 Shearman,2012-07-26 I don t like writing at home much admits Shearman Home is a place for sleeping and eating and watching afternoon game shows on TV There are too many distractions So years ago I decided I d only write first drafts in art galleries And the best of them all is the National Gallery in London a pigeon s throw from Nelson s Column I can walk around there with my notebook thinking up stories and if I get bored there are lots of expensive pictures to look at Perfect A lot of those paintings however have angels in them They re all over the place wings raised halos gleaming perching on clouds blowing trumpets hovering around the Virgin Mary as if they re her strange naked childlike bodyguards And I began to notice That whenever the writing is going well the angels seemed happy and would smile at me And whenever the words weren t coming out right when I felt sluggish when I thought I d rather take off and get myself a beer they d start to glare I wrote this story in the National Gallery Accompanied by a lot of glaring angels Enjoy Wanting to Believe: A Critical Guide to The X-Files, Millennium and The Lone Gunmen Robert Shearman,2009-08-10 In Wanting to Believe acclaimed science fiction writer Robert Shearman critiques and examines the whole of the X Files universe including the spin off series Millennium and The Lone Gunmen As such this is one of if not the only guide of its kind to cover all 13 seasons of this extremely popular property With this unauthorized guidebook X Files fans will be able to reevaluate these TV series with Shearman World Fantasy Award winner Hugo Award nominee renowned playwright writer on the new Doctor Who series and all around nice guy as he diligently comments upon all 282 X Files related episodes and the two motion pictures which form one of the most notable TV works of the 1990s and is every bit as enjoyable today Armed with Wanting to Believe you will not only find yourself mulling over Shearman s insights and opinions about The X Files you will want to pull your DVDs and re watch this amazing and impressive series for yourself

Remember Why You Fear Me Robert Shearman,2012-10-15 Twenty short stories from the surreal to the horrific from dark fantasy to black humor by the World Fantasy Award winning author a terrific collection SF Site Deliciously frightening darkly satirical and always unexpected Robert Shearman has won the World Fantasy Award the British Fantasy Award the Shirley Jackson Award and the Edge Hill Reader s Prize Remember Why You Fear Me gathers together his best dark fiction the most celebrated stories from his acclaimed books and ten new tales that have never been collected before In this collection you will read of a woman who rejects her husband s heart and gives it back to him still beating in a plastic box a little boy who betrays his father to the harsh mercies of Santa Claus a widower who suspects his dead wife s face is growing over his own and a man who goes to Hell where he finds he s roommate to the ghost of Hitler s dog Also lurking in these pages are giant spiders killer angels ghost cat photography and the haunted house at the center of the Garden of Eden

Write with the Clarity of a Photo Paul Anthony Mills,2019-09-23 Have you ever heard someone say I liked the movie but the book was better They probably said it because what must be depicted in under 2 hours on the big screen can be gradually and methodically delivered over hundreds of pages adequately capturing the very essence the author intended Have you ever heard the phrase a picture is worth a thousand words Simply put a single picture can convey in an instant the equivalent of a thousand words written down On your quest to create your first novel you not only need to be able to capture the essence of a movie whilst depicting your story to a depth a movie is unable to realize you must also be able to illustrate each scene of your story to a degree where your readers can visualize those scenes as if they were staring at a series of pictures Hence the title of this 3rd and final book in my series titled Write with the Clarity of a Photo And apart from the obvious ingredients that go into the creation of a novel like plot characters setting conflict and ending your novel cannot be complete without 3 other equally important facets theme narration and dialogue

Fowler, Norman Partridge, Robert Shearman, 2012-07-26 Oh I Do Like to Be Beside the Seaside Christopher Fowler

Christopher Fowler explains Seaside came about firstly because I was commissioned to write a story for the World Horror Convention souvenir book and as the event was to take place in Brighton it seemed logical to set a tale on the South coast of England I had written a fantasy novel Calabash some years earlier hinting at the dark madness of such seaside towns which are the antithesis of their Mediterranean counterparts I thought of the depressing Morrissey song Every Day is Like Sunday which captures the awfulness of English resorts Coincidentally Kim Newman and I were discussing the inherent creepiness of pantomime dames and I decided it was time to give vent to my horror of these coastal pleasure domes I wish I'd thought to include screaming gangs of hen nighters as well And I thought it was a nice touch to have everyone in the story telling the hero to fuck off until he finally does Featherweight Robert Shearman I don't like writing at home much admits the author Home is a place for sleeping and eating and watching afternoon game shows on TV There are too many distractions So years ago I decided I'd only write first drafts in art galleries And the best of them all is the National Gallery in London a pigeon's throw from Nelson's Column I can walk around there with my notebook thinking up stories and if I get bored there are lots of expensive pictures to look at Perfect A lot of those paintings however have angels in them They're all over the place wings raised halos gleaming perching on clouds blowing trumpets hovering around the Virgin Mary as if they're her strange naked childlike bodyguards And I began to notice That whenever the writing is going well the angels seemed happy and would smile at me And whenever the words weren't coming out right when I felt sluggish when I thought I'd rather take off and get myself a beer they'd start to glare I wrote this story in the National Gallery Accompanied by a lot of glaring angels Enjoy Lesser Demons Norman Partridge I was surprised to receive an invitation for S T Joshi's Black Wings reveals Partridge an anthology of Lovecraftian fiction Although I knew S T admired my work I've never quite seen myself as a Mythos writer While I respect H P Lovecraft and his contribution to horror I've never felt that his worldview or maybe I should say universeview meshed with mine In the end that's what made the story work at least for me I concentrated on my differences with Lovecraft and approached the material from a place where Jim Thompson would be more comfortable than HPL And I'm delighted that so many people have enjoyed the tale it was a lot of fun to write
