300 Junior Novel Anticipation Guides Nancy J. Polette, 2006-05-30. The author has created reproducible anticipation guides to 300 popular junior novels, ranging from classics like Ben and Me and Cricket in Times Square to the award winner Kira Kira. The book consists of 300 reproducible sets of open-ended, value questions to pique the interest of readers. Librarians and teachers will use these anticipation guides to spark interest in reading or as comprehension starters, tapping into prior knowledge and starting the process of understanding. The guides are also valuable for closure and comparative discussions with literature circles. In contrast to the low-level knowledge-recall questions used by some electronic reading programs, these questions are higher-order thinking questions that will encourage critical and divergent thinking. Grades 4-8.

Best Books for Junior High Readers John T. Gillespie, 1991. Provides an annotated listing of recommended reading material for students in grades seven through nine.

Inquiry and Reflection Diane DuBose Brunner, 1994-01-01. Inquiry and Reflection shows how stories of schooling can elucidate difficult and unexamined problems facing teachers. While professional texts tend to raise issues of power and its distribution and questions of culture and ideology, often the manner of presentation is abstract, and pre-service teachers have difficulty making connections. Yet literary film and video materials illuminate problems and suggest ideas to which teachers can actively respond. This book offers teacher educators a variety of resources for articulating a critical pedagogy and suggests an alternative to the technical job training approach to teacher education by providing a unique educational curricula that illuminates issues of power, ideology, and culture.
