

The book cover features a watercolor illustration of a path or stream winding through a forest. The path is light-colored and misty, leading the eye from the bottom towards the top. On either side of the path, there are dense clusters of trees and foliage. Notably, there are several bright red, round objects, possibly berries or small flowers, scattered throughout the greenery, particularly in the upper half of the cover. The overall color palette is soft, with greens, browns, and a touch of red.

Unformed Landscape Peter Stamm, 2010-02-23 Unformed Landscape begins in a small village on a fjord in the Finnmark on the northeastern coast of Norway where the borders between Norway Sweden Finland and Russia lie covered in snow and darkness where the real borders are between day and night summer and winter and between people Here a sensitive young woman like Kathrine finds few outlets for her desires Half Norwegian half Sami an indigenous people Kathrine works for the customs office inspecting the fishing boats arriving regularly in the harbor She is in her late 20s has a son from an early marriage and has drifted into a second loveless marriage to a man whose cold and dominating conventionality forms a bold stroke through the unformed landscape of her life After she makes a discovery about her husband that deeply wounds her Kathrine cuts loose from her moorings and her confusion and sets off in search of herself Her journey begins aboard a ship headed south taking her below the Arctic Circle for the first time in her life Kathrine makes her way to France and has the bittersweet experience of a love affair that flares and dies quickly her starved senses rewarded by the shimmering beauty of Paris Through a series of poignant encounters Kathrine is led to the richer life she was meant to have and is brave enough to claim Using simple words strung together in a melodic alphabet Peter Stamm introduces us through a series of intimate sketches to the heart of an unforgettable woman Her story speaks eloquently about solitude the fragility of love lost illusions and self discovery

Into The Forest Jean Hegland, 2016-01-28 Set in the near future Into the Forest is a powerfully imagined novel that focuses on the relationship between two teenage sisters living alone in their Northern California forest home Nell and Eva live alone in the forest Recently orphaned and completely isolated they struggle for normality in a post holocaust world where electricity is a thing of the past and the outside world a distant memory In one short year their normal teenage lives have been transformed as everything we consider necessary to civilization crumbles Without petrol or electricity they are forced into seclusion and adolescent dreams of ballet school and Harvard are displaced by the reality of learning to survive Nell and Eva wait for the power to come back and the world they understand to return but as time goes on they are forced to realize that civilization is perhaps nothing more than a temporary condition a fugue state the world has allowed us At once a poignant and lyrical portrayal of the power of sisterly loyalty and a horrifying cautionary tale about the future of man and his place in the world INTO THE FOREST is a deeply moving account of human nature and our fragile existence on earth Make a Scene
