1881 in Guildford England to distinguished parents who were visiting the UK from Hong Kong where his father was a magistrate After two years in Hong Kong Wodehouse and his two brothers were sent back to England to live and be schooled Failing family finances meant that Wodehouse did not go on to University but began work straight away He wrote in the evenings and during a two year stint as a bank clerk managed to have over 80 pieces published With the publication of his first book The Pothunters in 1902 he devoted himself full time to writing His career was both prolific and commercially successful Whether it was novels short stories or plays everything seemed to be a hit His wonderful characterisation of the English upper classes combined with his mastery of prose left a lasting legacy most notably in his series of the humorous and sometimes hilarious Jeeves and Wooster stories that are at the pinnacle of comic writing and continue to be widely read and enjoyed Despite controversy over his broadcasts for the Germans during World War Two which stemmed more from naivety than any possible Nazi sympathies but which left a lingering stain against his name he continued to write although with diminishing success P G Wodehouse died on 14th February 1975 in the United States The White Feather P.g.
