in a world that cannot be grasped in terms of any given notion of stability Thus the book offers fresh reflections on art's power to move people in the double sense of that verb and shows how it helps to illuminate migratory culture's contributions to this process Preaching that Shows Margaret

Cooling, 2022-04-25 For many years the resolution plot has dominated homiletical theory made most famous by the Lowry Loop a staple of preaching theory for today's ministry student Whilst the approach is important some have accused resolution plot of leaving little room for ambiguity and failing to reflect the messy reality of life Offering a ground breaking approach as a counter to well worn preaching strategies this book explores the revelatory plot focused more on the gradual revelation of relevant truths within the biblical text through character and embodied insight and through imaginative and sensory detail rather than through answering the questions how and why It will prove an invaluable resource for students homileticians and preachers alike Sourcebook for Sundays, Seasons, and Weekdays, 2012 Awakening the Creative Spirit Christine
