The Art of Living a Life You Love Margaux Joy DeNador, 2013-11-01 When you are living a life you love you become the artist shaping and shading your life You get to choose how your life feels looks and sounds Each year of your life you can begin a new painting or continue adding dabs of color or new choices to the masterpiece you are creating In this practical and inspiring book Margaux Joy DeNador will guide you in making choices that take your life from good to great On the Journey Cynthia Thomas, 2014-04 On the Journey The Art of Living with Breast Cancer is my personal experience of the diagnosis and first phase of treatment of breast cancer A mammogram confirmed a mass the biopsy confirmed it was cancer I was diagnosed with stage 3 breast cancer February 22nd 2013 That was the beginning I started this series of mandalas to help me get through the Journey on which I was embarking What has helped me the most has been using art to process my feelings creating a new mandala each day to move healthy healing energy into my body and process out the negative energy I knew from the beginning art was and is essential for my healing Creating the mandalas and doing the writings On the Journey has supported me emotionally through this difficult time Doing art on a nearly daily basis has kept me focused on the Now Sharing the Journey has helped me I have learned I am not alone On January 2 2014 I was upgraded to stage 4 breast cancer The Journey continues with the loving support from my community a sisterhood of survivors and thrivers friends and loved ones Hundreds of people have sent me angels their prayers their love and support We all need to know we belong that we are part of this glorious species human kind Enjoy and explore your own journey as well The Moral Imagination

John Paul Lederach, 2010 John Paul Lederach's work in the field of conciliation and mediation is internationally recognized He has provided consultation training and direct mediation in a range of situations from the Miskito Sandinista conflict in Nicaragua to Somalia Northern Ireland Tajikistan and the Philippines His influential 1997 book Building Peace has become a classic in the discipline In this book Lederach poses the question How do we transcend the cycles of violence that bewitch our human community while still living in them Peacebuilding in his view is both a learned skill and an art Finding this art he says requires a worldview shift Conflict professionals must envision their work as a creative act an exercise of what Lederach terms the moral imagination This imagination must however emerge from and speak to the hard realities of human affairs The peacebuilder must have one foot in what is and one foot beyond what exists The book is organized around four guiding stories that point to the moral imagination but are incomplete Lederach seeks to understand what happened in these individual cases and how they are relevant to large scale change His purpose is not to propose a grand new theory Instead he wishes to stay close to the messiness of real processes and change and to recognize the serendipitous nature of the discoveries and insights that emerge along the way overwhelmed the equally important creative process Like most professional peacemakers Lederach sees his work as a religious vocation Lederach meditates on his own calling and on the spirituality that moves ordinary people to reject violence and seek reconciliation Drawing on his twenty five years of experience in the field he explores the evolution of his understanding of peacebuilding and points the way toward the future of the art http://www.loc.gov/catdir/enhancements/fy0616/2004011794_d.html
