What Is The What By Dave Eggers:

What is the What Dave Eggers, 2011-10-27 What is the What is Dave Eggers's astonishing novel about one of the world's most brutal civil wars. Valentino Achak Deng is just a boy when conflict separates him from his family and forces him to leave his small Sudanese village, joining thousands of other orphans on their long, long walk to Ethiopia where they find safety for a time. Along the way, Valentino encounters enemy soldiers, liberation rebels, and deadly militias, hyenas, and lions, disease and starvation. But there are experiences ahead that will test his spirit in even greater ways than these. Truly epic in scope and told with expansive humanity, deep compassion, and unexpected humour, What is the What is an eye-opening account of life amid the madness of war and an unforgettable tale of tragedy and triumph. If there was ever any doubt that Dave Eggers is one of our most important storytellers, What Is the What should put it to rest. A strange, beautiful, and unforgettable work. San Francisco Chronicle. A remarkable book, harrowing, witty, wretched, delightful, and always compelling, always surprising. London Review of Books. All of the author's proceeds from this book will go to the Valentino Achak Deng Foundation. Dave Eggers has championed the cause of the short story so magnificently that through his own McSweeney's magazine and through its many imitators, the form is once again in the ascendant. Yet while celebrating the work of others, Eggers has also proved himself time and again one of the modern masters of the form. This unmissable collection is Eggers's first and showcases his talents in a variety of stories that are short, short, short, long, and every length in between, and in stories that are dark, funny, inspiring, daring, and endlessly inventive, including the acclaimed Up the Mountain Coming Down Slowly. In short, in stories that will make you appreciate that Dave Eggers and the short story were made for each other and in turn for you. Possibly the most admired and emulated American author of his generation. Independent. Brilliant. Confident. Floods of language. Sunday Herald. Intensely pleasurable, striking in its beauty, a triumph of both form and content. Guardian. The Every Dave Eggers, 2021-11-16 From the award-winning bestselling author of The Circle comes an exciting new follow-up. When the world's largest search engine/social media company, the Circle, merges with the planet's dominant e-commerce site, it creates the richest and most dangerous and oddly enough, most beloved monopoly ever known. The Every. Delaney Wells is an unlikely new hire at the Every. A former forest ranger and unwavering tech skeptic, she charms her way into an entry-level job with one goal in mind: to take down the company from within. With her compatriot, the not-at-all-ambitious Wes Makazian, they look for the Every's weaknesses, hoping to free humanity from all encompassing surveillance and the emoji-driven infantilization of the species. But does anyone want what Delaney is fighting to save? Does humanity truly want to be free? Studded with unforgettable characters, outrageous outfits, and lacerating set pieces, this companion to The Circle blends absurdity and terror, satire and suspense while keeping the reader in apprehensive excitement about the fate of the company and the human animal. American Literature Hans notion of people as self contained autonomous agents At the same time it is the first substantial study of literary representations of the human subject carried out within the conceptual framework of Foucault inflected philosophy of technical mediation which examines the nature of the relation between people and specific technologies as well as the way in which this relation affects human subjectivity As such the book may help readers to exercise more effective control over the way in which they are constituted as subjects in this technologically saturated world Technology, Urban Space and the Networked Community Saswat Samay Das, Ananya Roy Pratihara, 2022-01-08 This collection stages a dynamic scholarly debate about the ambivalent workings of technocapitalism and humanism in urban spaces Such workings are intended to provide multiple forms of autonomy and empowerment but instead create intolerable contradictions that are experienced in the form of a slavish adherence to machines Representing the novelty of a post anthropocentric grammar this book points towards a new ethical and political praxis It challenges the anthropocentrism of bio politics and neoliberalism in order to express the constitutive potential of an eco sensible new earth It Takes a Storyteller to Know a Storyteller Julia Nikiel, 2023-01-23 If it is indeed impossible to think beyond capitalism then capital has become reality If global capitalism organizes reality through the stories it weaves capital is as strong as its fictions If capital is reality and capital is fiction then reality as such is fiction as well It is by reading this fiction for both patterns and inconsistencies that contemporary individuals can challenge global capital and unveil its hypocrisies and it is by fighting fiction with fiction i e projecting new realities such as those in the post millennial novels by William Gibson Douglas Coupland and Dave Eggers that people can imagine the world anew

New Sincerity Adam Kelly, 2024-10-08 The years 1989 2008 were an era of neoliberal hegemony in US politics economy and culture Post 45 scholar Adam Kelly argues that American novelists who began their careers during these years specifically the post baby boom generation of writers born between the late 1950s and early 1970s responded to the times by developing in their fiction an aesthetics of sincerity How and in what way these writers ask can you mean what you say and avow what you feel when what you say and feel can be bought and sold on the market What is authentic art in a historical moment when the artist has become a model for neoliberal subjectivity rather than its negation Through six chapters focused on key writers of the period including Susan Choi Helen DeWitt Jennifer Egan Dave Eggers George Saunders Dana Spiotta Colson Whitehead and David Foster Wallace the book explores these central questions while intervening critically in a set of debates in contemporary literary studies concerning aesthetics economy gender race class and politics Offering the capstone articulation of a set of influential arguments made by the author over a decade and more New Sincerity constitutes a field defining account of a period that is simultaneously recent and historically bound and of a generation of writers who continue to shape the literary landscape of the present Metamedia Alexander Starre, 2015-08-15 Does literature need the book With electronic texts and reading devices growing increasingly popular the codex is no longer the default format of fiction Yet as Alexander Starre shows in Metamedia American literature has rediscovered the book as an artistic medium after the
