and dramatic comedic writing which pepper the hundreds of scripts submitted every year Each point is illustrated with an example of the error and each section contains practical suggestions and exercises for the writer to apply to their own writing The book makes no assumption of the reader other than an interest in the form It contains interviews with current producers as well as interviews with successful practioners of the craft Marc Blake is a script consultant writer and teacher of writing for sitcom In this book he acts as a script mechanic for writers stripping a sitcom down to its component parts isolating the faults and fixing them What script editors and producers are looking for are scripts that work Naturally they want a genius in embryo but above all they first want to see something that is roadworthy
