

TEACHER Exemplary Writing Rubric (scored by teacher/reading partner)		1	2	3	4
Organization	Structure	Structure is inappropriate, causes confusion, or is not evident.	Structure is evident but not always clear or appropriate.	Structure (for the most part) is appropriate and organizational strategies are adequately used.	Structure is clearly appropriate and the essay is skillfully unified using well-used organizational strategies.
	Focus	No clear central idea. The writer does not focus on one topic, includes irrelevant information, OR shifts quickly from idea to idea.	The central idea is weak or somewhat unclear. The irrelevant information interferes with the focus of the paper.	The central idea is clear, and most ideas are related and focused on the topic. It may include only minor digressions in focus.	The central idea is clear, and all ideas are strongly related and focused on the topic.
	Transitions and Sentence Connections	Idea progression is illogical and weakly linked; lack of transitions makes the essay hard to follow.	Progression not always controlled; minor disruptions in flow; transitions are weak.	Progression is logical and controlled. Transitions are meaningful (for the most part) and support the flow.	Progression is logical and well controlled. Strong and meaningful transitions enhance the flow.
Development	Details	Development is weak due to inappropriate, vague, or lack of details.	Development is minimal due to details that are not always appropriate or too brief.	Development is sufficient due to details that are specific, appropriate, and add depth.	Development is sufficient due to details that are specific, well chosen, and add depth.
	Thoughtfulness	Response is vague, confused, or weakly linked to the prompt; OR lack of understanding of writing task.	Little or no thoughtfulness and sometimes formulaic; limited understanding of writing task.	Some thoughtfulness and original (not formulaic); good understanding of the writing task.	Thoughtful and engaging with unique experiences; thorough understanding of the writing task.
Language/Conventions	Word Choice	Word choice is vague or limited and doesn't establish tone; lacks quality and clarity.	Word choice is general or not specific and establishes little tone; doesn't contribute to the quality.	For the most part, word choice is clear and specific and establishes tone; contributes to the quality.	Word choice is purposeful, precise, and maintains appropriate tone; strongly contributes to the quality.
	Sentence Structure	Sentences are simple, unbalanced, or uncontrolled which limits effectiveness.	Sentences are unbalanced or only somewhat controlled which may not contribute to quality.	Sentences are varied and controlled which (for the most part) contribute to the effectiveness.	Sentences are purposeful, varied and well controlled which enhance the effectiveness.
	Conventions	Little or no control of spelling, capital letters, punctuation, and grammar which create disruptions in fluency.	Partial control of spelling, capital letters, punctuation, and grammar which create minor disruptions in fluency.	Adequate control of spelling, capital letters, punctuation, and grammar which create few (if any) disruptions in fluency; doesn't affect clarity.	Controlled control of spelling, capital letters, punctuation, and grammar which does not create disruptions in fluency; strongly contributes to the effectiveness.

pulls best practices together and shows writing with fresh eyes Resources in Education ,2001-04 Ancient Rome Gr. 4-6 Marci Haines,1999-01-01 This thematic unit will teach students about the powerful civilization of Ancient Rome and the many influences they have had on our modern world The unit starts off with core teaching lessons to build a base for knowledge followed by student worksheets that compliment the core lessons Optional lessons are included to add a degree of flexibility and possible enrichment activities to the lesson The unit finishes off with a major project that allows students to demonstrate further knowledge of Ancient Rome This History lesson provides a teacher and student section with a variety of reading passages activities crossword and answer key to create a well rounded lesson plan Reading Literacy of U. S. Fourth-Grade Students in an International Context Daniel McGrath,2009-12 The Progress in Internat Reading Literacy Study PIRLS is an assessment of the reading comprehension of students in 4th grade In 2006 PIRLS was admin to a nationally representative sample of 4th grade students in the U S as well as to students in 44 other jurisdictions around the world This report compares the performance of U S students with their peers around the world and also examines how the reading literacy of U S 4th grade students has changed since 2001 Results are presented by student background characteristics sex and race ethnicity and by contextual factors that may be associated with reading proficiency school characteristics instructional practices and teacher preparation and the home environment for reading Illus Improving Large-scale Assessment in Education Marielle Simon,Kadriye Ercikan,Michel Rousseau,2013 This book focuses on central issues that are key components of successful planning development and implementation of LSAs The book s main distinction is its focus on practice based cutting edge research This is achieved by having chapters co authored by world class researchers in collaboration with measurement practitioners AMLTC: Scoring guidelines Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations,1991 Nonfiction Strategies Grades 4-8 Debra Housel,2002-06 Lessons detailing how to read write discuss research remember and listen to information from nonfiction sources give students the meaningful practice they need to master nonfiction comprehension skills Strategies are correlated to McREL s Standards Teaching ESL Composition Dana R. Ferris,John Hedgcock,John S. Hedgcock,2004-09-15 In keeping with the spirit of the first edition Teaching ESL Composition Purpose Process and Practice Second Edition presents pedagogical approaches to the teaching of ESL composition in the framework of current theoretical perspectives on second language writing processes practices and writers The text as a whole moves from general themes to specific pedagogical concerns A primary goal is to offer a synthesis of theory and practice in a rapidly evolving community of scholars and professionals The focus is on providing apprentice teachers with practice activities that can be used to develop the complex skills involved in teaching second language writing Although all topics are firmly grounded in reviews of relevant research a distinguishing feature of this text is its array of hands on practical examples materials and tasks which are presented in figures and in the main text The synthesis of theory and research in a form that is accessible to preservice and in service teachers enables readers to see the relevance of the field's knowledge base to their own present or future classroom settings and student writers. Each chapter includes Questions for Reflection, pre-reading questions that invite readers to consider their own prior experiences as students and writers, and to anticipate how these insights might inform their own teaching practice. Reflection and Review follow up questions that ask readers to examine and evaluate the theoretical information and practical suggestions provided in the main discussion and Application Activities, a range of hands-on practical exercises such as evaluating and synthesizing published research, developing lesson plans, designing classroom activities, executing classroom tasks, writing commentary on sample student papers, and assessing student writing. The dual emphasis on theory and practice makes this text appropriate as a primary or supplementary text in courses focusing on second language writing theory as well as practicum courses that emphasize or include second language writing instruction or literacy instruction more generally. New in the Second Edition: updated research summaries; consider new work that has appeared since publication of the first edition; revised chapter on research and practice in the use of computers in second language writing courses; covers recent developments; streamlined number and type of Application Activities; focus on hands-on practice exercises and critical analysis of primary research; and revisions throughout reflect the authors' own experiences with the text and reviewers' suggestions for improving the text.

Nonfiction Strategies Grades 1-3 Debra J. Housel, 2002-06. Lessons detailing how to read, write, discuss, research, remember, and listen to information from nonfiction sources give students the meaningful practice they need to master nonfiction comprehension skills. Strategies are correlated to McREL's Standards.

The Math Teacher's Toolbox Bobson Wong, Larisa Bukalov, 2020-04-28. Math teachers will find the classroom-tested lessons and strategies in this book to be accessible and easily implemented in the classroom. The Teacher's Toolbox series is an innovative research-based resource providing teachers with instructional strategies for students of all levels and abilities. Each book in the collection focuses on a specific content area. Clear, concise guidance enables teachers to quickly integrate low-prep, high-value lessons and strategies in their middle school and high school classrooms. Every strategy follows a practical how-to format established by the series editors. The Math Teacher's Toolbox contains hundreds of student-friendly classroom lessons and teaching strategies. Clear and concise chapters fully aligned to Common Core math standards cover the underlying research, required technology, practical classroom use, and modification of each high-value lesson and strategy. This book employs a hands-on approach to help educators quickly learn and apply proven methods and techniques in their mathematics courses. Topics range from the planning of units, lessons, tests, and homework to conducting formative assessments, differentiating instruction, motivating students, dealing with math anxiety, and culturally responsive teaching. Easy-to-read content shows how and why math should be taught as a language and how to make connections across mathematical units. Designed to reduce instructor preparation time and increase student engagement and comprehension, this book explains the usefulness, application, and potential drawbacks of each instructional strategy. Provides fresh activities for all classrooms. Helps math teachers work with ELLs.
