How To Survive And Excel In Prison Within And Without:

How to Survive and Excel in Prison (within and Without) Abdur-Rauf A. Rashid, 2001 Escaping from the Prisons Within Rogelio Cuesta, 2008-05

Escaping from the prisons within Ethics as a process of liberation This book is a pioneer in its field for the first time a book and guide is designed for the incarcerated population At the same time it offers and proposes a moral component for not only academic programs but rehabilitation and self help as well The author proposes a moral therapy as a necessary resource in the process of being and becoming more human It deals with a humanizing vision of ethics as it tries to rescue positive and therapeutic elements that are at the core of the human soul Escaping from the prisons within Ethics as a process of liberation aims to incorporate a vital dimension that is missing in our programming to inmates the ethical component or moral therapy This therapy assists the reader in escaping from some of our interior prisons mind heart time and environment Given the strong undercurrent of philosophy and humanistics the text incites and invites a profound reflection and personal response By this approach ethics awaken and nourish not only the thinking man but especially the doer the active man as he becomes aware of the supreme effort and sublime pathway toward self liberation Rogelio Cuesta Fernandez was born in Spain He holds a Doctorate in Theology from the University of Santo Toms in Rome and a Ph D in Spanish Literature from New York University He has extensive experience teaching the humanities and Theology in Europe as well as in the United States In addition the author taught for 23 years for the Department of Corrections in a maximum security facility in New York State

Surviving Incarceration Rose Ricciardelli, 2014-05-30 Is prison a humane form of punishment and an effective means of rehabilitation Are current prison policies such as shifting resources away from rehabilitation toward housing more offenders improving the safety and lives of incarcerated populations Considering that many Canadians have served time are currently incarcerated or may one day be incarcerated and will be released back into society it is essential for the functioning and betterment of communities that we understand the realities that shape the prison experience for adult male offenders Surviving Incarceration reveals the unnecessary and omnipresent violence in prisons the heterogeneity of the prisoner population and the realities that different prisoners navigate in order to survive Ricciardelli draws on interviews with almost sixty former federal prisoners to show how their criminal convictions masculinity and sexuality determined their social status in prison and in consequence their potential for victimization The book outlines the modern inmate code that governs prisoner behaviours the formal controls put forth by the administration the dynamics that shape sex offender experiences of incarceration and the personal growth experiences of many prisoners as they cope with incarceration

TURN YOUR LIFE INTO A MASTERPIECE Funda Mpanza, 2014 Turn Your Life into a Masterpiece is written to benefit everyone who enjoys popular psychology and motivational talks The book motivates people to work on their lives and become masterpieces It is designed to assist those who are battling with various kinds of challenges so that they may see that there will always be a way of escape regardless of the size of the challenges ahead of them It also helps those who are already motivated to appreciate that life is full of opportunities and options that are waiting to be pursued tirelessly After reading this book the reader will be enlightened so much that his or her life will change forever I therefore suggest that the reader not rush through the book but rather take one chapter or portion at a time and spend time reflecting on the ideas that are suggested in the book What matters the most is what each thought means to each person who comes into contact with the book From Collective Memories to Intercultural Exchanges Marija Wakounig,2012 The Centers for Austrian Studies founded by the Austrian Federal Ministry for Science and Research since the 1970s play an important role for the Austrian and international scientific community They promote studies on Austria and Central Europe in their host nations as well as give Austrian students the possibility of conducting research abroad and of getting in touch with the local scientific community This volume contains reports on the activities of these institutions in the academic year 2011 2012 and includes working papers by some of their most promising PhD students The research presented covers various aspects of Central European history in modern times ranging from the 15th century to the present Series Europa Orientalis

Vol 13 The Journal of Psychological Medicine and Mental Pathology ,1857 Being Church Behind Prison

Walls Karl Robinson,2022-06-29 Being Church Behind Prison Walls Survival Theology Prisoners and Policymakers By Karl Robinson Being Church Behind Prison Walls Survival Theology Prisoners and Policymakers is a survivalist practical ministry manifesto for incarcerated Black men their families and religious social policymakers The book probes the question of what love looks like in a disgusting prison setting and demonstrates how religious and social policymakers can improve rehabilitation initiatives Readers will be inspired to think about prison reform in fresh ways using the Centered Prayer model religious imagination and self help initiatives rooted in historical memory Long-Term Imprisonment Timothy J.

Flanagan,1995-04-06 With recent sentencing law changes at the state and national level the United States will continue to use long term confinement more than any other nation in the world In this authoritative yet accessible volume scholars correctional authorities researchers and prisoners examine the use of long term incarceration as a response to crime the effects of long term incarceration and the strategies used by long term inmates to adjust to confinement Long Term Imprisonment explores the prison experience of both male and female inmates and discusses the correctional management challenges posed by long term incarceration The core of this collection edited by Timothy Flanagan is a set of articles first published in The Prison Journal the official journal of the Pennsylvania Prison Society and the oldest journal in the field of corrections These articles are complemented with research reports on the effects of long term confinement a comprehensive analysis of long term inmates currently confined in American and Canadian prisons and essays written by long term prisoners If you are interested in the use and operation of prisons and in the impact of these institutions on the people confined within them this book is for you In addition to students studying imprisonment the book informs correctional administrators and policymakers about the nature of long term inmate population and the impact of long term imprisonment Timothy Flanagan began studying the effects of long term incarceration over two decades ago when he conducted one of the first major studies of prisoners serving long sentences Since then many changes have occurred in corrections and sentences practices that have greatly increased sentence lengths and the number of prisoners serving long sentences The collection of the essays contained in Long Term Imprisonment represents the most comprehensive up to date and definitive review of literature regarding the effects of long term incarceration on prisoners Flanagan provides readers with a variety of perspectives of long term imprisonment by including articles written by prison researchers corrections officials and long term prisoners This book is must reading for anyone interested in life in prisons and the unique world of the long term prisoner Kevin N Wright Binghamton University

Doing Ethnography in Criminology Stephen K. Rice, Michael D. Maltz, 2018-10-13 This innovative book examines the use of ethnography and fieldwork in Criminology and Criminal Justice Research Using a combination of case studies as well as behind the scenes contributions it provides an comprehensive look at both the insights gained from ethnographic research as well as the choices researchers make in conducting that work The research is divided into three main sections covering ethnographies of subcultures ethnographies of place and ethnographies of policing It includes a diverse group of international contributors to provide perspectives on researchers selection of questions to study and their decisions about using ethnography to study those questions This work will be of interest to researchers in criminology and criminal justice particularly with a qualitative perspective as well as related fields such as sociology anthropology and demography It will also be of interest to students studying research methods and design
