whereabouts Edward Carson, 2021-08-02. In the poem of the world there once was a map of the map composed in the likeness of a poem. In this riddling and seeking book of poems, Edward Carson navigates the emotional, often contradictory intelligence of the heart and mind. In three interrelated segments, whereabouts powerfully charts the tight emotional spaces between thinking and language, beauty and perception, love and the polemics of self and other. Taking on cartographic distortions and dynamics of the map metaphor, thereabouts or the mapmaker's dilemma playfully confronts the quandaries of personal navigation when the wants and needs of the esemplastic mind are forever devising new places to be. Exploring the brain, its neurons and serpentine synaptic connections, hereabouts in fourteen scans advances a poetry of rhizomic communication, capturing networks of thought and feeling that spring from both conflict and caress. Within a relationship's countless masquerades and revelations, whereabouts the lovers' discourse invites the reader to eavesdrop on a series of intimate conversations wherein lovers argue and act out their richly populated inner lives, addressing issues of gender, pleasure, communication, control, and sex.
