Travelling North By David Williamson:

Travelling North David Williamson, 1980 Frank and Frances find new life in a twilight love affair to the consternation of their conventional children Their dream takes them north to the sun__ David Williamson Ortrun Zuber-Skerritt, 2023-10-09 The aims of Australian Playwrights are To contribute to the interpretation critical analysis recognition promotion and wider understanding of Australian drama theatre and performance To publish scholarship on Australian drama theatre and performance including critical studies of a particular playwright director or company and their plays productions and or performances thematic studies exploring the work of a group of Australian playwrights theatre companies and or performance makers and scholarly books investigating a period topic or approach in Australian drama theatre or performance To enliven enrich inform and illustrate the study of drama theatre and performance both within Australia and internationally especially for scholars artists and students Each book in the series offers an in depth study aimed at furthering knowledge of Australian drama theatre and performance within the broader formation of Australian culture by drawing on a range of primary and secondary sources concerned with playwriting performance making theatre production and or critical reception Authors are cordially invited to submit proposals and or full manuscripts to the publisher at BRILL Christa Stevens Questions about your manuscript and proposals can also be directed to the Series Editor Jonathan Bollen David Williamson Katharine Brisbane, 2003 Provides a personal view of the man and analyses the content and success of his work Travelling North, by David Williamson , 1983 Performed by the Stage Company at the Space Theatre from June 16th to July 2nd starring Betty Lucas and Phillip Ross and directed by John Noble When London Calls Stephen Alomes, 1999-10-11 For thousands of young Australians the tearful dockside farewell was a rite of passage as they boarded ships bound for London For some the journey was an extended holiday but for many actors painters musicians writers and journalists leaving Australia seemed to be the only path to personal and professional fulfilment This book first published in 2000 is a collective biography of those people who found themselves categorised as expatriates people such as Leo McKern Dame Joan Sutherland Barry Tuckwell Don Banks Phillip Knightley John Pilger Peter Porter Richard Neville Jill Neville and megastars Barry Humphries Germaine Greer and Clive James The book tells of choices they made about career and country yet it is also a cultural history that traces shifts in the complex relationship between Australia and Britain as the supposed colonial backwater began to develop its own cultural identity The Club by David Williamson Kylie Ackland, 2000 Masterplots II Christian Hollis Moe, 2004 Masterplots II Drama Series covers plays by important 20th century playwrights such as Samuel Beckett Arthur Miller Eugene O neill George Bernard Shaw neil Simon and tennessee Williams Leo 'Rumpole' McKern George Whaley, 2009 This long awaited biography tells the story of a working class Sydney boy who left Australian shores in the 1940s and went on to an extraordinary and renowned acting career In England he become a major Shakespearean actor and made many films Yet it was the gravelly voiced potato faced Horace Rumpole in the long running series Rumpole of the Bailey that made him a household name in Britain and Australia Masterplots II. Frank Northern Magill,1990 The King and I Philippa Kelly,2015-03-17 A unique exploration of Shakespeare's King Lear with its themes of banishment alienation and hope via a personal memoir that embraces the history of Australia The Old Country George Seddon,2005-10-04 We are a nation of gardeners and we take pleasure in tending our backyards But this pleasure sits uneasily with our knowledge that the places where most of us live are running out of water We suspect that our lawns and many of our plants from the damp climates of northern European gardens are too demanding of scarce supplies but can't imagine our streets and gardens without them The Old Country opens our eyes and minds to other possibilities It does so by telling us stories about our natural landscape George Seddon believes that the better we understand the delicacy and beauty of our natural environment the more at home we will feel as Australians This passionate wise and witty book enriched with breathtakingly beautiful illustrations suggests that the answers to our water problems lie here at home

Tracking the Literature of Tropical Weather Anne Collett,Russell McDougall,Sue Thomas,2017-01-09 This book tracks across history and cultures the ways in which writers have imagined cyclones hurricanes and typhoons collectively understood as tropical weather Historically literature has drawn upon the natural world for its store of symbolic language and technical device making use of violent storms in the form of plot drama trope and image in order to highlight their relationship to the political social and psychological realms of human affairs Charting this relationship through writers such as Joseph Conrad Herman Melville Gis le Pineau and other writers from places like Australia Japan Mauritius the Caribbean and the Philippines this ground breaking collection of essays illuminates the specificities of the ways local national and regional communities have made sense and even relied upon the literary to endure the devastation caused by deadly tropical weather The Doctor in Literature Solomon Posen,2005 Posen a retired physician and a former English major has indexed 1500 passages from approximately 600 novels short stories and plays describing physicians He also analyzes several persistent themes in literature such as doctors fees lack of time bedside manner and social status Posen's extensive research has uncovered a resentment of doctors and a discontent with the medical profession that transcends time and place Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com Bold Palates Barbara Santich,2012 Bold Palates is lovingly researched and extensively illustrated Barbara Santich helps us to a deeper understanding of Australian identity by examining the way we eat Not simply a gastronomic history her book is also a history of Australia and Australians Men at Play Jonathan Bollen,Bruce Parr,Adrian Kiernander,2008 How are masculinities enacted in Australian theatre How do Australian playwrights depict masculinities in the present and the past in the bush and on the beach in the city and in the suburbs How do Australian plays dramatise gender issues like father son relations romance and intimacy violence and bullying mateship and homosexuality race relations between men and men's experiences of war and migration Men at Play explores theatre's role in presenting and contesting images of masculinity in Australia It ranges from often produced plays of the 1950s to successful contemporary plays from Dick Diamond's Reedy River Ray Lawler's Summer of the Seventeenth Doll Richard Beynon's The Shifting Heart and Alan Seymour's The One Day of the Year to David Williamson's Sons of Cain Richard Barrett's The Heartbreak Kid Gordon Graham's The Boys and Nick Enright's Blackrock The book looks at plays as they are produced in the theatre and masculinity as it is enacted on the stage It is written in an accessible style for students and teachers in drama at university and senior high school The book's contribution to contemporary debates about masculinity will also interest scholars in gender race and sexuality studies literary studies and Australian history

An Introduction to Post-Colonial Theatre Brian Crow, Chris Banfield, 1996-03-21 In this book Brian Crow and Chris Banfield provide an introduction to post colonial theatre by concentrating on the work of major dramatists from the Third World and subordinated cultures in the first world Crow and Banfield consider the plays of such writers as Wole Soyinka and Athol Fugard and his collaborators from Africa Derek Walcott from the West Indies August Wilson and Jack Davis who write from and about the experience of Black communities in the USA and Australia respectively and Badal Sircar and Girish Karnad from India Although these dramatists reflect diverse cultures and histories they share the common condition of cultural subjection or oppression which has shaped their theatres Each chapter contains an informative list of primary source material and further reading about the dramatists The book will be of interest to students and scholars of theatre and cultural history
