Up in the Old Hotel, and Other Stories Joseph Mitchell, 2008 The Whole Machinery Ben Child, 2019 A familiar story holds that modernization radiates out from metropolitan origins The whole machinery explores representations of people and places objects and occasions that reverse that trajectory demonstrating how modernizing agents move in a contrary direction as well from the country to city In a crucial reversal these figures aren't pulled by or into urban modernity so much as they bring alternate and transformative iterations of the modern to the urban world This book upends the U.S. South's reputation as retrograde and unresponsive to modernity by showing how the effects of national and transnational exchange particularly via the cotton trade emergent technologies and industrialization animate environments and bodies associated with or performing versions of the rural To this end it also searches out the shadow side of the cosmopolitan modern by investigating the rural sources the laboring bodies and raw materials that made such urban spaces possible The whole machinery explores a range of canonical and noncanonical figures Paul Laurence Dunbar Frances E. W. Harper W. E. B. Du Bois Allen Tate Don West the authors of the Southern Tenant Farmers Union pamphlet The Disinherited Speak Charlie Poole and Zora Neale Hurston among them It uncovers signs of the rural modern in a variety of texts and media including narrative fiction and poetry as well as photographs sound recordings radio broadcasts letters newspaper reports and magazine profiles These readings convey diverse and individuated desires for escape or entrenchment often in the same conflicted voice ultimately creating multivalent expressions and experiences of rurality that are in their way as thoroughly modern as those of more widely canonized urban figures selling author Phoebe Hoban recounts the remarkable story of Neel's life and career as full of Sturm and Drang as the century she powerfully captured in paint. Neel managed to transcend her often tragic circumstances surviving the death from diphtheria of her infant daughter Santillana, her first child, by the renowned Cuban painter Carlos Enriquez with whom she lived in Havana for a year before returning to America, the break up of her marriage, a nervous breakdown at thirty resulting in several suicide attempts for which she was institutionalized and the terrible separation from her second child Isabetta whom Carlos took back to Havana. In every aspect of her life Neel dictated her own terms from defiantly painting figurative pieces at the height of Abstract Expressionism, convincing her subjects to disrobe, which many of them did, including surprisingly Andy Warhol, to becoming a single mother to the two sons she bore to dramatically different partners. No wonder she became the de facto artist of the Feminist movement. When Time magazine put Kate Millet on its cover in 1970, she was asked to paint the portrait. Very much in touch with her time, Neel was also always ahead of it. Although she herself would probably have rejected such label, she was America's first feminist multicultural artist, a populist painter for the ages. Phoebe Hoban's Alice Neel: The Art of Not Sitting Pretty tells the unforgettable story of a woman who forged a permanent place in the pantheon by courageously flaunting convention both in her life and her work.

Sky Train Ward McBurney, 2001-09-01. What do Northrop Frye, French dairy cows, and Historic Fort York have in common? They're all part of Ward McBurney's lyric and personal stories from CBC Radio's Fresh Air, which are now available for the first time in print. Broadcasting live on Saturday mornings with Jeff Goodes as host, Ward has been performing his own work for over four years. Sky Train collects 35 of his creative non-fiction pieces in which Isaac Brock, steam trains, dream trains, Fred Astaire, star fortifications, a tai chi master, truss bridges, ghost soldiers, lost loves, found objects, and not the least, the author's pet turtle, all find a home. A spirit of companionship and urban curiosity informs these stories, which cherish the marginalia of everyday life while revealing that the past is always just around the present corner.

Cancer and the Search for Selective Biochemical Inhibitors E.J. Hoffman, 2007-06-25.
