The Intimacies of Conflict Daniel Y. Kim, 2020-11-03 Winner 2020 Peter C Rollins Prize given by the Northeast Popular American Culture Association Enables a reckoning with the legacy of the Forgotten War through literary and cinematic works of cultural memory Though often considered the forgotten war lost between the end of World War II and the start of the Cold War the Korean War was as Daniel Y Kim argues a watershed event that fundamentally reshaped both domestic conceptions of race and the interracial dimensions of the global empire that the United States would go on to establish He uncovers a trail of cultural artefacts that speaks to the trauma experienced by civilians during the conflict but also evokes an expansive web of complicity in the suffering that they endured Taking up a range of American popular media from the 1950s Kim offers a portrait of the Korean War as it looked to Americans while they were experiencing it in real time Kim expands this archive to read a robust host of fiction from US writers like Susan Choi Rolando Hinojosa Toni Morrison and Chang rae Lee and the Korean author Hwang Sok yong The multiple and ongoing historical trajectories presented in these works testify to the resurgent afterlife of this event in US cultural memory and of its lasting impact on multiple racialized populations both within the US and in Korea

The Intimacies of Conflict offers a robust multifaceted and multidisciplinary analysis of the pivotal but often unacknowledged consequences of the Korean War in both domestic and transnational histories of race

Bilingual Brokers Jeehyun Lim,2017-04-03 Reading Asian American and Latino literature Bilingual Brokers traces the shift in attitudes toward bilingualism in postwar America from the focus on cultural assimilation to that of resource management Interweaving the social significance of language as human capital and the literary significance of English as the language of cultural capital Jeehyun Lim examines the dual meaning of bilingualism as liability and asset in relation to anxieties surrounding new immigration and globalization Using the work of Younghee Kang Carlos Bulosan Amrico Paredes Maxine Hong Kingston Richard Rodriguez Chang rae Lee Julia Alvarez and Ha Jin as examples Lim reveals how bilingual personhood illustrates a regime of flexible inclusion where an economic calculus of one's value crystallizes at the intersections of language and racial difference By pointing to the nexus of race capital and language as the focal point of postwar negotiations of difference and inclusion Bilingual Brokers probes the faultlines of postwar liberalism in conceptualizing and articulating who is and is not considered to be an American

Settler Garrison Jodi Kim, 2022-04-07 In Settler Garrison Jodi Kim theorizes how the United States extends its sovereignty across Asia and the Pacific in the post World War II era through a militarist settler imperialism that is leveraged on debt as a manifold economic and cultural relation undergirded by asymmetries of power Kim demonstrates that despite being the largest debtor nation in the world the United States positions itself as an imperial creditor that imposes financial and affective indebtedness alongside a disciplinary payback temporality even as it evades repayment of its own debts This debt imperialism is violently reproduced in juridically ambiguous spaces Kim calls the settler garrison a colonial archipelago of distinct yet linked military camptowns bases POW camps and unincorporated territories situated across the Pacific from South Korea to Okinawa to Guam Kim reveals this process through an analysis of how a wide array of transpacific cultural productions creates antimilitarist and decolonial imaginaries that diagnose US militarist settler imperialism while envisioning alternatives to it
